WELCOME MINISTRY

Are you new to St. Joe's?
Registered in the last three years?
We'd love to meet you at our
New Parishioners Meet & Greet

We are thrilled to have you as members of St. Joseph Parish! Due to the pandemic, we haven't been able to give you the proper St. Joe's welcome you deserve - until now!

Join the St. Joseph Welcoming Ministry on Tuesday, May 24th, from 6pm – 8pm in the parish center, for a meet & greet for individuals and families new to the parish. We hope you'll be able to join us and other recently-registered parishioners to enjoy fellowship and some delicious food and drinks, meet staff and parishioners, and learn about ways to get involved in YOUR parish.

Please RSVP by email Maryw@stjosephparish.org, or call 206-965-1654, so we can plan accordingly for food & drink. We look forward to seeing you there!

First Reading

Acts 14:21-27

After Paul and Barnabas had proclaimed the good news to that city and made a considerable number of disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch. They strengthened the spirits of the disciples and exhorted them to persevere in the faith, saying, "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God." They appointed elders for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, commended them to the Lord in whom they had put their faith. Then they traveled through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. After proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia. From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now accomplished. And when they arrived, they called the church together and reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

Psalm

Psalm 145

Willcock

I will praise your name for e - ver, my king and my God.

1. I will give you glory, O God my king, I will bless your name for ever.

I will bless you day after day and praise your name for ever. Ref.

2. The Lord is kind and full of compassion, low to anger, abounding in love.

How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all creation. Ref.

3. All your creatures shall give you thanks, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing.

They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God. Ref.

Second Reading

Revelation 21:1-5a

Then I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth. The former heaven and the former earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race. He will dwell with them and they will be his people and God himself will always be with them as their God. He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away."

The One who sat on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new."

Gospel Acclamation

Haugen

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

"I give you a new commandment, says the Lord: love one another as I have loved you."

Gospel

John 13:31-33a, 34-35

When Judas had left them, Jesus said, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him. If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and God will glorify him at once. My children, I will be with you only a little while longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Take And Eat

Joncas

Take and eat; take and eat: this is my bod - y gi-ven up for you.

Take and drink; take and drink: this is my blood gi-ven up for you.

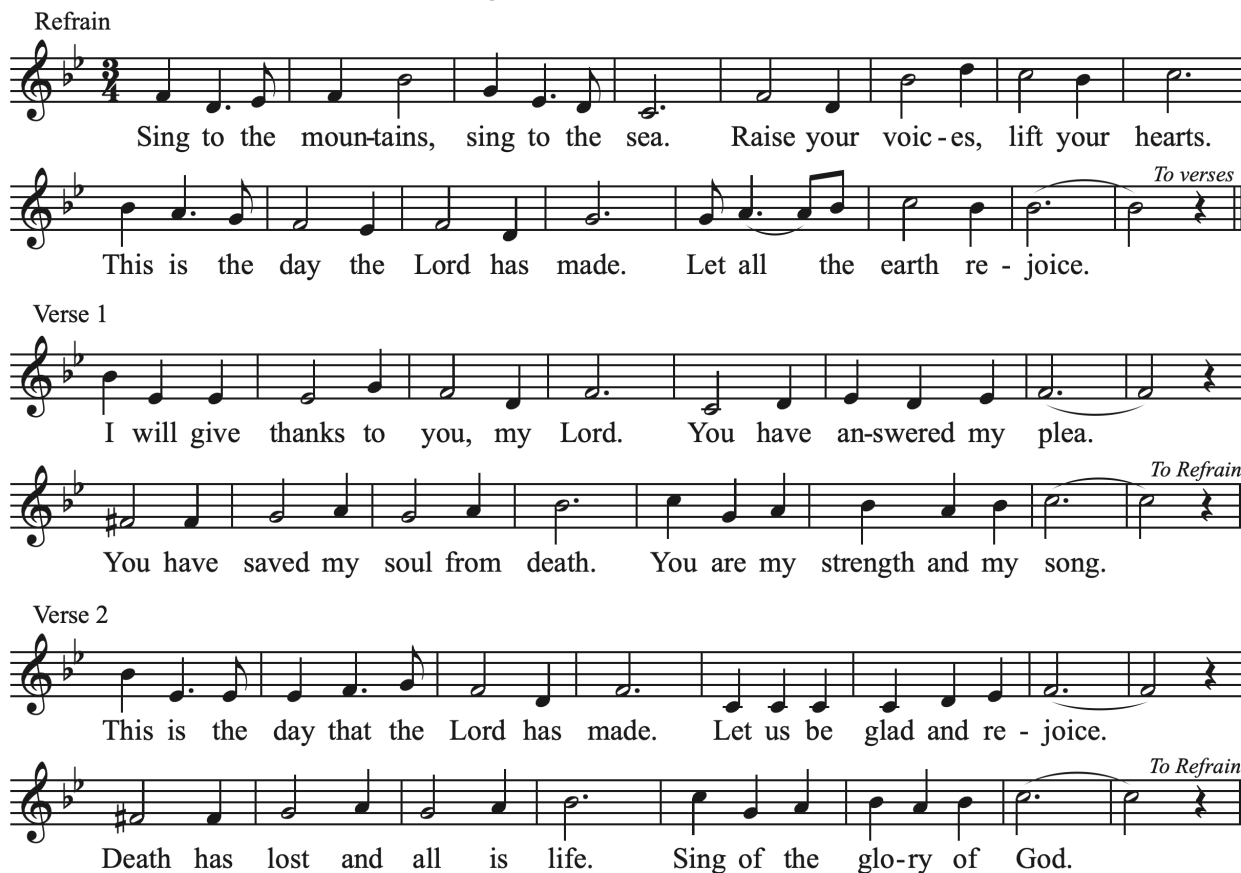

1. I am the Word that spoke and light was made; I am the seed that died to be reborn;
I am the bread that comes from heav'n above; I am the vine that fills your cup with joy. Ref.
2. I am the way that leads the exile home; I am the truth that sets the captive free;
I am the life that raises up the dead; I am your peace, true peace my gift to you. Ref.
3. I am the Lamb that takes away your sin; I am the gate that guards you night and day;
You are my flock: you know the shepherd's voice; You are my own: your ransom is my blood. Ref.
4. I am the cornerstone that God has laid; A chosen stone and precious in his eyes;
You are God's dwelling place, on me you rest; Like living stones, a temple for God's praise. Ref.
5. I am the light that came into the world; I am the light that darkness cannot hide;
I am the morning star that never sets; Lift up your face, in you my light will shine. Ref.
6. I am the first and last, the Living One; I am the Lord who died that you might live;
I am the bridegroom, this my wedding song; You are my bride, come to the marriage feast. Ref.

Recessional

Sing to the Mountains

Dufford

Refrain

Sing to the moun-tains, sing to the sea. Raise your voic-es, lift your hearts.

This is the day the Lord has made. Let all the earth re-joice. To verses

Verse 1

I will give thanks to you, my Lord. You have an-swered my plea.

You have saved my soul from death. You are my strength and my song. To Refrain

Verse 2

This is the day that the Lord has made. Let us be glad and re-joice.

Death has lost and all is life. Sing of the glo-ry of God. To Refrain

Habitat for Humanity Fundraising Luncheon

It's the time of year again! The luncheon you've been waiting for but have been unable to attend in-person for three years will be live at the Washington State Convention Center on June 2nd. Now is our chance to gather again in person and show our support for affordable housing.

Our local affiliate is doing some amazing things and moving toward completing 70 permanent affordable homes each year. Our speaker at the luncheon will be Jessica Bruder, the author of Nomadland, the book that was the basis for the Academy Award winning film.

No need to register. Just let us know if you can join us, and we'll make sure you're signed up at one of our tables. Further details on the event are in the flyer. And if you can't make the event, but are inspired to contribute to the cause, you can do so at our fundraising page: <https://app.mobilecause.com/vf/btb2022/GaryFallon>.

PARISH LIFE

the care plan

The St. Joseph Pastoral and Mission Council is delighted to share a new initiative with the parish: The Care Plan. This plan, aligned with the parish's mission to be "Ignited by the Eucharist to Love and Serve," gives a pastoral roadmap for the Council to engage meaningfully with the priorities of the people of St. Joe's. Especially in this time of emerging from a pandemic, welcoming parishioners from St. Pat's, and looking forward to a new Pastor, the Care Plan allows the Council to stay focused and active this summer and beyond.

While this isn't a long-term strategic plan (although the School is working on a campus-wide Strat Plan), the Care Plan focuses on effective engagement with Commissions, Ministries, and Parishioners. The Plan doesn't replace or supercede anything that's currently happening at St. Joe's - it's simply a way for the Council to help support the already-ongoing works of the parish.

The plan is divided into six initiatives:

Light on the Hill - Outreach and Community, Especially Social Justice

Comeback - Ideas for Engagement Post-Pandemic

Leadership Support - How Do We Welcome St. Pat's Parishioners and Help Make Fr. Chris Cartwright's Transition Smooth

Commissions - How Does the Council Work Most Effectively with Commissions?

Jesuit Connections - Strengthening Connections with the 14 Puget Sound Jesuit Works

Internal Council Work - Reviewing and Revising Council Work Protocols

initiatives

How can you get you get involved? It's YOUR Council, after all. Is there something that interests you? Have ideas? Get in touch! It's easy. You can contact the Council by emailing pmc@stjosephparish.org or simply talk to us! Council members are available after every Mass during the second weekend of each month. (You can identify them by the silver badges or find a complete list on our website.)

+April 30 – May 1, 2022

To the Parishioners of
St. Joseph Parish, Seattle

Dear Friends,

I am happy today to greet all of you at St. Joseph Parish in the name of the Risen Lord Jesus!

This weekend I am announcing pastoral changes at parishes across the archdiocese that will be effective July 1. I am mindful of the news of your own upcoming transition later this summer and want to reiterate that, after consultation with Jesuits West and the Priest Personnel Board, I have appointed Father Chris Cartwright, S.J., as your new Pastor, effective August 1.

Father Chris is a wonderful priest who will serve you and your parish with good faith and dedication. Be assured that he will receive all the support and assistance from the Archdiocese necessary to ensure quality pastoral care for your parish community as your day-to-day pastoral leader. At the same time, I want to personally thank Deacon Steve Wodzanowski for his wonderful service and leadership. Although faced with many challenges, I know he has enjoyed this assignment largely because of you wonderful parishioners. I ask you to keep him in your prayers as he also prepares for this transition while remaining your deacon.

I do not have to tell you that times of transition are challenging. However, if embraced in an open and positive way, this can be a time of blessing for the entire parish. I am confident that will be the case as you welcome Father Chris Cartwright, S.J., to your parish.

With prayerful best wishes, I remain,

In The Heart of Christ,

Most Rev. Paul D. Etienne, DD, STL

Becoming Anti-Racist

May 2022: Race as a Social Construct

Scripture: 1 John 2:9 Whoever says, "I am in the light", while hating a brother or sister, is still in the darkness.

"Another thing we must do is to get rid of the notion once and for all that there are superior and inferior races. Now we know that this view still lags around in spite of the fact that many great anthropologists, Margaret Mead and Ruth Benedict and Melville Herskovits have pointed out and made it clear through scientific evidence that there are no superior races and there are no inferior races. There may be intellectually superior individuals within all races. In spite of all this evidence, however, the view still gets around somehow that there are superior and inferior races. The whole concept of white supremacy rests on this fallacy."- from Martin Luther King Jr.'s Commencement Address at Lincoln University June 6, 1961

History: "The concept of race is a relatively recent development. Only in the past few centuries, owing largely to European imperialism, have the world's people been classified along racial lines. Here, in America, the idea of race emerged as a means of reconciling chattel slavery-as well as the extermination of American Indians-with the ideas of freedom preached by whites in the new colonies."
- from The New Jim Crow by Michelle Alexander, 2012

Michelle Alexander

"Racism has run like poison through the blood of American society since Europeans first landed on these shores. And, since that beginning, America and Americans have invested much in denying it. America's and Americans' denial of their blatant racism and the attending atrocities committed throughout the nation's history has become pathological. Such denial has allowed this illness to fester for almost 400 years. It is what keeps this country sick with this issue of race. At the root of this sickness is the unchallenged belief that there are physical differences between people that account for the intellectual attributes and abilities of those people. Since before Aristotle's time, people have been using the idea of racial difference to justify the subjugation and enslavement of those different and less powerful than themselves. Race has no scientific merit outside of sociological classifications. There are no significant genetic variations within the human species to justify the division of races". - from Post Traumatic Slave Syndrome by Dr. Joy Degruy, 2017

"Many of us have been taught to believe that there are distinct biological differences between races. This biology accounts for visual differences such as skin color, hair texture, and eye shape, and traits that we believe we see such as sexuality, athleticism, or mathematical ability. The idea of race as a biological construct makes it easy to believe that many of the divisions we see in society are natural. But race, like gender, IS socially constructed.

The differences we see are superficial and emerged as adaptations to geography. Under the skin, there is no true biological race. The external characteristics that we use to define race are unreliable indicators of genetic variations between any two people.

Whiteness rests upon a foundational premise: the definition of whites as the norm or standard for human, and people of color as a deviation from that norm. Whiteness is not acknowledged by white people, and the white reference point is assumed to be universal and is imposed on everyone. People of color, including W.E.B. Du Bois and James Baldwin, have been writing about whiteness for decades, if not centuries. These writers urged white people to turn their attention onto themselves to explore what it means to be white in a society that is so divided by race. For example, in 1946, a French reporter asked expatriate writer Richard Wright his thoughts on the 'Negro problem' in the United States. Wright replied, 'There isn't any Negro problem, there is only a white problem.'" - from White Fragility by Robin DiAngelo, 2018

Reflection/Prayer:

Holy One, You call us beloved. We belong to you. You created us in your image; through your very breath you formed us.

Through your Son Jesus, our Teacher, You taught us to call one another beloved, because in belonging to you, we belong to each other.

You told us to see your image in the faces of the forgotten and the oppressed.

Through you we became one family; through your Spirit, we breathe the same breath.

Free us from that which keeps us from perfect love of our neighbors, because loving our neighbors is the same as loving you. Help us to recognize your image in the faces of others. We unite our commitments with those working for racial justice across the country, that we may work together to participate with you in building your Kingdom here on earth.

Strengthen all of us, that through the power of your Spirit, we might have the courage to love you, others, and ourselves, with all of our hearts, minds, and strength. Amen.

Annual Catholic Appeal

We are called by our baptism to be missionary disciples. Archbishop Etienne affirmed this message in his recent Annual Appeal letter when he wrote “the mission of the Church is not merely something we have. It is who we are. This mission was shared with us at baptism.”

Your gift to the Annual Appeal supports the mission to help others encounter Jesus. From hospital and prison ministries to Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) camps and young adult programs, your gift to the Annual Appeal allows us to do together what one parish can’t do alone. Together, WE CAN be Christ to Others!

Gifts can be made by mail, at Mass, online at www.archseattle.org/GiveACA, or with the QR code.
