November is Native American Heritage Month

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

During Native American Heritage Month, the Parish Anti-Racism Committee invites you to join us in self-education and advocacy on behalf of local Indigenous communities. Join us for a Duwamish documentary film event on November 16th (flyer in the bulletin) and Snake River Dam educational advocacy opportunities after certain weekend Masses.

As Pope Francis said during his apology to survivors of Catholic-run Indian Boarding Schools, "Any truly effective process of healing requires concrete actions. In a fraternal spirit, I encourage the Bishops and the Catholic community to continue taking steps towards the transparent search for truth and to foster healing and reconciliation."

Parish Land Acknowledgement

St. Joseph Parish and School sits on the traditional and ancestral land of the Coast Salish and Duwamish People, the original inhabitants of what is now known as Seattle and the Puget Sound area. We pay respect to the people of the Coast Salish and Duwamish, past and present, and honor the land itself which remains sacred to the Coast Salish and Duwamish People.

We acknowledge that these peoples, and many others, were forcefully removed from their land, some abducted & sent to boarding schools, and some murdered, often with the implicit and explicit support of the Catholic Church and the Jesuit Order. We acknowledge these sins and recognize that the consequences of these actions continue to affect these Indigenous communities.

As a Jesuit parish, Ignited by the Eucharist to Love and Serve, we know we cannot be faithful to our mission without changing our relationship to the Indigenous peoples of this land. We are committed to supporting the Indigenous members of our community as we educate ourselves (a largely non-Native parish) on Indigenous histories, cultures, and issues. We pledge to build deeper relationships with the Duwamish, Coast Salish, and other Indigenous stewards of this land and to work to repair the injustices of colonization.

This Land Acknowledgement is a work-in-progress of the Anti-Racism Committee. Find more resources and guidelines for use on our website: www.stjosephparish.org/landacknowledgement

November - Remembering Our Beloved Dead

In the month of November, you are invited to bring photos of your loved ones to help create a shrine or "Saints Corner" to be located on the Mary altar. This will be maintained as a sacred space for contemplation and prayer throughout the month. You can bring your photo to church during open hours and place it on the Mary altar to the left of the main altar or drop it off at the parish center and we place it on the altar for you. Please write contact information on the back of the photo so it can be returned to you after November.

Parish Book of Life

This year we will have our traditional Book of Life, containing names of loved ones who have died, on display near the altar in November. We invite you to write the names of friends and family in the Book of Life.

1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
- you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading

2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14

It happened that seven brothers with their mother were arrested and tortured with whips and scourges by the king, to force them to eat pork in violation of God's law. One of the brothers, speaking for the others, said: "What do you expect to achieve by questioning us? We are ready to die rather than transgress the laws of our ancestors."

At the point of death he said: "You accursed fiend, you are depriving us of this present life, but the King of the world will raise us up to live again forever. It is for his laws that we are dying."

After him the third suffered their cruel sport. He put out his tongue at once when told to do so, and bravely held out his hands, as he spoke these noble words: "It was from Heaven that I received these; for the sake of his laws I disdain them; from him I hope to receive them again." Even the king and his attendants marveled at the young man's courage, because he regarded his sufferings as nothing.

After he had died, they tortured and maltreated the fourth brother in the same way. When he was near death, he said, "It is my choice to die at the hands of men with the hope God gives of being raised up by him; but for you, there will be no resurrection to life."

Psalm

Psalm 17

Ash

Refrain: Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full, my joy will be full.

Lord, hear a cause that is just; pay heed to my cry.
Turn your ear to my prayer, no deceit is on my lips. Ref.

I kept my feet on your paths, no faltering in my steps.
I call to you, O God, turn your ear and hear my words. Ref.

Guard me as the apple of your eye. Hide me in the shadow of your wings.
As for me in my justice I shall see your face and be filled with the sight of your glory. Ref.

Second Reading

Brothers and sisters: May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good hope through his grace, encourage your hearts and strengthen them in every good deed and word.

Finally, brothers and sisters, pray for us, so that the word of the Lord may speed forward and be glorified,

2 Thessalonians 2:16-3:5

as it did among you, and that we may be delivered from perverse and wicked people, for not all have faith. But the Lord is faithful; he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one. We are confident of you in the Lord that what we instruct you, you are doing and will continue to do. May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the endurance of Christ.

Gospel Acclamation

O'Carroll/Walker

Gospel

Luke 20:27-38

Some Sadducees, those who deny that there is a resurrection, came forward and put this question to Jesus, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, If someone's brother dies leaving a wife but no child, his brother must take the wife and raise up descendants for his brother. Now there were seven brothers; the first married a woman but died childless. Then the second and the third married her, and likewise all the seven died childless. Finally the woman also died. Now at the resurrection whose wife will that woman be? For all seven had been married to her." Jesus said to them, "The children of this age marry and remarry; but those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. They can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise. That the dead will rise even Moses made known in the passage about the bush, when he called out 'Lord,' the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob; and he is not God of the dead, but of the living, for to him all are alive."

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became human.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Song

A Cloud of Witnesses

Haugen

And a great cloud of wit-ness-es sur-rounds us;
they are here, they are with us in this fight.
In the trials we must face, they are un-ex-pect-ed grace, still a-bid-ing, ev-er guid-ing us to light.

By God's grace we were blessed to have heroes, strong and true, shining bright through our long and weary nights.

Even now they are near, in our hearts they shine anew,
still abiding, ever guiding us to light. Ref.

We give thanks and rejoice for the gracious lives they led,
for the strength and the wisdom they passed on.

Once, they sang with God's voice, and our spirits still are fed on our journey toward the reign where all are one. Ref.

So by faith we go forth on a path as yet unknown,
holding fast to the promise handed down from the ones who stood firm;
though forsaken and alone, they took up their cross and laid aside their crown. Ref.

St. Phoebe School for Synodality: Growing Communities of Practice and Witness is a series of free trainings that seeks to equip individuals and communities with the tools to be protagonists in the church's discernment, particularly about women's roles in leading and ministering to a synodal Church, during the Year of St. Phoebe.

Over a series of months in the St. Phoebe School for Synodality, you'll learn how to assemble a team of allies, have strategic conversations with church leaders and other decision-makers, design and facilitate synodal discernment sessions in your parish or community around the issue of women and the diaconate, and report the fruits of your discernment through the synodal structures in the Church in preparation to bear witness to that discernment collectively in September 2023.

For more information, visit discerningdeacons.org/event/st-phoebe-school-for-synodality or scan the QR Code!

Did you miss parishioner Anna Robertson, Director of Organizing at Discerning Deacons, talk about the global movement to restore women to the permanent diaconate? ST. JOSEPH PARISH
THE JESUIT PARISH IN SEATTLE

Are you in high school and looking for a way to connect with others your own age? Do you go to Mass with your family and wished there were more opportunities for people your age? Consider joining our high school youth group!

St. Joe's High School Youth Group is designed to create a safe space for high schoolers to connect with each other, build friendships, find ways to serve their community, and grow in faith. Each month we will meet up after the 5:30pm Mass for a time for food, fun, and an opportunity for deeper conversation. We are also looking to plan fun activities outside of church like movie or game nights, or volunteer opportunities like gardening days with Nurturing Roots or joining in a Habitat for Humanity build.

Upcoming Events

November 16th 6:30pm-7:30pm: Planning meeting

Your opportunity to share your voice and tell us what you want the parish to provide for your and your fellow high schoolers. If you're unable to attend and want to share your ideas scan the QR code.

November 27th 6:45pm -8:00pm Advent wreath making

Join us for some holiday fun! We'll be making advent wreaths, enjoying some hot cider and hot chocolate and Christmas cookies, and having some spiritual conversation around Advent.

If you have any questions or would like to share your ideas, please reach out to Samantha syany@stjosephparish.org.

Altar Servers

Are you in 5th grade or above? Interested in helping out at Mass? Sign up to be an altar server!

We have a lot of slots available for both the 9:00am and 11:00am masses. Scan the QR code or reach out to Samantha.

Agape Service Project Collection - Confirmation Students Need Your Help

The confirmation students will be bundling up diaper packs to assist the Agape Service Project to support the needs of farmworker families in Whatcom County.

If you're able to support their service project and donate some diapers, please drop diapers off to the parish center (in the hospitality room off the vestibule). We'll be collecting from now until December 11th. We are hoping to get sizes 1, 3, 5 and pull-ups. Contact Samantha syany@stjosephparish.org if you have questions! Thanks for your support!
