Ministry of the Week: Immigration Advocacy and Accompaniment

Did you know? St. Joe's supports migrants in our community and around in the world in response to the Gospel's call to Welcome the Stranger. We collaborate with the Intercommunity Peace and Justice Center, as well as the Kino Border Initiative and Jesuit Refugee services, to promote legislative and executive action alerts as they relate to the ever-changing situation at the southern border. As the administration announces new restrictions on asylum (a recognized international human right), our voices are more important than ever!

In addition to advocacy, our parish accompanies migrants (usually asylum-seekers from Central America) who have made their way to the Seattle area. Want to be a part of this Asylum Rapid Response Team? Join us on February 1st at 7pm at the Parish Center. Email Mark markp@stjosephparish.org with questions or to RSVP.

Kino Border Initiative Immersion Trip: April 29th - May 5th, 2023

St. Joe's has confirmed a date to send a parish delegation to the Kino Border Initiative in Nogales, AZ/MX, for an Immersion Trip in 2023. We are planning on sending a group of 8-12 people, as we've done in the past. Don't miss this opportunity for a life-changing trip!

Stay tuned to the bulletin for a planned informational session in late January, but in the meantime, if you're interested, let us know - simply email kino@stjosephparish.org to register your interest. Our co-leaders, Mimi Krsak, Jan Dwight, and Pat Gemperline, will be happy to answer any questions.

 in the glory of God the Father.
 Amen.

First Reading

Isaiah 49:3,5-6

The LORD said to me:

You are my servant,

Israel, through whom I show my glory.

Now the LORD has spoken

who formed me as his servant from the womb, that Jacob may be brought back to him and Israel gathered to him;

and I am made glorious in the sight of the LORD,

and my God is now my strength!

It is too little, the LORD says, for you to be my servant,

to raise up the tribes of Jacob,

and restore the survivors of Israel;

I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

Psalm

Psalm 40

Cooney

Here I am, Lord, here I am. I come to do your will.

Long was I waiting for God, and then he heard my cry.

It was he that taught this song to me, a song of praise to God. Ref.

You asked me not for sacrifice, for slaughtered goats or lambs.

No, my heart, you gave me ears to hear you, then I said, "Here I am." Ref.

You wrote it in the scrolls of law what you would have me do.

Doing that is what has made me happy, your law is in my heart. Ref.

I spoke before your holy people, the good news that you save.

Now you know that I will not be silent, I'll always sing your praise. Ref.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 1:1-3

Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, to the church of God that is in Corinth, to you who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be holy, with all those everywhere who call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours. Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation

Celtic Alleluia

O'Carroll

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

The Word of the Lord lasts forever. What is the Word that is living? It is brought to us through his Son Jesus Christ.

Gospel

John 1:29-34

John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. He is the one of whom I said, 'A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.' I did not know him, but the reason why I came baptizing with water was that he might be made known to Israel." John testified further, saying, "I saw the Spirit come down like a dove from heaven and remain upon him. I did not know him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God."

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

All bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became human.

All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,

who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

VOLUNTEER

Parish Volunteer Opportunities

We are St. Joseph! There are a couple of immediate volunteer opportunities that are essential to helping our parish run smoothly and welcome people with the love of God.

Funeral Hospitality: Join our dedicated team of hospitality angels who help coordinate meals and receptions after funerals. These good folks allow the family to focus on mourning their loved one. Email funeralhospitality@stjosephparish.org if you can help.

Donation Count: Did you know? We make sure that any donations that come in during weekend Masses are counted by at least one staff member AND one volunteer, for transparency. Can you help us with this? It only requires an hour or two on Tuesday mornings, and is a huge help to the parish! Contact Erin Smith if you think you'd be interested: esmith@stjosephparish.org

After-Mass Hospitality: Want to be a part of the most welcoming of St. Joe's traditions, after-Mass coffee and donuts? We always need volunteers to setup and clean up for hospitality after the 9am and 11am Masses. Contact sundayhospitality@stjosephparish.org to get plugged in.

High Schoolers & Middle Schoolers

Faith Formation is looking for students to volunteer as a helper with the Preschool and Kindergarten Sunday School classes. We'll give you all the training - contact Elisa at elisac@stjosephparish.org if you're interested!

Women's Ministry

The St. Joe's Women's ministry is looking for help with planning events. We would like to offer four events per year for the women of our parish for spiritual renewal, and we need help in a few areas:

We need people who are willing to help plan and facilitate women's events. If you want to lead a small group bible study, lead a hike, retreat, or other event, we need you.

Hospitality: we need people who are interested in support with set-up and the party planning of the events. Please let us know if you would like to work with our group of planners for 2023. Do any of these sound interesting to you? Email us: Women@stjosephparish.org

St. Francis House

We are grateful for the many volunteers who have returned, but we are in need of additional volunteers to assist in serving our clients. Tuesdays are an immediate need but help on any day would be appreciated. Opportunities are available to assist in various ways such as hospitality, clothing rooms or sorting of donations. If you are interested in assisting one day a week between the hours of 10am and 2pm, please email us at info@stfranchishouseseattle.org or call our office at 206-268-0784.

WINTER DAY OF REFLECTION JOURNEY OF GRACE

SATURDAY, JANUARY 28, 2023

9:00AM - 3:00PM PST | ONLINE VIA ZOOM

STEPHANIE RAGLAND, PRESENTER

Register before December 31 for Early Bird Pricing!

After a year full of both growth and challenge, we pause for a moment to take a breath, give thanks, grow in awareness of God's love, and seek hope for the journey ahead. Through the movements of the Examen, we will look back at our experiences, and with an open heart, embrace the path before us and usher in the new year.

This silent mini-retreat includes brief presentations leading you through four movements of the Examen, guidelines for prayer, abundant time for personal reflection and journaling, and a small group at the end of the day—all designed to support you on your spiritual journey.

This program is for anyone who is interested in Ignatian spirituality (either little, some or a lot of experience), and has a desire to put into practice Ignatian tools for reflection. All are welcome!

For more information and to register, visit

Agape Service Project

July 16-20, 2023

Info Sessions:

January 15th, 1:30pm at the Parish Center

January 19th, 7pm on Zoom

Email Samantha - samanthab@stjosephparish.org - for more information and Zoom link

Agape Service Project fosters service, community, and prayer as participants encounter Christ and uphold the dignity of our farmworker brothers and sisters.

Encounter & Kinship

Farmworker Community - relational, direct services include food bank & mobile food distribution, summer enrichment for children, increased access to health & human services

Middle & High School Students - service-learning immersion experiences, put Catholic Social Teaching & prayer into action, empowered to be agents of change

College-Aged Young Adults - servant leadership formation, summer of leading & serving all aspects of program

Highlights

- Always strive to provide culturally-appropriate items served in a bilingual (Spanish-English) setting
- Summer 2022: Served an average of 439 families weekly at our food bank & additional mobile food distribution
- Summer 2022: over 40,500 diapers distributed at 7 weeks of food bank & mobile distribution
- Agape was selected for the Washington State Migrant Education Program 'Health Provider of the Year' award for the 2020-2021 school year.

Who are Farmworkers?

- Approx. 1.5-2 million men, women, & children who plant, pick, & pack our fruits & veggies; work our dairies, nurseries, & feedlots
- 71% are Foreign-born workers; at least 50% are working without legal documentation
- Age of 12: one can be legally hired to work
- For every $1 you spend on produce, a farmworker only gets 9 cents
- Agriculture is one of the most hazardous occupations in the U.S.
- Skilled laborers whose work is dignified & essential
- Our neighbors who have touched our food, and therefore our lives

Most dramatically of all, farmworkers too often struggle with food insecurity, meaning the workers who feed America too often cannot feed their own families.

SERVICE, COMMUNITY + PRAYER

Groups have the opportunity to encounter others through service, community, & prayer.

The week includes:

Prayer + Formation - Daily sessions of prayer, social justice formation, & reflection root our work in Christ and Catholic Social Teaching

Community Building - Engaging activities help strengthen your group & community through the culture of encounter

Agape Food Bank - Groups spend a full day setting up and running a food bank for the farmworker community in Whatcom County

Mobile Food Distribution - Eliminating barriers to food (ex: transportation), groups help distribute food directly to 4 farmworker housing sites

Summer Enrichment for Children of Farmworkers - Create community with children at local farmworker housing sites; provide educational & recreational activities (ex: sports, games, crafts, reading)

Volunteer Farm Work - Groups support local mission-oriented farms; helping farms that are caring for creation & people

LOGISTICS

Program Fees

- $400 per youth participant (schools/parishes may charge more to cover transportation & additional costs)

The program fee funds: lodging and all meals, t-shirts, programming (formation, reflections, prayer, etc.), service supplies, resources, operations & safety supplies, and the staff who make it possible.

Community Living - We intentionally live simply to enter into a spirit of solidarity.

- We recognize that the communities we serve may not receive the quantity and quality of food that we may be accustomed to, therefore we serve simpler meals to bring us closer to our family in Christ.
- Groups stay at Assumption Catholic Church & School (Bellingham, WA); groups sleep on the floor of classrooms & share in the responsibility of daily chores

Staff - Agape's summer staff are college-aged young adults who are on fire for their faith, passionate about social justice, and excited to work with and empower the youth.
