The Season of Creation

Sign a Letter to the Archdiocese Asking for Divestment from Fossil Fuels

During the Season of Creation, we join our sisters and brothers of the ecumenical family in prayer and action for our common home. As part of our focus on fossil fuel divestment education and advocacy this year, the Creation Care Network invites you to sign an open letter to the Archdiocese of Seattle to consider divesting from fossil fuels. CCN member institutions will sign, but we are encouraging individuals to sign, as well!

TWENTY FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Presiding Procession

Chris Cartwright, S.J.
Christ Be Our Light

Farrell

1. Long-ing for light, we wait in dark-ness.
2. Long-ing for peace, our world is trou-bled.
3. Man-y the gifts, man-y the peo-ple,

Long-ing for truth, we turn to you.
Long-ing for hope, man-y de-spair.
Man-y the hearts that yearn to be-long.

Make us your own, your ho-ly peo-ple,
Your word a-lone has pow'r to save us.
Let us be ser-vants to one an-oth-er,

Light for the world to see.
Make us your liv-ing voice.
Mak-ing your king-dom come.

Refrain

Christ, be our light! Shine in our hearts. Shine through the dark-ness.

Christ, be our light! Shine in your Church gath-ered to-day.

Gloria

Lynch

Glo-ry to God, Glo-ry to God, Glo-ry to God in the high-est,

And on the earth peace to all. Peace to all the peo-ple of good-will.

1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading

Amos 8:4-7

Hear this, you who trample upon the needy and destroy the poor of the land!
“When will the new moon be over,” you ask,
“that we may sell our grain,
and the sabbath, that we may display the wheat?
We will diminish the ephah,
add to the shekel,
and fix our scales for cheating!
We will buy the lowly for silver,
and the poor for a pair of sandals;
even the refuse of the wheat we will sell!
The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob:
Never will I forget a thing they have done!

Psalm

Psalm 113

Ash

All of us, your servants, praise you O Lord! We will praise your holy name!
Blessed be your name forever more; from dawn until the setting sun! Ref.

High above the nations you are enthroned. Who is like the Lord, our God?
Looking down upon the heavens and earth, your glory is above the heavens. Ref.

Raising up the lowly from the dust, and the needy from their need, seating them with all the rulers of earth, you shelter them and bring them joy! Ref.

Second Reading

1 Timothy 2:1-8

Beloved: First of all, I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and for all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity. This is good and pleasing to God our savior, who wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth.

For there is one God.

There is also one mediator between God and men,
the man Christ Jesus,
who gave himself as ransom for all.

This was the testimony at the proper time. For this I was appointed preacher and apostle—I am speaking the truth, I am not lying—, teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

It is my wish, then, that in every place the men should pray, lifting up holy hands, without anger or argument.

Gospel Acclamation

O'Carroll/Walker

Though our Lord Jesus Christ was rich, he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich.

Gospel

Luke 16:10-13

Jesus said to his disciples: "The person who is trustworthy in very small matters is also trustworthy in great ones; and the person who is dishonest in very small matters is also dishonest in great ones. If, therefore, you are not trustworthy with dishonest wealth, who will trust you with true wealth? If you are not trustworthy with what belongs to another, who will give you what is yours? No servant can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and mammon."

Profession of Faith

Online Giving

Scan this QR code to make a one-time gift to St. Joe's

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

All bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became human.

All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Song

Act Justly

Farrell

How shall we come before you? With what gifts to adore you?
Will our sacrifices please you? What should we bring today? Ref.

This is what the Lord asks you: only this will remain true, what is good has been explained to you: Listen again today. Ref.

People, lift up your voices; by your actions make choices.
In this time, the only time we have, show us the way to live. Ref.

On this planet of plenty, lives and futures lie empty.
In this world, the only world we have, show us the way to live. Ref.

Gather, sisters and brothers; gather, fathers and mothers.
In this place, the only place we grow, show us the way to live. Ref.

Bread of life will be broken; word of hope will be spoken.
In this sacrament of endless care show us the way to live. Ref.

MINISTRY OF THE WEEK

This weekend, we're beginning a new feature highlighting the many ministries at St. Joseph. Check this column each week for information about what's happening and how you can get involved!

Catechetical Weekend

This weekend, we're spotlighting to Faith Formation team at St. Joe's, and invite you to join us in our work of helping children, youth, and adults grow closer to God.

Faith Formation Team

Theresa Shepherd-Lukasik, Director of Faith Formation

Theresa Shepherd-Lukasik is the Director of Faith Formation at St. Joe's, overseeing children's and youth faith formation, while directly working with adult faith formation programs. Born in Chicago, the youngest of seven children, Theresa played sports and enjoyed gardening during her early years. She attended Loyola University in Chicago thinking she'd eventually teach history, but instead was drawn toward studies in theology. She continued at Loyola, where she earned a Masters in Ignatian Spirituality and Spiritual Direction.

Theresa recalls attending St. Joseph for the first time in 2012. "I cried, because I knew I was at home," she said. At the time Theresa was involved in various ministries, including spiritual care at Harborview Hospital. She later became involved with RCIA and faith formation. Her previous job prior to Faith Formation at St. Joseph was with Maryknoll and the Ignatian Spirituality Center.

Theresa loves her job because it is a place where she can learn, study, grow and pray. "I want to let others know they are loved unconditionally." theresal@stjosephparish.org (206) 965-1651

Samantha Yanity, Campus Minister

Samantha Yanity, the new Pastoral Assistant for Campus Ministry, will be facilitating the sacramental preparation and faith formation for Middle School Confirmation, as well as providing faith formation and ministerial programming (social, service, spiritual) for high school youth and young adults (20s and 30s) grounded in Ignatian spirituality. Additionally, she will be organizing social outreach partnerships between St. Joseph School, the parish, and the community to continue our service-based mission.

Samantha holds an MDiv and an MA in social justice from Loyola University Chicago. She has worked with youth and young adults most of career at nonprofits that primarily serve marginalized communities, either through direct service or advocacy. Prior to taking on this role at St. Joseph, she was active in the St. Joe's anti-racism committee, racial justice book club, young adult ministry, and on occasion, women's ministry.

She has also been actively engaged in our local Seattle Jesuit works too and enjoys finding way to connect with these partners through our mutual Ignatian heritage. Samantha is very passionate putting faith into action through social justice and is excited to serve the community of St. Joe's in a new way using her passions and gifts. She looks forward to getting to know each of you better and collaborating with you and your families. syanity@stjosephparish.org (206) 965-1652

Elisa Cooper, Pastoral Assistant for Children's Faith Formation

Elisa Cooper is honored and excited to serve the St. Joseph families in her new ministry role as Pastoral Assistant for Children's Faith Formation (CFF). She'll be working two days per week, bringing faith to life for St. Joseph's youngest parishioners and their families, with a focus on strengthening our community, formed in faith, through our and Sacramental Prep and formation programs from ages 3 to 13. Elisa is especially grateful for those parishioners and catechists who kept Children's Faith Formation alive over Zoom and through the Magis newsletter in recent years.

Elisa has been a proud St. George K-8 learning specialist (Beacon Hill, Seattle) for the better part of a decade and completed the PACE Master of Arts in Teaching through University of Portland in 2012. She has taught ESL and the Bible, and served as a missionary in Chile, along with all subjects, including Spanish and Religion in the U.S.A. Her specialized training and service as a teacher-leader on the Diversified Learning Committee and with Loyola University - Chicago were the foundation of her work building inclusive learning support programs at St. George Parish School, the Rainbow Summer School, and diverse sister schools throughout the Archdiocese. Volunteer for Children's Faith Formation

In order to be able to offer Faith Formation classes to children beyond 4th grade and below 1st grade, we need a strong team of teachers! The curriculum and students are ready, and no prior teaching experience is needed.

The more volunteers we can count on, the stronger our programs serving the children and families of our parish. Contact Elisa Cooper (elisac@stjosephparish.org) or Theresa Shepherd Lukasik (theresal@stjosephparish.org) today to find out how you can put your Catholic faith, knowledge of Scripture, passion for Christ, and practical skills to use in Children's ministry.

FAITH FORMATION

Middle School Confirmation Registration is Open!

Are you a parent of a student receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation? Now is the best time to check it out. Students who are 13 years old or in 7th grade by the start of Confirmation preparation classes begin on Sunday, October 9th are welcome to sign up.

Class is for students only and runs 12:15pm - 1:30 pm in the Mother Teresa Room in the Parish Center. All materials will be provided, as well snacks and refreshments each week. Please note that preparation classes will no longer be offered through St. Joseph School and will only be offered through the parish.

There is still time (and room) to sign up: <https://www.stjosephparish.org/3090/lets-get-started.html> Once logged in, you will find Middle School Confirmation under "CFF" If you have questions, please contact Samantha syanity@stjosephparish.org

Youth Group Kick-Off: September 18th after the 5:30pm Mass

Attention all high schoolers! We will be launching a brand-new high school group after the 5:30pm mass on Sunday, September 18th at the Parish Center. (There will be pizza!)

This will be a time to make new friends and see old ones, and later in the evening, you'll have a chance to tell us what events you would like to see done at the parish by helping us plan future events. At future youth group Masses, you'll also get a chance to lead as lectors, help with music, usher, etc. If you would like to find out how to get involved, contact Samantha at syanity@stjosephparish.org

Walk-A-Long with Nueva Trinidad October 2 - leaving St. Joe's at 12:30pm

As has St. Joe's with Arcatao, St. Pat's has had a sister parish relationship with the community of Nueva Trinidad for 30 years. Nueva Trinidad is right next door to Arcatao and both communities are part of San Bartolome parish. St. Pat's has a more than 20-year tradition of an annual walk-a-long in the fall. We walk to remind ourselves of the walk the people made from refugee camps in Honduras to repopulate and rebuild Nueva Trinidad.

This year as we begin to bring our two communities and relationships with El Salvador together, we will walk from St. Joe's to St. Pat's – gathering there for updates, food, and time together. Questions: Betty Lucas at betty.lucas@gmail.com or Kate Speltz at katespeltz@yahoo.com. EVERYONE is welcome to join us!
