First Reading

1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23

In those days, Saul went down to the desert of Ziph with three thousand picked men of Israel, to search for David in the desert of Ziph. So David and Abishai went among Saul's soldiers by night and found Saul lying asleep within the barricade, with his spear thrust into the ground at his head and Abner and his men sleeping around him.

Abishai whispered to David: "God has delivered your enemy into your grasp this day. Let me nail him to the ground with one thrust of the spear; I will not need a second thrust!" But David said to Abishai, "Do not harm him, for who can lay hands on the Lord's anointed and remain unpunished?" So David took the spear and the water jug from their place at Saul's head, and they got away without anyone's seeing or knowing or awakening. All remained asleep, because the Lord had put them into a deep slumber.

Going across to an opposite slope, David stood on a remote hilltop at a great distance from Abner, son of Ner, and the troops.

He said: "Here is the king's spear. Let an attendant come over to get it. The LORD will reward each man for his justice and faithfulness. Today, though the LORD delivered you into my grasp, I would not harm the LORD's anointed."

Psalm

Psalm 103

Cotter

Bless the Lord, O my soul; all my being bless God's name.
Bless the Lord, O my soul; forget not all God's blessings. Ref.

The Lord is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, full of kindness.
God is good to all creation, full of compassion. Ref.

The goodness of God is from age to age, blessing those who choose to love.
And justice toward God's children; on all who keep the covenant. Ref.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15:45-49

Brothers and sisters: It is written, The first man, Adam, became a living being, the last Adam a life-giving spirit. But the spiritual was not first; rather the natural and then the spiritual. The first man was from the earth, earthly; the second man, from heaven. As was the earthly one, so also are the earthly, and as is the heavenly one, so also are the heavenly. Just as we have borne the image of the earthly one, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly one.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia

Taize

I give you a new commandment, says the Lord: love one another as I have loved you.

Gospel

Luke 6:27-38

Jesus said to his disciples: "To you who hear I say, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. To the person who strikes you on one cheek, offer the other one as well, and from the person who takes your cloak, do not withhold even your tunic. Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back. Do to others as you would have them do to you. For if you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners love those who love them. And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same. If you lend money to those from whom you expect repayment, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, and get back the same amount. But rather, love your enemies and do good to them, and lend expecting nothing back; then your reward will be great and you will be children of the Most High, for he himself is kind to the ungrateful and the wicked. Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

"Stop judging and you will not be judged. Stop condemning and you will not be condemned. Forgive and you will be forgiven. Give and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you."

Homily

Mike Bayard, S.J.

Dismissal

(5:30) Go Now In Peace

Sleeth

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Song

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

A Prayer for the Synod

Oh God, send forth your Spirit!
Awaken in us your grace!

Fill your Church with the breath that enlivened the waters,
when all of Creation was born:
that we might find beauty in the midst of chaos,
and bring life where stagnation has been.

Ignite your People with the fire that enflamed the disciples
when the Risen One stood in their midst:
that we might be courageous in an age of fear,
and nurture healing where the wounds are deep.

Mission us, your beloved ones, in an abundance of your Spirit,
as in synod we gather in your name:
that we might listen with the humility of hope,
that we might speak with the wisdom of faith,
that we might accompany each other with the fullness of love,
and so become a Church of the poor, a priestly People,
a communion of Pilgrims on our way to you.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.
Amen.

PARISH LIFE & FAITH JUSTICE

The Synod: St. Joe's Listens!

"Let us ask: in the church, are we good at listening? How good is the hearing of our heart? Do we allow people to express themselves, to walk in faith even though they have had difficulties in life, and to be part of the life of the community without being hindered, rejected or judged?" ~ Pope Francis

On October 9th, Pope Francis used these words to open a unique Synod of Bishops, one that will last two full years (instead of the usual three months) and will have a long-lasting effect on how the Catholic Church listens to the people, and not just leadership.

This synod, rather than investigating one particular topic, is meant to discover how the Church can listen better. Reflexively, it is a synod on synodality.

The process "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission" begins with a diocesan listening phase from October 2021 to April 2022, followed by a continental phase from September 2022 to March 2023 and a final "universal church phase" that will look more like past synod meetings in the Vatican in October 2023.

St. Joe's will offer a series of listening sessions in March 2022 (both in-person and on Zoom) to hear the Spirit speaking to this parish. These sessions will be identical in format: an opening prayer and contemplation with the full group, then smaller breakout group to converse with one another, beginning with some opening questions but open to the Spirit moving.

We invite you to attend one of these sessions - while our responses will eventually make their way to the Vatican in one form or another, the main goal of this Synod is learning how to listen to each other, as a parish. Please come and make your voice heard.

3/10 1pm - 3pm ZOOM
3/19 10am – 12pm ZOOM

A New Pastor for St. Joe's: Welcome, Fr. Chris Cartwright, SJ!

As you heard Fr. Chris Weekly announce from the pulpit last weekend, on the recommendation of Jesuit Provincial Sean Carroll, SJ, Archbishop Paul Etienne has appointed Fr. Chris Cartwright, SJ, as the new Pastor of St. Joseph Parish, beginning on August 1st, 2022. We are thrilled to welcome Fr. Chris to St. Joe's this fall, and we look forward to continuing to create community together, led by the Holy Spirit.

About Fr. Chris

Fr. Chris joined the Jesuits in 1970 and has served as a pastor at parishes and college campus ministry centers in Phoenix, San Francisco, Sacramento, Honolulu, and Los Angeles (including a summer in Seattle, studying Philosophy at Seattle U!). Currently, he is the Assistant Director of the Cardinal Manning House of Prayer for Priests in Los Angeles, a retreat center.

Fr. Chris is excited to be returning to parish ministry at St. Joe's, a special parish in a special city. "Different from Jesuits who have chosen education as their ministry, I was always attracted to pastoral ministry," Fr. Chris explains. "The Jesuits have provided me with many opportunities to work in pastoral settings. I am excited to be returning to a parish. From what I have heard for many years about St. Joe's, I consider myself lucky to be joining you this summer."

Growing up in a family of seven children, the concept of parish-as-family forms the basis of his worldview. "Everyone in a family, like a parish, is so important for the variety of experience," he says. "I love that parish life covers the fullness of life experiences, seeing how people grow and develop."

"A parish is tasked with trying to take seriously the teachings of Christ. The questions are simple: what can I do, and what can we do, as a community? A parish is where we experience individual and communal discerning and working to fulfill the mission."

First though, he's looking forward to meeting you! "Standing outside the church on Sunday mornings, greeting people, is just a total delight for me."

A New Pastor for St. Joe's: Welcome, Fr. Chris Cartwright, SJ!

As you heard Fr. Chris Weekly announce from the pulpit last weekend, on the recommendation of Jesuit Provincial Sean Carroll, SJ, Archbishop Paul Etienne has appointed Fr. Chris Cartwright, SJ, as the new Pastor of St. Joseph Parish, beginning on August 1st, 2022. We are thrilled to welcome Fr. Chris to St. Joe's this fall, and we look forward to continuing to create community together, led by the Holy Spirit.

FAQ:

Q: When will Fr. Chris start as Pastor?

A: His official first day is August 1st, 2022. We're hopeful that he will be able to visit and meet parishioners and staff sometime this Spring or Summer!

Q: What does this mean for Deacon Steve's role as Pastoral Coordinator and Fr. Matthew's role as Parochial Vicar?

A: Deacon Steve isn't going anywhere! He'll continue as our beloved Deacon, serving in a similar role as he did under Fr. John and Fr. Glen. We are so grateful for his steady leadership during this transition. Fr. Matthew will continue to serve as Parochial Vicar, lending his steady hand to liturgical leadership and his pastoral heart to the people of St. Joe's.

Q: How was this decision made?

A: Ever since Fr. Glen's resignation in April, Jesuits West (under the guidance of Provincial Sean Carroll) has been discerning who to appoint as St. Joe's next Pastor. After conversations with parish staff, parishioners, Archdiocesan and Jesuit representatives, Jesuits West feels confident that Fr. Chris is a good fit for St. Joe's and is happy to mission him to our parish.

Q: Is anything else going to change?

A: While with any change of leadership, things might feel a little different around St. Joe's, and that's a good thing! We're moving into the future, together. As Fr. Chris explains, "I'm not coming with a program or agenda – that's absurd – we'll get acquainted and move forward together in the Spirit. I don't know what things will be like, and I don't worry about that! All I know is if I go, and make friends, and join others in prayer and life, who we will be and how we will serve will be revealed. I'm not sitting here in LA plotting the future of St. Joe's. We'll learn the future together."
