Guest Speaker at Sunday Masses: Anna Robertson, Associate Director of Organizing for Discerning Deacons

Anna will be talking about the global movement to restore women to the permanent diaconate, and how we can support that movement - Discerning Deacons.

"As the Church and society at large face the cascading and overlapping crises before us, we are called to be "protagonists of transformation," to borrow Pope Francis's words, embodying a community grounded in Gospel love and justice. Throughout history, women have been at the forefront of transformation, and I believe that is no less true today than it has ever been."

anna@discerningdeacons.org

St. Phoebe School for Synodality: Growing Communities of Practice and Witness is a series of free trainings that seeks to equip individuals and communities with the tools to be protagonists in the church's discernment, particularly about women's roles in leading and ministering to a synodal Church, during the Year of St. Phoebe.

Over a series of months in the St. Phoebe School for Synodality, you'll learn how to assemble a team of allies, have strategic conversations with church leaders and other decision-makers, design and facilitate synodal discernment sessions in your parish or community around the issue of women and the diaconate, and report the fruits of your discernment through the synodal structures in the Church in preparation to bear witness to that discernment collectively in September 2023.

1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;

- you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading

Wisdom 11:22-12:2

Before the LORD the whole universe is as a grain from a balance or a drop of morning dew come down upon the earth.
But you have mercy on all, because you can do all things;
and you overlook people's sins that they may repent.
For you love all things that are
and loathe nothing that you have made;
for what you hated, you would not have fashioned.
And how could a thing remain, unless you willed it;
or be preserved, had it not been called forth by you?
But you spare all things, because they are yours,
O LORD and lover of souls,
for your imperishable spirit is in all things!
Therefore you rebuke offenders little by little, warn them and remind them of the sins they are committing,
that they may abandon their wickedness and believe in you, O LORD!

Psalm

Psalm 145

Willcock

I will give you glory, O God my King, I will bless your name forever.
I will bless you, day after day and praise your name forever. Ref.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love.
How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all creation. Ref.

All your creatures shall give you thanks, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing.
They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God. Ref.

O Lord, you are faithful in all your words and loving in all your deeds.
You, O Lord, support all who fall and raise up all who are bowed down. Ref.

Second Reading

2 Thessalonians 1:11-2:2

Brothers and sisters: We always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith, that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, in accord with the grace of our God and Lord Jesus Christ.

We ask you, brothers and sisters, with regard to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our assembling with him, not to be shaken out of your minds suddenly, or to be alarmed either by a "spirit," or by an oral statement, or by a letter allegedly from us to the effect that the day of the Lord is at hand.

Gospel Acclamation

O'Carroll/Walker

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that all who believe might have eternal life.

Gospel

Luke 19:1-10

At that time, Jesus came to Jericho and intended to pass through the town. Now a man there named Zacchaeus, who was a chief tax collector and also a wealthy man, was seeking to see who Jesus was; but he could not see him because of the crowd, for he was short in stature. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree in order to see Jesus, who was about to pass that way. When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." And he came down quickly and received him with joy. When they all saw this, they began to grumble, saying, "He has gone to stay at the house of a sinner." But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, "Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I shall give to the poor, and if I have extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house because this man too is a descendant of Abraham. For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost."

Homily

Deacon Steve Wodzanowski

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became human.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Song

O Beauty Ever Ancient

O'Connor

Oh, late have I loved you, oh late have I turned; turned from seeking you in creatures, fleeing grief and pain within. Ref.

My unloveliness I ran from, turned to seek you in all things, things you fashioned as a pathway; yet I lost myself in them. Ref.

This created world is glorious, yet I could not see within, see your loveliness behind all, find the Giver in the gift. Ref.

In your loveliness you made me, in your godly image true;
by your grace you have renewed me, let me live my life in you. Ref.

THE JESUIT PARISH IN SEATTLE

High School Youth Group

Guided by our new Campus Minister Samantha Barger (nee Samantha Yanity), the Youth Group exists to create a safe space for high schoolers to connect with each other, build friendships, find ways to serve their community, and grow in faith.

Once a month, we will schedule a youth-led liturgy at the 5:30pm Sunday Mass. This Mass will involve high school-age lectors, cantors, ushers, and musicians. After the Mass, we will gather in the Parish Center from 6:30pm - 8:00pm for social time and some spiritual and formative conversation.

In addition to the Sunday high school gatherings, the parish will host 1-2 activities for the group each month. These activities will be guided by the high schooler's suggestions.

Fall Events

Sunday, October 30th after the 5:30pm Mass, we will be having an All Saints/All Hollows Eve (Halloween) themed youth gathering from 6:30-8:00pm. The first half will cover the history of Halloween (Catholic history), and the second half will be a pumpkin carving contest! You're welcome to bring any pumpkin-carving supplies and your favorite Halloween snacks to share.

We will have a high school planning meeting on Wednesday, November 16th, 6:30pm-7:30pm. This will be an opportunity for them to plan out what activities they would like to participate in for the coming year.

We love having parent volunteers and we absolutely need your support to get this off the ground and have a successfully running youth group! If you think you can help out with some of our outings, please let us know!

Ushers Needed for Weekend Mass!

Do you have a gift for hospitality? Are you someone who wants to develop a deeper awareness of liturgical prayer, while helping regulars and strangers to our church? Join the usher team!

Ushers greet people warmly, introduce strangers, help people sit together, pass out bulletins, provide hearing-assisted devices, and offer hospitality. An usher is the one person we turn to with a question or need during the liturgy. They stay late and straighten up the church, making it a welcoming space for the people arriving for the next Mass.

The ministry of usher is open to adults, high school age or older, who enjoy providing a hospitable environment for all who walk through the doors of St. Joseph.

Get Involved

For more information or to become a part of this important ministry and team, please contact Deacon Steve Wodzanowski at steve@stjosephparish.org or call 206-965-1646. We especially need ushers at the Saturday 5:00pm and Sunday 5:30pm Masses.

All current and prospective ushers are invited to a special Ushers Gathering in the Parish Center on Thursday, November 3rd, 6:00pm – 8:00pm - a light dinner will be provided.
