THE IGNATIAN SPIRITUALITY CENTER INVITES YOU TO

IGNATIAN DISCERNMENT: AN UNFOLDING STORY A SIX-SESSION DISCERNMENT PRACTICE SERIES

In this experiential discernment series, we will explore various ways to listen to the Spirit's movement in our lives, choices, and communities. Through prayer, reimagined presentations, meaningful, creative reflection, and conversation in community, we will consider Ignatian discernment and discuss how it applies in the midst of our current cultural, social, racial and personal contexts. Together, we will learn to cultivate and embody these principles in our everyday lives.

This program is for anyone interested in learning about and integrating Ignatian Discernment as a spiritual practice - newcomers, as well as those seeking to deepen their understanding, are encouraged to participate. All are welcome!

3. For the joy of ear and eye, for the heart and mind's de - light,
4. For the joy of hu - man love, bro - ther, sis - ter, par - ent, child.

for the love which from our birth ov - er and a - round us lies.
Hill and vale and tree and flow'r, sun and moon and stars of night.
for the my - stic har - mo - ny link - ing sense and sound to sight.
friends on earth and friends a - bove; for all gen - tle thoughts and mild.

Lord of all to you we raise this our hymn of grate - ful praise.

Gloria

Lynch

Glo - ry to God, Glo - ry to God, Glo - ry to God in the high - est,
And on the earth peace to all. Peace to all the peo - ple of good-will.

1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading

Amos 6:1a, 4-7

Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts:
Woe to the complacent in Zion!
Lying upon beds of ivory,
stretched comfortably on their couches,
they eat lambs taken from the flock,
and calves from the stall!

Improvising to the music of the harp,
like David, they devise their own accompaniment.
They drink wine from bowls and anoint themselves with the best oils;
yet they are not made ill by the collapse of Joseph!
Therefore, now they shall be the first to go into exile,
and their wanton revelry shall be done away with.

Psalm

Psalm 146

Haugen

Happy those who keep faith with you, securing justice for the oppressed, who give your food to each hungry heart, your freedom to each captive. Ref.

You give your sight to all the blind, you raise up those bent low.
Your heart is near to the broken ones, you welcome in the stranger. Ref.

The weak and poor you sustain in love, the wicked ones you bring to destruction; for ever more shall your reign endure, to every generation. Ref.

Second Reading

1 Timothy 6:11-16

But you, man of God, pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Compete well for the faith. Lay hold of eternal life, to which you were called when you made the noble confession in the presence of many witnesses. I charge you before God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who gave testimony under Pontius Pilate for the noble confession, to keep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ that the blessed and only ruler will make manifest at the proper time, the King of kings and Lord of lords, who alone has immortality, who dwells in unapproachable light, and whom no human being has seen or can see. To him be honor and eternal power. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

O'Carroll/Walker

Though our Lord was rich, he became poor, so that by your poverty you may become rich.

Gospel

Luke 16:19-31

Jesus said to the Pharisees: "There was a rich man who dressed in purple garments and fine linen and dined sumptuously each day. And lying at his door was a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who would gladly have eaten his fill of the scraps that fell from the rich man's table. Dogs even used to come and lick his sores. When the poor man died, he was carried away by angels to the bosom of Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried, and from the netherworld, where he was in torment, he raised his eyes and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus at his side. And he cried out, 'Father Abraham, have pity on me. Send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am suffering torment in these flames.' Abraham replied, 'My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established to prevent anyone from crossing who might wish to go from our side to yours or from your side to ours.' He said, 'Then I beg you, father, send him to my father's house, for I have five brothers, so that he may warn them, lest they too come to this place of torment.' But Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.' He said, 'Oh no, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.' Then Abraham said, 'If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.'"

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became human.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

MINISTRY OF THE WEEK

This weekend, we're beginning a new feature highlighting the many ministries at St. Joseph. Check this column each week for information about what's happening and how you can get involved!

Sunday Hospitality (Coffee & Donuts!)

This weekend, we're spotlighting Sunday Hospitality at St. Joe's, and invite you to join us in our work of connecting our community in a fun, informal environment.

If you're looking for a ministry that can fit with your busy schedule, this may be the one for you! If you enjoy sharing coffee and donuts with friends old and new after the 9am Sunday Mass, we encourage you to help keep the program alive by volunteering some of your own time. The stronger our volunteer force is, the longer we can offer this parishioner favorite! This ministry comes with a light commitment to help prepare and serve coffee and donuts on a Sunday morning.

Can I Attend Mass the Day I Volunteer?

Yes! Usually, teams come with the donuts by 8:15am, set up, then attend Mass and leave after communion to finish getting ready.

How Do I Volunteer?

Contact Mary Wiseman at maryw@stjosephparish.org

How Much Time Is Involved If I Volunteer?

Prep starts at about 8:30am with 15-30 minutes of cleanup afterwards. Just want to pick up donuts from Safeway and drop off by 8:15am? We welcome you to volunteer for that job, too! Volunteers do not need to commit to every single Sunday. Given the number of members available, you may be asked to serve only once a month or less. Select the days that work best for you!

Can the Whole Family Volunteer? How About Our Ministry Group?

Yes, we encourage families to host together, and high school students can earn service hours for volunteering. Ministry groups are encouraged to bring awareness to their ministry by hosting. The School's Parent Board hosts the 1st weekend of every month.

FAITH FORMATION

Primary School Faith Formation Classes

Sunday School CFF classes for grades 1-6 have open registration now through late September! Sign up here: <https://www.stjosephparish.org/79/youth-faith-formation-register-here.html> Classes begin mid-October and run through May, for three Sundays each month. Sign up today!

Scan for Children's Faith Formation Information

Volunteer for Children's Faith Formation

In order to be able to offer Faith Formation classes to children beyond 4th grade and below 1st grade, we need a strong team of teachers! The curriculum and students are ready, and no prior teaching experience is needed.

The more volunteers we can count on, the stronger our programs serving the children and families of our parish. Contact Elisa Cooper (elisac@stjosephparish.org) or Theresa Shepherd Lukasik (theresal@stjosephparish.org) today to find out how you can put your Catholic faith, knowledge of Scripture, passion for Christ, and practical skills to use in Children's ministry.

Middle School Confirmation Registration is Open!

Are you a parent of a student receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation? Now is the best time to check it out. Students who are 13 years old or in 7th grade by the start of Confirmation preparation classes begin on Sunday, October 9th are welcome to sign up.

Class is for students only and runs 12:15pm - 1:30 pm in the Mother Teresa Room in the Parish Center. All materials will be provided, as well snacks and refreshments each week. Please note that preparation classes will no longer be offered through St. Joseph School and will only be offered through the parish.

There is still time (and room) to sign up: <https://www.stjosephparish.org/3090/lets-get-started.html> Once logged in, you will find Middle School Confirmation under "CFF." If you have questions, please contact Samantha syanity@stjosephparish.org.

PARISH LIFE

Walk-A-Long with Nueva Trinidad

October 2 - leaving St. Joe's at 12:30pm

As has St. Joe's with Arcatao, St. Pat's has had a sister parish relationship with the community of Nueva Trinidad for 30 years. Nueva Trinidad is right next door to Arcatao and both communities are part of San Bartolome parish. St. Pat's has a more than 20-year tradition of an annual walk-a-long in the fall. We walk to remind ourselves of the walk the people made from refugee camps in Honduras to repopulate and rebuild Nueva Trinidad.

This year as we begin to bring our two communities and relationships with El Salvador together, we will walk from St. Joe's to St. Pat's – gathering there for updates, food, and time together. Questions: Betty Lucas at betty.lucas@gmail.com or Kate Speltz at katespeltz@yahoo.com. EVERYONE is welcome to join us!

RACIAL JUSTICE

Please join us on Zoom for The Doctrine of Discovery, the Catholic Church and Native Americans: Exploring a Path Toward Truth & Healing

With Christin Tomy, OP

Dominican Sister of Sinsinawa

Presented by Christin Tomy, OP. Christin is a Dominican Sister of Sinsinawa. For several years, her work and interests have focused on the intersections between land, food, faith, and justice. She lived and worked at the Racine Dominican Eco-Justice Center in 2015-2016, which was excellent preparation for her subsequent role as Care for Creation Coordinator and Farm Manager at Sinsinawa Mound. Christin is currently working toward a Master of Divinity / MA in Systematic Theology at Catholic Theological Union. She professed perpetual vows in May of 2022.

Saturday, October 15, 2022
9:00 – 11:30 a.m. CDT

In recent years you may have heard about the Doctrine of Discovery, a series of 15th century Papal statements that were used to justify European colonization of the Americas.

- But what is the Doctrine of Discovery and does it really still matter today?
- What was its impact on Native American communities?
- How might we support a path toward truth and healing?

Together we will examine these and similar questions, with the goal of deepening our knowledge and commitment to justice for Native communities. In particular, we'll explore how our Dominican tradition provides both resources and a summons to undertake such a commitment.

Register online by Wednesday, October 12th at www.racinedominicans.org/dcjr/ or call (262) 898-4094. You will receive the Zoom link in your confirmation e-mail. Free will offerings can be made at the time of registration via Pay Pal or send a check to the Racine Dominican Finance Office (Attn. DCJR), 5635 Erie Street, Racine, WI 53402.
