Partners in the Gospel

Partners in the Gospel is a strategic pastoral planning effort taking place across the Archdiocese of Seattle to re-invigorate and renew our local Catholic Church. Today we face many realities that impact parish life and make it difficult to fully live out our mission. This archdiocesan-wide renewal effort, led by the Holy Spirit and grounded in prayer, will help us better support vibrant, sustainable, mission-focused parish communities across the entire Archdiocese of Seattle. To learn more about Partners in the Gospel, please visit archseattle.org/Partners.

PARTNERS IN THE GOSPEL

As Catholics, we are called to deepen our relationship with Christ, and as missionary disciples, to invite others to grow in their relationship with Christ. We do this in many ways — one of which is through the local parish community. Our parishes are the primary way most Catholics stay connected to their faith and each other. The model of parish life also allows for great flexibility in meeting the needs of Catholics at different times in history.

Today we face many realities that are impacting parish life and making it difficult to fully live out our mission. We face an urgent — yet exciting — opportunity to transform parish life — and the faith of all those who live here.

Pope Francis calls us to “read the signs of the times” while adapting to both the needs of the faithful and to historical changes.

While there is no predetermined outcome for this strategic pastoral planning effort, together we will pray to the Holy Spirit to guide our efforts so that we may better support our mission to encounter Christ, accompany others and live the joy of the Gospel.

We are not the first diocese with the courage and the will to be creative with the structure of parish life. Many dioceses have gone before us and have provided models and lessons for how we too can use our limited resources to enhance the Catholic parish experience in the Archdiocese of Seattle. Archbishop Etienne has appointed a team to lead this strategic pastoral planning work, which will bring most parishes together into a new family structure with two or more other parishes. The pastor, parish leaders and parishioners of the new parish family will determine how they will best join together to carry out the mission of the Church as one parish.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Procession

9am God Brings Us Together

Carroll

God brings us together, God brings us together,
God brings us together, together in harmony

Christ brings us together...

The Spirit brings us together...

Church brings us together...

St. Joseph, bring us together...

Love keeps us together...

City of God

Schutte

Awake from your slumber! Arise from your sleep! A new day is dawning for all those who weep.
The people in darkness have seen a great light. The Lord of our longing has conquered the night. Ref.

Refrain

We are sons of the morning; we are daughters of day. The one who has loved us has brightened our way.
The Lord of all kindness has called us to be a light for all people to set their hearts free. Ref.

O city of gladness, now lift up your voice. Proclaim the good tidings that all may rejoice! Ref.

Gloria

Lynch

1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading

Seek the LORD, all you humble of the earth,
who have observed his law;
seek justice, seek humility;
perhaps you may be sheltered
on the day of the LORD's anger.

Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13

But I will leave as a remnant in your midst
a people humble and lowly,
who shall take refuge in the name of the LORD:
the remnant of Israel.
They shall do no wrong
and speak no lies;
nor shall there be found in their mouths
a deceitful tongue;
they shall pasture and couch their flocks
with none to disturb them.

Psalm

9 am Psalm 71

Carroll

Refrain: Ever since I was young, the Lord has nourished me; Now that I am older, I will praise God when I sing.

You are my refuge, with you I am strong;
Hear me, O Lord, save me again. Ref.

I'll sing of your justice and all your good deeds,
And how I was rescued from my enemies. Ref.

I'll play on the harp strings, I'll sing God's praise;
I'll strum on the lyre all of my days. Ref.

Psalm 146

Joncas

Put no trust in the powerful, mere mortals in whom there is no help.
Take their breath, they return to clay, and their plans that day come to nothing.
They are happy who are helped by Jacob's God, whose hope is in the Lord their God, who alone made heaven and earth, the seas and all they contain. Ref.

It is the Lord who keeps faith forever, who is just to the oppressed.
It is God who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free.
It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down, the Lord who protects the stranger, and upholds the widow and orphan. Ref.

It is the Lord who loves the just but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign forever, Zion's God from age to age. Ref.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 1:26-31

Consider your own calling, brothers and sisters. Not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth. Rather, God chose the foolish of the world to shame the wise, and God chose the weak of the world to shame the strong, and God chose the lowly and despised of the world, those who count for nothing, to reduce to nothing those who are something, so that no human being might boast before God. It is due to him that you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God, as well as righteousness, sanctification, and redemption, so that, as it is written, "Whoever boasts, should boast in the Lord."

Gospel Acclamation

Celtic Alleluia

O'Carroll

Rejoice and be glad; rejoice and be glad! For your reward will be great in heaven.

Gospel

Matthew 4:12-23

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him.
He began to teach them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.

Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.

Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.

Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,

for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness,

for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.

Rejoice and be glad,

for your reward will be great in heaven."

Homily

Patrick Fennessy, Head of School

Take, O Take Me As I Am

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

All bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became human.

All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for Partners in the Gospel

Gracious God, we praise and thank you for the Catholic Church in Western Washington.

We praise and thank you for the women and men who have shared the joy of the Gospel here for more than 170 years.

Send your Holy Spirit upon us that we might encounter your Son anew and become more effective partners in sharing the Good News of his saving love.

May our partnership in the Gospel empower us to be your missionary disciples, bringing the Good News to all, especially to those who are marginalized or hurting in any way.

Give us the courage,
the flexibility and the vision
to renew parish life,
so that the good work,
begun long ago,
may continue among us,
and one day, be brought to completion
in your Kingdom,
where you live and reign
for ever and ever.

Amen.

The rise of white Christian nationalism poses an intersectional threat to the well-being of the Black and LGBTQ communities, and to democracy itself. Inspired by the thought of Pope Francis, this presentation outlines the conversion process needed by both individuals and society for authentic racial justice and reconciliation.

Bryan N. Massingale is the James and Nancy Buckman Professor of Theological and Social Ethics, as well as the Senior Ethics Fellow in Fordham's Center for Ethics Education. Professor Massingale is a leader in the field of theological ethics and is an expert in Catholic Moral Theology, Catholic Social Thought, African American Religious Ethics, Racial Justice, Liberation Theologies, Race and Sexuality. His current research projects explore the contribution of Black religious radicalism to Catholic theology; the notion of "cultural sin" and its challenge to Catholic theological ethics; and the intersections of race and sexuality in both social life and Catholicism. Click here in the electronic bulletin to register - www.seattleu.edu/ictc/events/catholic-heritage-series - or scan the QR code to register.

Parish Volunteer Opportunities

We are St. Joseph! Volunteers are the heart and soul of what we do at St. Joe's. Here are some opportunities to meet new people and help our our community:

Funeral Hospitality: Join our dedicated team of hospitality angels who help coordinate meals and receptions after funerals. We especially need your help now! It's easy, and makes a huge difference to families Email funeralhospitality@stjosephparish.org if you can help.

Donation Count: Did you know? We make sure that any donations that come in during weekend Masses are counted by at least two volunteers for transparency. Can you help us with this? It only requires an hour or two on Monday mornings, and is a huge help to the parish! Contact Erin Smith if you think you'd be interested: esmith@stjosephparish.org

After-Mass Hospitality: Want to be a part of the most welcoming of St. Joe's traditions, after-Mass coffee and donuts? We always need volunteers to setup and clean up for hospitality after the 9am and 11am Masses. Contact sundayhospitality@stjosephparish.org to get plugged in.

Young Adults: We need volunteers to help with the planning of events and take on leadership roles for the ministry to continue growing. For example, we need someone to help host the 3rd Sunday Socials, which consists of meeting people in the vestibule of the church after the 5:30pm Mass and walking over to a bar or restaurant (like Zeek's Pizza or Harry's Bar). If you can, please contact Samantha for more detail on how to get more involved: samanthab@stjosephparish.org

High Schoolers & Middle Schoolers

Faith Formation is looking for students to volunteer as a helper with the Preschool and Kindergarten Sunday School classes. We'll give you all the training - contact Elisa at elisac@stjosephparish.org if you're interested!

St. Francis House

We are grateful for the many volunteers who have returned, but we are in need of additional volunteers to assist in serving our clients. Tuesdays are an immediate need but help on any day would be appreciated. Opportunities are available to assist in various ways such as hospitality, clothing rooms or sorting of donations. If you are interested in assisting one day a week between the hours of 10am and 2pm, please email us at info@stfranchiseseattle.org or call our office at 206-268-0784.
