A Note from Fr. Chris: First Communion Weekend

When I was studying theology many years ago one of our classes was about rituals and sacraments. Of course we covered all seven of the sacraments and of most importance was the Eucharist. Someone, I don't remember if it was a professor or one of my classmates, offered this comment on the communion wafers we use: "It is easier to believe it is Jesus than to believe it is bread!"

Communion is, in fact, about believing. Our children making their First Communion this weekend have been asked to join all of us 'older' folks in a common belief: the wafer is not bread but Jesus' body; the wine is Jesus' blood.

Where do we get such an outlandish idea? From Jesus himself. Why do we have communion each week (each day)? Jesus said: "Do this in remembrance of me." [Lk 22:19]

This may be where we separate ourselves from other believers. We believe Jesus' words and we try to live them in our lives. It isn't easy. Belief is not simple and our feelings of uncertainty are quite understandable. We'd like to have certitude that we do indeed receive Christ's body and blood in our communion; instead what we have is belief.

Still, for some two thousand years we are joined together as a people, a church believing Jesus's words. This weekend we pass on to our First Communicants this sacred trust in God. We believe and so we receive. We receive and so we act: we live Jesus' words, enact His teachings, share His healing and forgiveness and love for sinner and saint alike. It isn't easy but belief makes it possible.

Ask. Believe. Receive!

~Fr. Chris

First Reading

Acts 6:1-7

Everyday more and more people were becoming disciples. Soon some of them, those who spoke Greek, complained to the apostles that some of the widows were not being taken care of and were not getting enough to eat. The apostles gathered the group of disciples together and said,

“Our main work is to preach the Word of God, and we can’t stop doing that to hand out food. So choose seven people from your group, and we will ask them to take care of the food and see that it is given to those who need it. These seven people must be very wise and must be filled with the Holy Spirit. They must be people who are respected by the others. While they are doing their work, we will spend our time in prayer and in the ministry of the Word.”

All the disciples liked this idea, and so they chose seven people. [Their names were Stephen (a man who had strong faith and was filled with the Holy Spirit), Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus.]

When they took these seven to the apostles, the apostles put their hands on them and prayed over them.

Psalm

Psalm 33

Haugen

Let your mer-cy be on us, O God, as we place our trust in you.

Your words, O God, are truth indeed, and all your works are ever faithful;
you love justice and right, your compassion fills all creation. Ref.

See how the eye of God is watching, ever guarding all who wait in hope, to deliver them from death, and sustain them in time of famine. Ref.

Exult, you just in the Lord, for praise is the song of the righteous!
How happy the people of God, the ones whom God has chosen. Ref.

Second Reading - 5:30pm Mass Only

1 Peter 2:4-9

Beloved: Come to him, a living stone, rejected by human beings but chosen and precious in the sight of God, and, like living stones, let yourselves be built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it says in Scripture:

*Behold, I am laying a stone in Zion,
a cornerstone, chosen and precious,
and whoever believes in it shall not be put to shame.*

Therefore, its value is for you who have faith, but for those without faith:

*The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone,
a stone that will make people stumble,
and a rock that will make them fall.*

They stumble by disobeying the word, as is their destiny.

You are “a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own, so that you may announce the praises” of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

Gospel Acclamation

Ash

Al - le-lu - ia! Al - le-lu - ia! Al - le-lu - ia! Praise the Lord!

I am the way, the truth, and the life; none comes to God, except through me.

Gospel

John 14:1-12

Jesus said to his disciples, "Don't let your hearts be worried and upset. You already believe in God; believe in me, too. There are many rooms in my Father's house. I am going now to prepare a place for you. But I will come back, and I will take you to be with me where I am. And you know the way to the place where I am going."

Thomas said to Jesus, "Lord, we don't even know where you are going, so how can we know the way?"

Jesus said, "I am the way, I am the truth, and I am the life. Anyone who wants to come to the Father, must come through me."

[Then Philip said, "Lord, show us the Father."

Jesus said, "Philip, anyone who has seen me, has seen the Father. I am in the Father and the Father is in me. You can believe me because you see the things that I do. And I tell you the truth, anyone who believes in me will be able to do the things that I do and even greater things that I do, because I am going to the Father."]

Offertory Song

We Come to Your Feast

Joncas

We place upon your table a gleaming cloth of white: the weaving of our stories, the fabric of our lives; the dreams of those before us, the ancient hopeful cries, the promise of our future: our needing and our nurture lie here before our eyes. Ref.

Refrain

We come to your feast, we come to your feast: the young and the old, the fright-ened, the bold, the great-est and the least. We come to your feast, we come to your feast with the fruit of our lands and the work of our hands, we come to your feast.
