First Reading

Ezekiel 37:12-14

Thus says the LORD God: O my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them, and bring you back to the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and have you rise from them, O my people! I will put my spirit in you that you may live, and I will settle you upon your land; thus you shall know that I am the LORD. I have promised, and I will do it, says the LORD.

Psalm

Psalm 130

Haugen

The musical notation is written on a single staff in G minor (two flats) and 3/4 time. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of two flats (Bb and Eb). The melody is simple and consists of a single line of music. Below the staff, the lyrics are: 'With the Lord there is mer - cy, and full-ness of re - demp-tion.'

From out of the depths, I cry unto you, Lord, hear my voice, come hear my prayer; O let your ear be open to my pleading. Ref.

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, then who could stand within your sight?
But in you is found forgiveness for our failings. Ref.

Just as those who wait for the morning light, even more I long for the Lord, my God, whose word to me shall ever be my comfort. Ref.

Second Reading

Romans 8:8-11

Brothers and sisters: Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the spirit is alive because of righteousness. If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the One who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit dwelling in you.

Gospel Acclamation

Proulx

I am the resurrection and the life, says the Lord; all who believe in me, if they die, will live.

Gospel

John 11:3-7, 17, 20-27, 33b-45

The sisters of Lazarus sent word to Jesus, saying, "Master, the one you love is ill." When Jesus heard this he said, "This illness is not to end in death, but is for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So when he heard that he was ill, he remained for two days in the place where he was. Then after this he said to his disciples, "Let us go back to Judea."

When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him; but Mary sat at home. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise." Martha said, "I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world."

He became perturbed and deeply troubled, and said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Sir, come and see." And Jesus wept. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him." But some of them said, "Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man have done something so that this man would not have died?"

So Jesus, perturbed again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay across it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the dead man's sister, said to him, "Lord, by now there will be a stench; he has been dead for four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus raised his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you for hearing me. I know that you always hear me; but because of the crowd here I have said this, that they may believe that you sent me." And when he had said this, He cried out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, tied hand and foot with burial bands, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. So Jesus said to them, "Untie him and let him go."

Now many of the Jews who had come to Mary and seen what he had done began to believe in him.

ST. JOSEPH PARISH
THE JESUIT PARISH IN SEATTLE

St. Joe's Asylum Accompaniment Team

Did you know? St. Joe's is sponsoring an asylum-seeker from Nicaragua! Alvaro Vargas arrived in El Paso, Texas, in December of 2022, with nothing but the clothes on his back, after walking from Nicaragua, through Mexico, to the border of the United States. Joe Cotton, Director of Pastoral Care and Outreach at the Archdiocese, has known Alvaro since he was 13 years old and a participant of NPH, and got him on a flight to Seattle and a place to stay.

Since then, a group of St. Joe's parishioners has formed a Welcome Circle for Alvaro, supporting him with basic necessities like clothing and transportation, as well as helping him find an attorney and healthcare. Leading this team are parishioners who have experience with the immigration system: Chris McNabb, Gretchen Brennan, and Dave Zablotny. Anyone is welcome to join the team! Just email Mark at markp@stjosephparish.org if you'd like to help.

Alvaro is fleeing violence in his home country and a complete lack of economic opportunities, but he is still trying to support his wife and four children in Nicaragua. He is unable to work right now due to his immigration status, so we are hoping to raise enough funds over the next few months to rent his own personal living space, as well as pay for his attorney fees, which can be upwards of $10,000.

Can you help? Donate using the QR code or send a check to the parish directed toward Asylum Accompaniment Team.

Are you grieving the death of someone close to you?
Grief and loss can have a significant impact on our lives long after the death of the person we love.

The grieving process has no timeline and is unique to each individual, but meeting with others who are going through a similar experience can provide support and help us cope.

You are invited to join this 8-week grief support group facilitated by St. James Cathedral Staff Anisa Ralls.
