Welcome St. Pat's Parishioners!

This weekend, we officially welcome parishioners who've chosen to attend St. Joe's as we complete the merger of St. Patrick Parish into St. Joseph Parish. We hope you feel welcome here, and we look forward to incorporating your gifts and the wonderful spirit of St. Pat's into this new home.

As part of the transition, St. Pat's has brought their St. Patrick statue, chrism oils, and processional cross. A brief history of the cross:

St. Patrick's Processional Cross was designed and crafted by Sister Paula Turnball SNJM. As a professional sculptor, Sister Paula spent her lifetime expressing her faith through stone, brick, wood, and metal. Her works grace many churches, public spaces, and private collections throughout the United States. She designed St. Patrick's Processional Cross using the structure of a Celtic Cross. The image of the Resurrected Body of Christ is hand carved in oak and framed in Italian glass. Each piece of the tile work is unique using multi colors of blues and greens. Sister Paula made this Processional Cross as a companion piece to her large Celtic Cross that resides in St. Patrick's sanctuary. The larger cross is such that visually the Processional Cross would insert its design into the center of the larger cross. They are both original works of art and one-of-a-kind. For over 30 years, these two beloved pieces have been cherished by the community of St. Pats.

Gloria

Lynch

1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;

- you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading

Wisdom 9:13-18b

Who can know God's counsel, or who can conceive what the LORD intends?
For the deliberations of mortals are timid,
and unsure are our plans.
For the corruptible body burdens the soul and the earthen shelter weighs down the mind that has many concerns.
And scarce do we guess the things on earth,
and what is within our grasp we find with difficulty;
but when things are in heaven, who can search them out?
Or who ever knew your counsel, except you had given wisdom and sent your holy spirit from on high?
And thus were the paths of those on earth made straight.

Psalms

Psalms 90

Guimont

You turn man back to dust, and say, "Return, O children of men."
To your eyes a thousand years are like yesterday, come and gone, or like a watch in the night. Ref.

You sweep them away like a dream, like grass which is fresh in the morning.
In the morning it sprouts and is fresh; by evening it withers and fades. Ref.

Then teach us to number our days, that we may gain wisdom of heart.
Turn back, O LORD! How long? Show pity to your servants. Ref.

At dawn, fill us with your merciful love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days.
Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us; give success to the work of our hands.
O give success to the work of our hands. Ref.

Second Reading

Philemon 9-10, 12-17

I, Paul, an old man, and now also a prisoner for Christ Jesus, urge you on behalf of my child Onesimus, whose father I have become in my imprisonment; I am sending him, that is, my own heart, back to you. I should have liked to retain him for myself, so that he might serve me on your behalf in my imprisonment for the gospel, but I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that the good you do might not be forced but voluntary. Perhaps this is why he was away from you for a while, that you might have him back forever, no longer as a slave but more than a slave, a brother, beloved especially to me, but even more so to you, as a man and in the Lord. So if you regard me as a partner, welcome him as you would me.

Gospel Acclamation

O'Carroll/Walker

Gospel

Luke 14:25-33

Great crowds were traveling with Jesus, and he turned and addressed them, "If anyone comes to me without hating his father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters, and even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. Whoever does not carry his own cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if there is enough for its completion? Otherwise, after laying the foundation and finding himself unable to finish the work the onlookers should laugh at him and say, 'This one began to build but did not have the resources to finish.' Or what king marching into battle would not first sit down and decide whether with ten thousand troops he can successfully oppose another king advancing upon him with twenty thousand troops? But if not, while he is still far away, he will send a delegation to ask for peace terms. In the same way, anyone of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple."

Homily

Chris Cartwright, S.J.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true
God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

All bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became human.

All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Choral: Awake My Heart

Lowenberg

Wake, my heart, sing, my voice.

Awake my heart, arise my tongue, prepare a tuneful voice;
in God, the life of all my joys, aloud will I rejoice.

Let us raise voices high, come let us raise our voices high and form a sacred song to God who rules the earth and sky, and does our days prolong.

Awake my soft and tuneful harp, awake each charming string.
Before the dawn of day, to you, my God, I'll sing.

Then let us in God's name sing on and hasten that great day when our Redeemer shall come down, and shadows pass away.

In This Place

Thomson

We are all hungry people, we need shelter and strength.

We are one in our hurting, we are one in our pain. In our suffering and sadness, we are saved by the grace of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place.

Ref.

All our lives are a Myst'ry; we see not where they lead. We are asked now to trust you and we know we must believe.

As our feet become Christ's feet, we go forth with the grace of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place.

Ref.

Though the world may tell us to look at ourselves, we reach out to another where suffering dwells.

As our hands become Christ's hands, we are healed by the grace of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place. Ref.

In the bread that is broken is the Christ that restores. As we take, now receive him, we find love evermore.

As the bread becomes Body, we are filled with the grace of the power and the Spirit that is here in this place. Ref.
