Easter Season: A Note of Gratitude

Spring comes around each year and is a welcome reminder of things beautiful, colors radiant, gray and dull days grown brighter and more fragrant. It happens so naturally around us we are in danger of taking it for granted; or taking a quick look before returning to demands.

Wise figures have, over the ages, urged us to 'stop and smell the roses!' While we bask in the joy of our Easter celebrations may we continue to take in the beauty and blessings that surround us.

Of blessings that surround us, let us all give a hearty prayer of thanks to the many folks who gave us an Easter bouquet of sacred space: the musicians, dancers, lectors, eucharistic ministers, sacristans, organists, program makers, ushers, cleaners, live-streamers, artists and flower designers, banner makers, servers and candle lighters, and any and all I may have overlooked. You are good people who remind us that some forms of beauty are made, not grown. Your labors and love are appreciated! The bouquet of roses from your hands to all of us is a blessing we humbly receive with gratitude.

Easter blessings surround us!

Fr. Chris

Tree of Hope: Thank You!

Thanks to your generosity, we raised over and above our goal this year for the Tree of Hope, benefitting our Sister Parish of San Bartolome, El Salvador, during Lent.

$7,000 will be sent to Nueva Trinidad for the Senior Food Program and over $16,000 will be sent to the DHP Scholarship Program!

Mask Section in the Church: Please note that the section on the north side of the church are reserved for persons who choose to wear a mask. We ask that you help us show respect and model inclusion by wearing a mask if you choose to sit in that section.

First Reading

Acts 2:42-47

They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among all according to each one's need. Every day they devoted themselves to meeting together in the temple area and to breaking bread in their homes. They ate their meals with exultation and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Psalm

Psalm 118

Fisher

This is the day that the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad. Ref

Give thanks to the Lord, our God is good, whose love endures forever!
Let all the children of Israel say: "God's love endures forever." Ref.

The right hand of God has struck with pow'r. The right hand of God is exalted.
I shall not die, but I shall live and proclaim the works of the Lord. Ref.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the foundation of our house!
By the Lord has this been done. How wonderful to behold! Ref.

(5:30) Psalm 118

Haugen

Give thanks to the Lord, for God is good; God's mercy endures forever;
Let the house of Israel say: "God's mercy endures forever." Ref.

The hand of the Lord has struck with power, God's right hand is exalted,
I shall not die, but live anew, declaring the works of the Lord. Ref.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;
The Lord of love and mercy has brought wonder to our eyes! Ref.

Second Reading

1 Peter 1:3-9

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you who by the power of God are safeguarded through faith, to a salvation that is ready to be revealed in the final time. In this you rejoice, although now for a little while you may have to suffer through various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold that is perishable even though tested by fire, may prove to be for praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Although you have not seen him you love him; even though you do not see him now yet believe in him, you rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, as you attain the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Gospel Acclamation

Ash

You believe because you have seen me; bless those who didn't but still believe.

Gospel

John 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Now, Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

EMBODYING EASTER PRAYER SERIES

with Betsey Beckman

PRAYING WITH MARY MAGDALENE

THURSDAY APRIL 27 / 7PM – 8:30PM

ST. JOSEPH CHURCH SANCTUARY

In this evening of sacred performance and prayer, Betsey will share her storydance of Mary Magdalene with musical accompaniment by Laura Ash. Witness Mary Magdalene's walk with Jesus, her deep grief at beholding the crucifixion, and profound encounter with Christ who anointed her as Apostle to the Apostles. Reflect together about our call to be transformed by Christ in the joy of resurrection! And join in a gentle guided meditation of gesture prayers to practice embodying our Easter Alleluia. (This evening is a perfect beginning for anyone curious about how the gifts of dance and drama might deepen our prayer, and a chance to re-ignite a spark of creativity for all!)

DANCING WITH MARY MAGDALENE

THURSDAY MAY 4 / 7PM - 8:30PM

ARRUPE ROOM - PARISH CENTER

Take a deeper dive into embodying the Magdalene story with an evening dedicated to exploring dance & movement prayer. Through improvisational forms, step into a range of movements and experiences that Mary Magdalene may have journeyed through as a template for your own sacred journey. Let Mary Magdalene be our guide in courage and compassion! Together, we give permission to dance our tears, fears, Christ encounters, and transformations as we play and pray into the joy of our Easter Alleluia! (No previous movement experience necessary. Open to all who want to explore!)
