Ministry of the Week: Anti-Racism Committee

Confronting white supremacy and dismantling institutional racism in our Parish and our community

The St. Joseph Parish Anti-Racism Committee is a ministry of the Faith Justice Commission, formed in the summer of 2020. In addition to supporting educational programs like JustFaith groups, Jesus' West CORE and the Racial Justice Book Group, the Committee organizes advocacy and action, like the Say Their Names project and the May 2021 service for Racial Solidarity at St. James Cathedral and May 2022 Vigil for Racial Solidarity at Immaculate Conception Parish, as well as the all-parish and school Equity Workshop with Scott Winn in May, 2022. The Committee is currently working on advocacy initiatives with local Indigenous partners and is in conversations with the Art and Environment Committee to collaborate on more inclusive and racially-accurate visuals in the church and parish communications

Want to join our work? Email Mark mark@stjosephparish.org Co-chairs are Cathy Murray and Mykhanh Pham.

Before Native American Heritage Month in November, everyone is invited to read the St. Joseph Parish Land Acknowledgement (a continuing work-in-progress by the Parish Anti-Racism Committee). A formal statement that recognizes the unique and enduring relationship that exists between Indigenous Peoples and their traditional territories, our Land Acknowledgment is an attempt to recognize that for Indigenous peoples, "land is not a commodity but rather a gift from God and from their ancestors who rest there, a sacred space with which they need to interact if they are to maintain their identity and values" (Pope Francis, Laudato Si', n. 146). Visit our website for resources about what a Land Acknowledgement is, guidelines for how to use it, and context as to why it's important:

First Reading

Exodus 17:8-13

In those days, Amalek came and waged war against Israel. Moses, therefore, said to Joshua, "Pick out certain men, and tomorrow go out and engage Amalek in battle. I will be standing on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand." So Joshua did as Moses told him: he engaged Amalek in battle after Moses had climbed to the top of the hill with Aaron and Hur. As long as Moses kept his hands raised up, Israel had the better of the fight, but when he let his hands rest, Amalek had the better of the fight. Moses' hands, however, grew tired; so they put a rock in place for him to sit on. Meanwhile Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on one side and one on the other, so that his hands remained steady till sunset. And Joshua mowed down Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword.

Psalm

Psalm 121

Psallite

Our help shall come from the Lord, the Lord who made heaven and earth.
I lift up my eyes to the mountains; from where shall come my help?
My help shall come from the Lord who made heaven and earth. Ref.

May God never allow you to stumble! Let your guard not sleep.
Behold, neither sleeping nor slumbering, Israel's guard. Ref.

The Lord is your guard and your shade; and stands at your right.
By day the sun shall not smite you nor the moon in the night. Ref.

The Lord will guard you from evil, and will guard your soul.
The Lord will guard your going and coming both now and forever. Ref.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 3:14-4:2

Beloved: Remain faithful to what you have learned and believed, because you know from whom you learned it, and that from infancy you have known the sacred Scriptures, which are capable of giving you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction, and for training in righteousness, so that one who belongs to God may be competent, equipped for every good work.

I charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and by his appearing and his kingly power: proclaim the word; be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient; convince, reprimand, encourage through all patience and teaching.

Gospel Acclamation

O'Carroll/Walker

The word of God is living and effective, discerning reflections and thoughts of the heart.

Gospel

Luke 18:1-8

Jesus told his disciples a parable about the necessity for them to pray always without becoming weary. He said, "There was a judge in a certain town who neither feared God nor respected any human being. And a widow in that town used to come to him and say, 'Render a just decision for me against my adversary.' For a long time the judge was unwilling, but eventually he thought, 'While it is true that I neither fear God nor respect any human being, because this widow keeps bothering me I shall deliver a just decision for her lest she finally come and strike me.'" The Lord said, "Pay attention to what the dishonest judge says. Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them? I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"

Reflections Marilyn Newton, Kristine Losh, Joe Schumm, and Joshua Lewis

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became human.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Remembering Our Beloved Dead

In the month of November, you are invited to bring photos of your loved ones to help create a shrine or "Saints Corner" to be located on the Mary altar. This will be maintained as a sacred space for contemplation and prayer throughout the month. You can bring your photo to church during open hours and place it on the Mary altar to the left of the main altar or drop it off at the parish center and we place it on the altar for you. Please write contact information on the back of the photo so it can be returned to you after November.

Parish Book of Life This November

This year we will have our traditional Book of Life, containing names of loved ones who have passed away, on display near the altar in November. We invite you to write the names of friends and family who have passed in the Book of Life.

RACIAL JUSTICE

Native Boarding Schools

Learning from History to Promote Healing

Sunday, October 23, 2022 at 2:30pm

Isaac Orr Room, 910 Marion Street or join via Zoom

In this presentation, Father Michael Carson will explore the history of the last 200 years—tracing where the concept of Native boarding schools originated, and how these institutions were rooted in the sin of racism and have left a path of destruction through Native culture and peoples.

St. George Residential School, Tacoma

In the second part of the presentation, Father Carson will take what we have learned from history and develop some working ideas to promote healing and counter the historic trauma of boarding schools. The presentation will focus on the areas that the USCCB is coordinating with the bishops at this time: the work to move beyond apologies to concrete areas of restoration and reconciliation.

Sponsored by the Native American Advisory Circle and Multicultural Ministries of the Archdiocese of Seattle

FATHER MICHAEL CARSON is a priest of the Diocese of San Jose, California. He currently serves as Assistant Director for Native American Affairs with the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. He has extensive experience with Native American culture, social justice and education. Father Carson's interest in Native American beliefs, values and culture comes from his grandfather. From his earliest days he received his spiritual and cultural grounding from his grandfather who was a full blooded member of the Louisiana Choctaw tribe. In Father Carson's current work with the USCCB, he coordinates ministry among the Native Americans throughout the country and serves as a liaison with the Bishop's Subcommittee on Native American Affairs, part of the USCCB Secretariat for Cultural Diversity.

FAITH JUSTICE

Discerning Deacons: Join the St. Phoebe School for Synodality

St. Phoebe School for Synodality: Growing Communities of Practice and Witness is a series of free trainings that seeks to equip individuals and communities with the tools to be protagonists in the church's discernment, particularly about women's roles in leading and ministering to a synodal Church, during the Year of St. Phoebe.

Over a series of months in the St. Phoebe School for Synodality, you'll learn how to assemble a team of allies, have strategic conversations with church leaders and other decision-makers, design and facilitate synodal discernment sessions in your parish or community around the issue of women and the diaconate, and report the fruits of your discernment through the synodal structures in the Church in preparation to bear witness to that discernment collectively in September 2023.
