Christ the King
and the RCIA Rite of Acceptance

By Katy Callaghan Huston, MAPS

This is the end of the church's liturgical year. The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe is a relatively recent addition to the Western liturgical calendar, instituted in 1925 by Pope Pius XI for the Roman Rite of the Catholic Church. In 1970 its Roman Rite observance was moved to the final Sunday of Ordinary Time. The earliest date on which it can occur is November 20th and the latest is November 26th. The color for this Sunday is white and/or gold.

This feast is a special celebration for St. Joseph Parish because, while we are named for St. Joseph, our church—the second on this site, was dedicated on October 26th, 1930, the Feast of Christ the King in the former calendar.

The Feast of Christ the King has an eschatological dimension pointing to the end of time when the kingdom of Jesus will be established in all its fullness to the ends of the earth.

At the 5:30 Mass this weekend we are also celebrating the Rite of Acceptance. Having spent the past few weeks in the Period of Inquiry, being introduced to our community, our Creed, and the Mass, these catechumens (the unbaptized) and candidates (those seeking full communion with the Catholic Church), the Rite of Acceptance leads them into the next phase of growth in learning and spirituality. They will be dismissed from Mass following the Homily to go out with a catechist to break open the Word and increase their understanding of Christ in the Scriptures.

Christ Is the King

GELOBT SEI GOTT/Bell

Christ is the King! O friends, re-joice:
O mag-ni-fy the Lord, and raise:
They with a faith for ev-er new Bro-thers and sis-ters, with one voice.
an-thems of joy and ho-ly praise.
fol-lowed the King, and round him drew.
Let the world know he is your choice.
For Christ's brave saints of an-cient days.
Thou-sands of men and wo-men true.
Al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will.

1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

Signing Of the Senses

(5:30) In the Cross of Christ

Haugen

In the cross of Christ, our glo-ry,
Christ our sto-ry, Christ our song.

First Reading

Daniel 7:13-14

As the visions during the night continued, I saw:

One like a Son of man coming,
on the clouds of heaven;
when he reached the Ancient One and was presented before him, the one like a Son of man received dominion, glory, and kingship;
all peoples, nations, and languages serve him.
His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed.

Psalm

Psalm 93

Guimont

The LORD is king, with majesty enrobed.
The LORD has robed himself with might; he has girded himself with power.

The world you made firm, not to be moved; your throne has stood firm from of old.
From all eternity, O LORD, you are.

Truly your decrees are to be trusted. Holiness is fitting to your house,
O LORD, until the end of time.

Second Reading

Revelation 1:5-8

Jesus Christ is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead and ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood, who has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father, to him be glory and power forever and ever. Amen.

Behold, he is coming amid the clouds,
and every eye will see him,
even those who pierced him.
All the peoples of the earth will lament him.
Yes. Amen.

"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty."

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia

"O blest is the one who comes. Who comes in the name of the Lord. The Lord!"

Gospel

John 18:33b-37

Pilate said to Jesus, "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you say this on your own or have others told you about me?" Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What have you done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here." So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

Homily

Matthew Pyrc, S.J.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Come hear parishioner Dave Zlabotny talk about exciting new developments at St. Francis House on First Hill!

Please join the community at 10:00 am mass (there will be no early morning mass on Thanksgiving). Please feel free to bring two items of food or drink: one from your table to be blessed at the altar during mass, and the second item of food for the Blessed Sacrament Food Bank, so that others might also be blessed by your generosity.

We will also have a special collection for St. Francis House's Welcome Home Campaign.

At Home with the Word - Pick Up Your Copy Today!

We have purchased several hundred copies of the book "At Home with the Word" published by LTP (Liturgy Training Publications). The book also includes prayers and citations for the weekday readings.

Please feel free to pick one up in the vestibule. You can make an optional donation to defray the cost of the books by dropping it in the donation box or using the Dip Jar in the vestibule. (Suggested donation is $10.)

St. Joseph Advent Wreaths

Join us on November 27 & 28 to pick up your Advent Wreath! Wreath kits will be available after each Mass.

**suggested donation for each wreath is $20.*

After the 9am Mass, join us for a wreath-making party, with hot chocolate and cookies - everyone is welcome!

What does the Advent Wreath Mean To Us?

The wreath is made of evergreen boughs, reminding us that the life of grace doesn't falter with the changing seasons. It always remains fresh and new. Similarly, a circular wreath reminds us of the eternal, never-ending nature of God's love. Candles remind us that Christ is the light of the world, the One who "shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." We use four candles to represent each week of Advent. Purple has historically represented penance and sacrifice. On the third Sunday of Advent, however, we light a rose color for Gaudete Sunday. Whatever the color and whatever the day, the Advent wreath is a beautiful practice to focus our attention on Christ's coming at Christmas.

Becoming Anti-Racist: National Native Heritage Month and Thanksgiving

Learn (and unlearn) how to give thanks in a good way

"November is National Native Heritage Month. It is also the month of the traditional Thanksgiving holiday. Let's begin to understand the real story of Thanksgiving and the complex history undergirding this event in relation to Indigenous people. The path to reconciliation starts with honest acknowledgement of our past, with open eyes, and open hearts for a better future. It is time for us to be in good relation with one another. We can do that by learning and unlearning how to give thanks in a good way." - All My Relations Podcast Nov. 20, 2020

Listen to this November 20th, 2020 episode from the podcast "All My Relations." Native hosts talk with Wampanoag scholars Paula Peters and Linda Coombs, who tell us the real story of Thanksgiving, from an Indigenous Perspective. www.allmyrelationspodcast.com

Watch the Thanksgiving Address. It is the central prayer and invocation for the Haudenosaunee (also known as the Iroquois Confederacy or Six Nations). It reflects their relationship of giving thanks for life and the world around them. The Haudenosaunee open and close every social and religious meeting with the Thanksgiving Address.

It is also said as a daily sunrise prayer, and is an ancient message of peace and appreciation of Mother Earth and her inhabitants. The children learn that, according to Native American tradition, people everywhere are embraced as family. Our diversity, like all wonders of Nature, is truly a gift for which we are thankful. <https://danceforallpeople.com/haudenosaunee-thanksgiving-address/haudenosaunee-thanksgiving-address-20/>

Honor the National Day of Mourning

An annual tradition since 1970, Indigenous people & their allies have gathered at noon on Cole's Hill in Plymouth to commemorate a National Day of Mourning on the US Thanksgiving holiday. It is a solemn, spiritual, and highly political day. We are mourning our ancestors and the genocide of our peoples and the theft of our lands. NDOM is a day when we mourn, but we also feel our strength in action...It is a day of remembrance and spiritual connection, as well as a protest against the racism and oppression that Indigenous people continue to experience worldwide. <http://www.uaine.org>.

Some simple, impactful things you can do to help combat Native erasure this holiday:

Celebrate Indigenous cuisine. Add one of these recipes from Indigenous chefs to your Thanksgiving spread, with a focus on local, sustainable ingredients.

Speak about Native peoples in a respectful way. Look over this Do and Don't guide for allies, and use it to start conversations with your friends.

Learn Native History. Read The Wampanoag Side of the Story, a three-page article.

Acknowledge whose land you're on at this very moment. Enter your zip code to find out whose traditional territories you're residing on. Take a minute to learn more about them and honor their enduring relationship to the land. ## Racial Justice Book Group - December 8th

Please join us Wednesday, December 8 at 7pm on Zoom for a discussion of America's Unholy Ghosts by Joel Edward Goza. It examines the DNA of the ideologies that shape our nation, ideologies that too often justify and perpetuate racist ideas and racial inequalities. Ghosts examines a philosophical "trinity"—Thomas Hobbes, John Locke, and Adam Smith--whose works collectively helped to institutionalize, imagine, and ingrain racist ideologies into the hearts and minds of the American people.

As time passed, America's racial imagination evolved to form people incapable of recognizing their addiction to racist ideas. Ghosts comes to a close with the brilliant faith and politics of Martin Luther King, Jr. who sought to write the conscience of the Prophetic Black Church onto American hearts, minds, and laws. (From Goodreads.)

Nurturing Roots Update

Our NR-St. Joseph Anti-Racism Partnership is alive and well! They have been capturing more content recently about their space and updates about the farm. Here is one about the greenhouse and the special shout out to the parish: <https://youtu.be/XRveJo398Z4>

The parts for the replacement greenhouse (the one that blew down) are scheduled to arrive in the next few weeks. We are targeting late January or early February to amass another construction crew for assembly, and are hoping to connect with both parish groups and the school by March 2 for 40 days of growing veggie starts.

Want to get involved? Email markp@stjosephparish.org.

Finally, Nurturing Roots recently received a $900,000 gift to actually BUY the Beacon Hill property where the farm flourishes. No more rental. Nurturing Roots now has established roots!
