Care for Creation

As Catholics, we respond to the call of Pope Francis, in his encyclical Laudato Si', to care for the earth and fight climate change, especially as it affects marginalized communities. Our parish, in collaboration with other parishes in the Archdiocese and with international organizations, is active in helping to create a better world for our children. From advocacy campaigns to marching with climate activists to green campus initiatives, St. Joe's is a community that makes Care for Creation a priority.

Want to learn more? The Climate Justice Committee (Mikka Nyarko and Chris Covert-Bowlds, co-chairs) will be hosting a meet-and-greet after the 9am and 11am Masses this weekend. Join us in the social hall during coffee hour to learn how you and your family can work for positive solutions to the climate crisis.

You can also email us at climatejustice@stjosephparish.org!

First Reading

Acts 2:14, 22-23

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "You who are Jews, indeed all of you staying in Jerusalem. Let this be known to you, and listen to my words. You who are Israelites, hear these words. Jesus the Nazorean was a man commended to you by God with mighty deeds, wonders, and signs, which God worked through him in your midst, as you yourselves know. This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God, you killed, using lawless men to crucify him. But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it. For David says of him:

*I saw the Lord ever before me,
with him at my right hand I shall not be disturbed.
Therefore my heart has been glad and my tongue has exulted;
my flesh, too, will dwell in hope,
because you will not abandon my soul to the netherworld,
nor will you suffer your holy one to see corruption.
You have made known to me the paths of life;
you will fill me with joy in your presence.*

"My brothers, one can confidently say to you about the patriarch David that he died and was buried, and his tomb is in our midst to this day. But since he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn an oath to him that he would set one of his descendants upon his throne, he foresaw and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he abandoned to the netherworld nor did his flesh see corruption. God raised this Jesus; of this we are all witnesses. Exalted at the right hand of God, he received the promise of the Holy Spirit from the Father and poured him forth, as you see and hear."

Psalm

Psalm 16

Haugen

Faithful God, I look to you, you alone my life and fortune, never shall I look to other gods, you shall be my one hope. Ref.

From of old you are my heritage, you my wisdom and my safety, through the night you speak within my heart, silently you teach me. Ref.

So my heart shall sing for joy, in your arms I rest securely, you will not abandon me to death, you shall not desert me. Ref.

Second Reading

1 Peter 1:17-21

Beloved: If you invoke as Father him who judges impartially according to each one's works, conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct, handed on by your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb.

He was known before the foundation of the world but revealed in the final time for you, who through him believe in God who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

Gospel

Luke 24:13-35

That very day, the first day of the week, two of Jesus' disciples were going to a village seven miles from Jerusalem called Emmaus, and they were conversing about all the things that had occurred. And it happened that while they were conversing and debating, Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him. He asked them, "What are you discussing as you walk along?" They stopped, looking downcast. One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply, "Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?" And he replied to them, "What sort of things?" They said to him, "The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him over to a sentence of death and crucified him. But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel; and besides all this, it is now the third day since this took place. Some women from our group, however, have astounded us: they were at the tomb early in the morning and did not find his body; they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive. Then some of those with us went to the tomb and found things just as the women had described, but him they did not see." And he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are! How slow of heart to believe all that the prophets spoke! Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them what referred to him in all the Scriptures. As they approached the village to which they were going, he gave the impression that he was going on farther. But they urged him, "Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them. And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. Then they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he spoke to us on the way and opened the Scriptures to us?" So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" Then the two recounted what had taken place on the way and how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

Offertory Songs

Choral: Touch the Earth Lightly

Murray/Alonso

Touch the earth lightly, use the earth gently,
Nourish the life of the world in our care:
Gift of great wonder, ours to surrender,
Trust for the children tomorrow will bear.

We who endanger, who create hunger,
Agents of death for all creatures that live,
We who would foster clouds of disaster -
God of our planet, forestall and forgive!

Let there be greening, birth from the burning,
Water that blesses and air that is sweet,
Health in God's garden, hope in God's children,
Regeneration that peace will complete.

God of all living, God of all loving,
God of the seedling, the snow and the sun,
Teach us, deflect us, Christ reconnect us,
Using us gently, and making us one.

EMBODYING EASTER: PRAYING WITH MARY MAGDALENE

with Betsey Beckman

UPDATED SCHEDULE!

THURSDAY APRIL 27 / 7PM - 8:30PM

ARRUPE ROOM, PARISH CENTER

In this evening of sacred performance and prayer, Betsey will begin by sharing her beautifully filmed storydance of Mary Magdalene. With Visio Divina, witness Mary Magdalene's walk with Jesus, her deep grief at beholding the crucifixion, and profound encounter with Christ who anointed her as Apostle to the Apostles. Next, we will have time to reflect together on Mary Magdalene's journey and how she speaks to us today. We conclude the evening with a guided meditation in movement where we enter the imagery of the Mary Magdalene story and with her help, imagine an encounter with the Risen Christ. (No previous movement experience necessary. Open to all who want to explore!)

In the Orthodox Tradition, the 2nd Sunday after Orthodox Easter (April 30th this year) is celebrated as the Sunday of the Myrrh-Bearing Women. Let us anticipate this feast as we honor Mary Magdalene as primary among the Myrrh-Bearers!

Please note the modified schedule. Instead of two sessions, Betsey will condense her offering to one evening that includes storytelling, reflection, and embodied prayer.

EMAIL BBECKDANCE@GMAIL.COM TO REGISTER

With a Masters in Ministry and a lifetime in dance, Betsey Beckman is internationally renowned for her gift of artistry in Movement Prayer. As a new parishioner at St. Joe's, Betsey is honored to bring her ministry of movement to our community. Betsey has been a guest artist at St. Joe's for the past 20 years, and now is offering this opportunity to the community to learn more about movement as a vehicle for prayer.
