Ministry of the Week: Facing Homelessness

You may have heard of Facing Homelessness, our partners in the U-District who serve our unhoused neighbors every day with essentials like warm food, warm clothes, and someone to talk to. Have you considered getting involved, either by donating or volunteering? It's a rewarding experience for families, individuals, and couples!

Facing Homelessness relies on donations from St. Joe's to stock the Window of Kindness, their direct outreach ministry to houseless neighbors.

If you haven't donated to Facing Homelessness before, it's easy - there are lots of ways to help! You can sign up to have a meal delivered through Meal Train, drop off sandwiches and other items at the church or buy directly from their Amazon Wish List. For more information about any of these options, or to learn how you can volunteer, email Karina Wallace at karina@facinghomelessness.org

About the Window of Kindness

The Window of Kindness is a physical place of connection between community members and people experiencing homelessness. The healing power of listening and connecting extends to everyone who participates.

At the window, our volunteers hand out thousands of socks, gloves, snacks, sleeping bags, and other supplies essential to staying dry and warm. But people often come for a cup of hot chocolate, conversation, and a listening ear. Everything we give is a vehicle for kindness and human connection. Every connection is a reminder that we all live better when we feel loved.

After-Mass Hospitality: We Need You!

Want to be a part of the most welcoming of St. Joe's traditions, after-Mass coffee and donuts? We always need volunteers to set-up and clean up for hospitality after the 9am and 11am Masses.

It's easy - we have everything ready for you, and will train you before your first time! Help us build this community and facilitate the camaraderie that makes our parish so special - contact sundayhospitality@stjosephparish.org to get plugged in.

First Reading

Numbers 6:22-27

The LORD said to Moses: "Speak to Aaron and his sons and tell them: This is how you shall bless the Israelites. Say to them:

The LORD bless you and keep you!

The LORD let his face shine upon you, and be gracious to you!

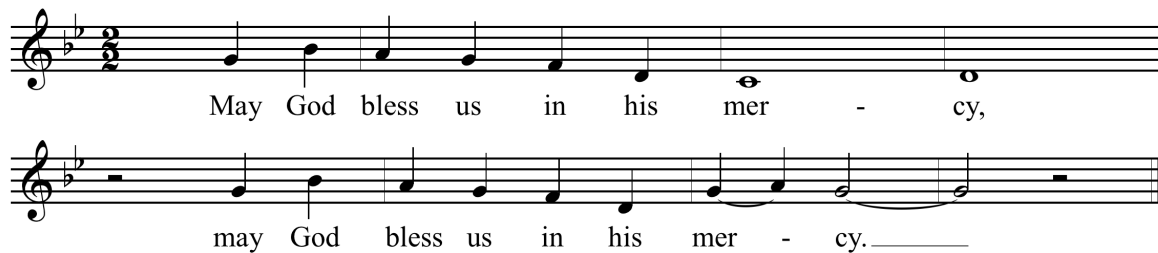

The LORD look upon you kindly and give you peace!

So shall they invoke my name upon the Israelites, and I will bless them."

Psalm

Psalm 67

Guimont

May God have pity on us and bless us; may he let his face shine upon us.

So may your way be known upon earth; among all nations, your salvation. Ref.

May the nations be glad and exult because you rule the peoples in equity;
the nations on earth you guide. Ref.

May the peoples praise you, O God; may all the peoples praise you!
May God bless us, and may all the ends of the earth fear him! Ref.

Second Reading

Galatians 4:4-7

Brothers and sisters: When the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, to ransom those under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons. As proof that you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, "Abba, Father!" So you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son then also an heir, through God.

Gospel Acclamation

Chepponis

In the past, God spoke through the prophets; now he speaks to us through his Son.

Gospel

Luke 2:16-21

The shepherds went in haste to Bethlehem and found Mary and Joseph, and the infant lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known the message that had been told them about this child. All who heard it were amazed by what had been told them by the shepherds. And Mary kept all these things, reflecting on them in her heart. Then the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, just as it had been told to them.

When eight days were completed for his circumcision, he was named Jesus, the name given him by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

Homily

Women's Ministry

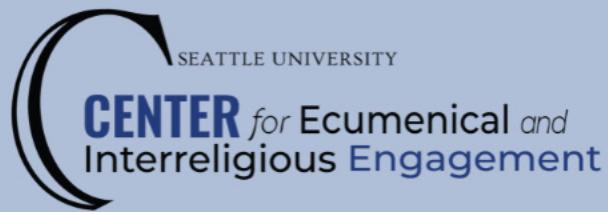

The St. Joe's Women's ministry is looking for help with planning events. We would like to offer four events per year for the women of our parish for spiritual renewal, and we need help in a few areas:

- We need people who are willing to help plan and facilitate women's events. If you want to lead a small group bible study, lead a hike, retreat, or other event, we need you.
- Do you have computer skills? We have need of someone to help manage email lists and RSVP's, and to help create flyers for an event. If you think you could help with that, we need you!
- Hospitality: we need people who are interested in support with set-up and the party planning of the events. Please let us know if you would like to work with our nice group of planners for 2023.

Do any of these sound interesting to you? Email us at:
