Parishioner Reflection: Emily Bassett

Please join us in welcoming Emily Bassett, who is giving a reflection this weekend. Emily Bassett is a Captain in the United States Navy currently living in Capitol Hill with her husband, retired Navy LCDR Will Bassett, and with Edward (12) and Isabel (10), who attend St. Joseph School. Emily was born and raised in Edmonds, WA, and went to high school at Holy Names Academy, where she and Will were later married by the then-St. Joe's pastor, Fr. Chris.

She and Will have been stationed all over the world together, but their favorite duty station was Rota, Spain, where both their kids were born, and where Emily got a Master's degree taught in Spanish from the University of Cadiz.

Emily is completing a lifelong goal by getting stationed back home near her mom and sister and brothers. She plans to retire from the Navy in two years, after 24 years of service, and live here happily ever after. As a Surface Warfare Officer, she was the first Captain of a new warship, USS Manchester (LCS 14). As a Nuclear Engineer, she was the Reactor Officer of the Navy's newest class of aircraft carriers, USS Gerald R Ford (CVN 78). She is currently stationed at Puget Sound Naval Shipyard, and commutes by bicycle and ferry every day to Bremerton.

(9) God Brings Us Together

Carroll

God brings us together, God brings us together,
God brings us together, together in harmony
Christ brings us together...
The Spirit brings us together...
Church brings us together...
St. Joseph, bring us together...
Love keeps us together...

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will.

1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading

Daniel 12:1-3

In those days, I, Daniel, heard this word of the Lord:

“At that time there shall arise
Michael, the great prince,
guardian of your people;
it shall be a time unsurpassed in distress
since nations began until that time.
At that time your people shall escape,
everyone who is found written in the book.

“Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake;
some shall live forever,
others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace.

“But the wise shall shine brightly like the splendor of the firmament, and those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever.”

Psalm

Psalm 16

Haugen

1. Faithful God, I look to you, you alone my life and fortune, never shall I look to other gods, you shall be my one hope.

2. From of old you are my heritage, you my wisdom and my safety, through the night you speak within my heart, silently you teach me.

(9) The Lord Has Promised Me

Carroll

Ref. My Lord has promised me, all I ever need. All I ever need will come to me

Keep me safe, O Lord, in you, I take refuge. With You by my side, I am secure. Ref.

My Lord counsels me even in the night. Always showing me the path to life. Ref.

I am never shaken with him at my right hand. My soul rejoices and my heart is glad. Ref.

Second Reading

Hebrews 10:11-14, 18

Brothers and sisters: Every priest stands daily at his ministry, offering frequently those same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But this one offered one sacrifice for sins, and took his seat forever at the right hand of God; now he waits until his enemies are made his footstool. For by one offering he has made perfect forever those who are being consecrated.

Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer offering for sin.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia

Gospel

Mark 13:24-32

Jesus said to his disciples: "In those days after that tribulation

*the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light,
and the stars will be falling from the sky,
and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.*

"And then they will see the 'Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky.

"Learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. In the same way, when you see these things happening, know that he is near, at the gates. Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

"But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father."

Reflection

Emily Bassett

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Song

Turn To Me

Foley

*Turn to me, O turn, and be saved, says the Lord, for I am God;
there is no other, none beside me. I call your name.*

Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth down below.
The heavens will vanish like smoke, and the earth will wear out like a garment. Ref.

I am God, who comforts you; who are you to be afraid of flesh that fades, is made like the grass of the field, soon to wither. Ref.

(9) Instrumental

Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

(9) Misa Santa Cecilia

Santo, santo, santo'es el Señor, Dios del Universo Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest
Hosanna, hosanna en el cie - lo.
Hosanna, hosanna in the highest
Bendito el que viene en nombre del Señor
Hosanna, hosanna en el cie - lo.
Hosanna, hosanna in the highest.

Mystery of Faith

When we eat this bread and drink this cup we proclaim your death, Lord Jesus, until you come again.

(9) Misa Santa Cecilia

Anunciamos tu muerte, proclamamos tu resurrección
Ven Señor Jesús! Ven Señor Jesús.
We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your resurrection
Until you come again. Until you come again

Great Amen

Amen

Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
grant us peace.

Communion

Gusten Y Vean

Alonso

Refrain

Gus-ten y ve-an, gus-ten y ve-an qué bue-no es el Se-ñor, qué bue-no es el Se-ñor. Taste and see, taste and see the good-ness of the Lord.

Verses

¡Gus-ten y ve - an! Taste and see the good-ness of the Lord, qué bue-no es el Se - ñor.

Recessional

We Shall Rise Again

Young

1. Come to me, all you wea - ry, with your bur - dens and pain.
2. At the door there to greet us, mar - tyrs, an - gels, and saints,

Take my yoke on your shoul - ders and learn from me:
And our fam - 'ly and loved ones, ev-'ry - one freed from their chains.

I am gen - tle and hum - ble, and your soul will find rest,
We shall feel their ac - cep - tance, and the joy of new life.

For my yoke is eas - y and my bur - den is light.
We shall join in the gath - er - ing, re - u - nit - ed in God's love!

We shall rise a - gain on the last day with the faith - ful, rich and

(9) O When the Saints

Traditional

Oh, when the saints go marchin' in.
Oh, when the saints go marchin' in
Oh, Lord, I want to be in that number,
when the saints go marchin' in.

And when the sun refuse to shine.
And when the sun refuse to shine.
Oh, Lord, I want to be in that number,
when the saints go marchin' in.

Oh, when the stars fall from the sky...

Oh, when the trumpet sounds the call...

Oh, when they crown Him Lord of all...

Oh, when the saints go marching in...

LITURGY & WORSHIP

Remembering Our Beloved Dead

ST. JOSEPH PARISH
THE JESUIT PARISH IN SEATTLE

In the month of November, you are invited to bring photos of your loved ones to help create a shrine or “Saints Corner” to be located on the Mary altar. This will be maintained as a sacred space for contemplation and prayer throughout the month. You can bring your photo to church during visiting hours and place it on the Mary altar to the left of the main altar or drop it off at the parish center and we place it on the altar for you. Please write contact information on the back of the photo so it can be returned to you after November.

Parish Book of Life - This year, we will have our traditional Book of Life, containing names of loved ones who have passed away, on display near the altar in November. We invite you to write the names of friends and family who have passed in the Book of Life.

Thanksgiving Day Mass: November 25th, 10am

Come hear parishioner Dave Zlablotny talk about exciting new developments at St. Francis House on First Hill!

Prayer Requests

Prayers for the health of Fred Miller, Jane Perry, Anne Van, Joyce Toce, Etta Smith-Rice, and Patricia Thornton.

We remember Dennis O’Leary.

At St. Joe’s This Week

St. Joseph Advent Wreaths

Join us on November 27 & 28 to pick up your Advent Wreath! Wreath kits will be available after each Mass.

**suggested donation for each wreath is $20.*

After the 9am Mass, join us for a wreath-making party, with hot chocolate and cookies - everyone is welcome!

Questions? Mary Wiseman at maryw@stjosephparish.org or 206-965-1654

What does the Advent Wreath Mean To Us?

The wreath is made of evergreen boughs, reminding us that the life of grace doesn't falter with the changing seasons. It always remains fresh and new. Similarly, a circular wreath reminds us of the eternal, never-ending nature of God's love. Candles remind us that Christ is the light of the world, the One who "shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." We use four candles to represent each week of Advent. Purple has historically represented penance and sacrifice. On the third Sunday of Advent, however, we light a rose color for Gaudete Sunday. Whatever the color and whatever the day, the Advent wreath is a beautiful practice to focus our attention on Christ's coming at Christmas.

Becoming Anti-Racist: National Native Heritage Month and Thanksgiving

Learn (and unlearn) how to give thanks in a good way

"November is National Native Heritage Month. It is also the month of the traditional Thanksgiving holiday. Let's begin to understand the real story of Thanksgiving and the complex history undergirding this event in relation to Indigenous people. The path to reconciliation starts with honest acknowledgement of our past, with open eyes, and open hearts for a better future. It is time for us to be in good relation with one another. We can do that by learning and unlearning how to give thanks in a good way." - All My Relations Podcast Nov. 20, 2020

Listen to this November 20th, 2020 episode from the podcast "All My Relations." Native hosts talk with Wampanoag scholars Paula Peters and Linda Coombs, who tell us the real story of Thanksgiving, from an Indigenous Perspective. www.allmyrelationspodcast.com

Watch the Thanksgiving Address. It is the central prayer and invocation for the Haudenosaunee (also known as the Iroquois Confederacy or Six Nations). It reflects their relationship of giving thanks for life and the world around them. The Haudenosaunee open and close every social and religious meeting with the Thanksgiving Address.

It is also said as a daily sunrise prayer, and is an ancient message of peace and appreciation of Mother Earth and her inhabitants. The children learn that, according to Native American tradition, people everywhere are embraced as family. Our diversity, like all wonders of Nature, is truly a gift for which we are thankful. <https://danceforallpeople.com/haudenosaunee-thanksgiving-address/haudenosaunee-thanksgiving-address-20/>

Honor the National Day of Mourning

An annual tradition since 1970, Indigenous people & their allies have gathered at noon on Cole's Hill in Plymouth to commemorate a National Day of Mourning on the US Thanksgiving holiday. It is a solemn, spiritual, and highly political day. We are mourning our ancestors and the genocide of our peoples and the theft of our lands. NDOM is a day when we mourn, but we also feel our strength in action...It is a day of remembrance and spiritual connection, as well as a protest against the racism and oppression that Indigenous people continue to experience worldwide. <http://www.uaine.org>.

Some simple, impactful things you can do to help combat Native erasure this holiday:

Celebrate Indigenous cuisine. Add one of these recipes from Indigenous chefs to your Thanksgiving spread, with a focus on local, sustainable ingredients.

Speak about Native peoples in a respectful way. Look over this Do and Don't guide for allies, and use it to start conversations with your friends.

Learn Native History. Read The Wampanoag Side of the Story, a three-page article.

Acknowledge whose land you're on at this very moment. Enter your zip code to find out whose traditional territories you're residing on. Take a minute to learn more about them and honor their enduring relationship to the land. native-land.ca/resources/territory-acknowledgement/

Support Native-lead initiatives. Read the article Congress: It's Time to Pass the Indian Boarding School Legislation Now then sign the Petition to "Form a National Truth and Healing Commission, Now."

For Kids

Giving Thanks: A Native American Good Morning Message by Chief Jake Swamp, Irwin Printup Jr. (illustrator)

Giving Thanks is a special children's version of the Thanksgiving Address, a message of gratitude that originated with the Native people of upstate New York and Canada and that is still spoken at ceremonial gatherings held by the Iroquois, or Six Nations.

FAITH JUSTICE

Facing Homelessness – Now Open on Saturday!

Did you know? Facing Homelessness' Window of Kindness is now open on Saturdays. That also means that they need more volunteers and donations! There are four new shifts on Saturdays, two from 11:45am-2:30pm, and two from 2:30pm-5:15pm. (You must sign up for an orientation session before you can sign up for volunteer shifts.) Visit facinghomelessness.volunteerhub.com to see a list of shifts and to sign up!

We're also looking for more donations – drop these off any time in the church vestibule kitchen: More sandwiches (email markp@stjosephparish.org if you're able to help with sandwiches), cases of water/sodas, small individual chips, granola bars, candy, pastries, beef jerky

November is Stewardship Month!

We are grateful to all of you who have returned your pledge card! The initial response to our ask of a 7% increase has been extremely encouraging! Your gift to St. Joseph parish supports our many ministries, parish operational costs, and helps our parish continue its mission to build up the body of Christ.

We have not yet reached our goal of 100% commitment cards returned. If you can make a commitment, please make your pledge today by filling out the commitment card or going online at www.stjosephparish.org to complete your pledge. Our Stewardship Goal is $1,766,484.

We invite you in the coming weeks to reflect on how you are able to support the mission of St. Joe's - to love and serve. We are asking that every parishioner return their pledge card – if you aren't able to offer a monetary pledge at this time, please fill the pledge card out with a pledge of prayers. Every pledge card is an important piece of information that we use to responsibly budget each year! ## THE MAGIS FAMILY FORMATION PROJECT

We Are Grateful

November 2021

With the pandemic present for over a year, it has been challenging for many to find grace and be thankful, but we have many opportunities to be grateful, despite our circumstances – the beautiful fall season that color our communities, the start of a new school year, the prospects at work, the love and support we have in our lives through the kindness of others.

Things to be grateful for surround us everywhere, we just need to recognize them as such. It's a mindset we must believe that makes happy people. It raises our vibration and lightens our soul, and those are both things we can all use more of this Thanksgiving season.

Thankful for our FAMILY

The upside of practicing gratitude and making it be a part of our family credo, is that we lift each other up when one of us falls. We remind one another through our words and actions, how important it is to express our gratitude and love of life with each other. There is always one of us who steps up and leads by example, and it isn't always one of two adults in the household either!

Thankful for our FRIENDS

The best of messages of gratitude for a special friend of yours are text messages to use on Thanksgiving Day. Send these to that awesome friend and make them feel extremely loved by you.

2021 Best Words of Appreciation for Friends - Motivation and Love
<https://motivationandlove.com/words-of-appreciation-for-friends>

Thankful for our School and Church COMMUNITY

With the challenges of the pandemic, we have learned to collaborate and communicate through other means but let us always be aware that these would be futile without people. We needed our school and church connections even more this past year. In this light, let us be thankful for the opportunity to strengthen our relationships.

Interested in being a part of the Magis group?

The Words of Jesus

November 1: All Saints Day

Matthew 5:1-12A

*"Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."
Let us be humble and glad for the blessings in our lives.*

November 7: Thirty-Second Sunday of Ordinary Time

Mark 12:41-44

*"For they have all contributed..., but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."
What God sees are our acts of love, no matter how small they may be.*

November 13: Memorial of Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini

Luke 18:1-8

*"But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"
Let us keep the faith, even with the challenges caused by the pandemic.*

November 21: Feast of Christ the King

Mark 11:9, 10

*"Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."
With the truth and the Lord's guidance, we can navigate through life's complexities.*

November 28: First Sunday of Advent

Luke 21:25-28, 34-36

*"Beware that your hearts do not become drowsy from carousing and drunkenness and the anxieties of daily life, and that day catch you by surprise."
Jesus shows us that with Faith, all things are possible.*

St. Francis of Assisi – An Example of Thankfulness

From his poverty and love, Francis gives thanks to God for the incomparable gift of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Crucified and Risen Lord, and the Savior of the World.

Francis is, before anything else, a follower of Christ. Francis built the first Belén, or nativity scene, which afterwards became the center of the holiday celebrations.

Praying one night in the forest, he petitioned the Lord to allow him to share in his passion and was granted the stigmata, or the wounds of Christ on the cross.

How might we show similar actions as St. Francis

- Family meetings
- Family outings
- Long walks and reflection/prayer
- Donations: food, clothing
- Volunteer opportunities at school or within your community

Activities and Crafts

Gratitude Jar

Have everyone in the family fill out slips of paper saying why they are grateful. Put those slips in a jar.

At Thanksgiving or any other significant time, pull them out and read them.

Can you make them into a prayer of Thanksgiving?

AUTUMN LEAF (CRAFTS FOR KIDS TO MAKE

<https://www.theinspirationedit.com/20-fun-fall-crafts-kids-will-love/>

Make a Thankful Tree

Collect beautiful fall leaves.

Find one large branch that you could put into a vase.
You might anchor it with marbles or stone.

Look around your house and or neighborhood and find things that you are thankful for.

Using a black, white or silver sharpie, write on each leaf one thing that you are thankful for.

Glue them all over the branch!
