Meet the Homilist: Kathy Collins

Kathy has been in love with Ignatian Spirituality since her days as a campus minister at Seattle U. She has found God in all things in her life - in work with students, in international service with Maryknoll in Bolivia, in her personal grief, in working with God's beloved at St. Francis House, and delighting in her five grandchildren.

She has been a Spiritual Director for 20 years and is a director in the Spiritual Exercises in Everyday Life (SEEL) in Seattle. She is currently the Interim Executive Director at the Ignatian Spirituality Center (ISC).

About ISC:

Since 1994, the Ignatian Spirituality Center has been serving the spiritual needs of the people of Western Washington. The ISC nurtures compassion, healing and justice by engaging spiritual seekers in deepening their connection to God, self and others.

The ISC brings together lay people, vowed religious, and Jesuits trained in Ignatian and other spiritualities to provide programs designed to deepen spiritual growth. They collaborate with Jesuit ministries to provide spiritual direction, programs, retreats, and resources that assist persons of all faiths to serve Christ's mission of compassion, healing, and justice.

First Reading

Deuteronomy 30:16-20

If you obey the commandments of the LORD, your God, which I am giving you today, loving the LORD, your God, and walking in his ways, and keeping his commandments, statutes and ordinances, you will live and grow numerous, and the LORD, your God, will bless you in the land you are entering to possess. If, however, your heart turns away and you do not obey, but are led astray and bow down to other gods and serve them, I tell you today that you will certainly perish; you will not have a long life on the land which you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. I call heaven and earth today to witness against you: I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse. Choose life, then, that you and your descendants may live, by loving the LORD, your God, obeying his voice, and holding fast to him. For that will mean life for you, a long life for you to live on the land which the LORD swore to your ancestors, to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give to them.

Psalm

Psalm 138

Guimont

Blessed indeed is the man who follows not the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the path with sinners, nor abides in the company of scorners, but whose delight is the law of the LORD, and who ponders his law day and night. Ref.

He is like a tree that is planted beside the flowing waters, that yields its fruit in due season, and whose leaves shall never fade; and all that he does shall prosper. Ref.

Not so are the wicked, not so! For they, like winnowed chaff, shall be driven away by the wind; for the LORD knows the way of the just, but the way of the wicked will perish. Ref.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1

So whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God. Avoid giving offense, whether to Jews or Greeks or the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in every way, not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, that they may be saved.

Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

Gospel Acclamation

O'Carroll/Walker

"May God grant us an interior knowledge of our Lord, who became human for me, that we may love him more intensely and follow him more closely"

Gospel

Luke 9:18-25

Once when Jesus was praying in solitude, and the disciples were with him, he asked them, "Who do the crowds say that I am?" They said in reply, "John the Baptist; others, Elijah; still others, 'One of the ancient prophets has arisen.'" Then he said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter said in reply, "The Messiah of God." He rebuked them and directed them not to tell this to anyone.

He said, "The Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised."

Then he said to all, "If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it. What profit is there for one to gain the whole world yet lose or forfeit himself?

Homily

Kathy Collins, Director, Ignatian Spirituality Center

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became human.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

St. Patrick Parish to Merge with St. Joseph

As many of you already knew, our neighbors at St. Patrick Parish have been preparing for their parish to be closed due to parish restructuring decisions made by the Archdiocese. After months of discussions and discernment, a plurality of St. Patrick's parishioners communicated to the Archdiocese that they would prefer to merge with St. Joseph. On July 8th, the Archbishop issued an official decree stating that St. Pat's will be merged into St. Joe's on September 1st, 2022. You can read a letter from Archbishop Etienne in this week's bulletin, and you can see the decree, as well as many more details, on our website: www.stjosephparish.org/merger

Most importantly, we are eager to welcome the people of St. Pat's into our community. Throughout this process, we have been in constant communication with clergy and lay leadership at St. Patrick's, and have plans in place to integrate former St. Pat's parishioners into the Pastoral and Mission Council, as well as other commissions and committees. We are also preparing accommodations to allow the deaf/deaf-blind community, which has been such an integral part of St. Patrick's, to feel at home in their new parish.

We look forward to experiencing the gifts of the St. Patrick Parish community in a merger guided by love and inclusion.

Upcoming Welcoming Events:

August 21 – Picnic to welcome Fr. Chris, new staff, and St. Pat's parishioners at St. Joe's at 1:00 PM.

September 3-4 – St. Patrick's parishioners will be welcomed at every Mass at St. Joe's, with a special focus at Sunday's 9:30am Mass, which will be ASL interpreted.

Marriage Enrichment Summer Social

Saturday, August 13th, 6pm – 8:30pm - At the Home/Yard of Mike and Cathy Slater: 1134 22nd Ave E.
Bring a favorite bottle of wine or beverage of choice and appetizer/snack to share

Last year we held our first summer social as part of our Marriage Enrichment Ministry with a Wine-Tasting Event at the home of Mary and Bob Sepulveda. This year, two relatively new parishioners, Mike and Cathy Slater, have offered their beautiful home and yard three blocks from the church with plenty of parking!

Mike has a wonderful wine cellar and will be giving tours and offer a brief wine-tasting presentation. If you have ideas on how to enhance this event, email Deacon Steve (steve@stjosephparish.org) or Mike at slater.mikesr@gmail.com

We thought it would be fun if everyone brought a favorite wine and came prepared to share details on the wine: cost, where to buy it, why they enjoy it so much, where it's made, what kind of grapes, famous people who drink it!

RSVP to steve@stjosephparish.org

CATHOLICS ENGAGING IN IMMIGRANT JUSTICE

Saturday, August 27

9 am - 4 pm at Seattle University
Student Center, Le Roux Room
Register by August 22 at seattleu.edu/ICTC

The recent synodal process has encouraged Catholics to engage in a Culture of Encounter, which entails deep listening. With an open heart, this deep listening allows us to receive the hopes and aspirations, pains and struggles, of our brothers and sisters seeking justice. In response, we commit to accompany these communities and invite you to join us for a day of camaraderie, listening, learning, and action in our struggle for justice for immigrants.

We'll have opportunities to hear from immigrant communities, get updates on current immigration issues, and celebrate our diverse traditions. Specific workshops will address mental health, advocacy, legal issues, and refugee sponsorship. Lunch, refreshments and parking are provided at this free event. Registration is required. CONFIRMATION

Middle School Confirmation Registration is Open!

Are you a parent of a student receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation? Now is the best time to check it out. Students who are 13 years old or in 7th grade by the start of Confirmation preparation classes begin on Sunday, October 9th are welcome to sign up.

Class is for students only--we will have other gatherings with parents and sponsors at a different time--and runs 12:15pm - 1:30 pm in the Mother Teresa Room in the Parish Center. All materials will be provided, as well snacks and refreshments each week. Please note that preparation classes will no longer be offered through St. Joseph School and will only be offered through the parish.

There is still time (and room) to sign up: <https://www.stjosephparish.org/3090/lets-get-started.html>

Once logged in, you will find Middle School Confirmation under "CFF"

If you have questions, please contact Samantha syanity@stjosephparish.org

We need your help with Confirmation!

We're looking for a solid team of volunteers who are interested in committing time and energy to create a wonderful confirmation experience that is fun, engaging, inclusive, and safe to fully prepare all middle schoolers looking to be fully received into the Church this year.

Volunteers will be asked to present at 12 preparation classes, helping to plan and put on a retreat and service project, the Confirmation rehearsal, and Mass.

If you're interested in being part of our catechetical team, please reach out to our Campus Minister, Samantha, syanity@stjosephparish.org, or call (206) 965-1652.

Facing Homelessness needs you!

Facing Homelessness relies on donations from St. Joe's to stock the Window of Kindness, their direct outreach ministry to houseless neighbors. This summer, though, donations have dropped off - let's fix this!

If you haven't donated to Facing Homelessness before, it's easy and rewarding! You can find a full list of supplies on their website, but they really need sandwiches, to-go snacks, and water to help fill in the gaps this summer.

There are lots of ways to help! You can sign up to have a meal delivered through meal train, drop off sandwiches and other items at the church (scan the QR code or click here to sign up) or buy directly from their Amazon Wish List!
