First Reading

Sirach 27:4-7

When a sieve is shaken, the husks appear;
so do one's faults when one speaks.
As the test of what the potter molds is in the furnace,
so in tribulation is the test of the just.
The fruit of a tree shows the care it has had;
so too does one's speech disclose the bent of one's mind.
Praise no one before he speaks,
for it is then that people are tested.

Psalm

Psalm 92

Guimont

It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your loving mercy in the morning, and your truth in the watches of the night. Ref.

The just will flourish like the palm tree, and grow like a Lebanon cedar. Planted in the house of the LORD, they will flourish in the courts of our God. Ref.

Still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the LORD is upright. In him, my rock, there is no wrong. Ref.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15:54-58

Brothers and sisters: When this which is corruptible clothes itself with incorruptibility and this which is mortal clothes itself with immortality, then the word that is written shall come about:

*Death is swallowed up in victory.
Where, O death, is your victory?
Where, O death, is your sting?*

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be firm, steadfast, always fully devoted to the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia

Taize

"Shine like lights in the world; as you hold on to the word of life"

Gospel

Luke 6:39-45

Jesus told his disciples a parable, "Can a blind person guide a blind person? Will not both fall into a pit? No disciple is superior to the teacher; but when fully trained, every disciple will be like his teacher. Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own? How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me remove that splinter in your eye,' when you do not even notice the wooden beam in your own eye? You hypocrite! Remove the wooden beam from your eye first; then you will see clearly to remove the splinter in your brother's eye. A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. For every tree is known by its own fruit. For people do not pick figs from thornbushes, nor do they gather grapes from brambles. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil; for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks."

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

A Prayer for the Synod

Oh God, send forth your Spirit!
Awaken in us your grace!

Fill your Church with the breath that enlivened the waters,
when all of Creation was born:
that we might find beauty in the midst of chaos,
and bring life where stagnation has been.

Ignite your People with the fire that enflamed the disciples
when the Risen One stood in their midst:
that we might be courageous in an age of fear,
and nurture healing where the wounds are deep.

Mission us, your beloved ones, in an abundance of your Spirit,
as in synod we gather in your name:
that we might listen with the humility of hope,
that we might speak with the wisdom of faith,
that we might accompany each other with the fullness of love,
and so become a Church of the poor, a priestly People,
a communion of Pilgrims on our way to you.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.
Amen.

The Synod: St. Joe's Listens!

"Let us ask: in the church, are we good at listening? How good is the hearing of our heart? Do we allow people to express themselves, to walk in faith even though they have had difficulties in life, and to be part of the life of the community without being hindered, rejected or judged?" ~ Pope Francis

On October 9th, Pope Francis used these words to open a unique Synod of Bishops, one that will last two full years (instead of the usual three months) and will have a long-lasting effect on how the Catholic Church listens to the people, and not just leadership.

This synod, rather than investigating one particular topic, is meant to discover how the Church can listen better. Reflexively, it is a synod on synodality.

The process "For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, and Mission" begins with a diocesan listening phase from October 2021 to April 2022, followed by a continental phase from September 2022 to March 2023 and a final "universal church phase" that will look more like past synod meetings in the Vatican in October 2023.

St. Joe's will offer a series of listening sessions in March 2022 (both in-person and on Zoom) to hear the Spirit speaking to this parish. These sessions will be identical in format: an opening prayer and contemplation with the full group, then smaller breakout groups to converse with one another, beginning with some opening questions but open to the Spirit moving.

We invite you to attend one of these sessions - while our responses will eventually make their way to the Vatican in one form or another, the main goal of this Synod is learning how to listen to each other, as a parish. Please come and make your voice heard.

3/6 12:30pm – 2:30pm IN PERSON

3/10 1pm - 3pm ZOOM

3/19 10am – 12pm ZOOM

3/24 6:30pm – 8:30pm IN PERSON

*to set up a group-specific session, please contact Matthew Pyrc.

Bishop McElroy has written two books: The Search for an American Public Theology and Morality and American Foreign Policy. In addition, he has written a series of articles on theology and public policy for a variety of journals. # STEWARDSHIP

When we kicked off our Stewardship campaign last November with the State of the Parish annual report, we asked for an increase in pledges of $100,000, per year, for each of the next two years. I am endlessly grateful to announce that we made our goal! THANK YOU!

Thank you so much for responding to our Stewardship Campaign. Your response, out of gratitude for all that has been abundantly and so generously given to you, allows St. Joe's to continue the mission of Jesus Christ, both here within our parish family and in the wider community.
