Guest Presider: Fr. Bob Wynne

Fr. Robert Wynne, a native of Worcester, Massachusetts, was ordained a Maryknoll priest in June of 1968. The name Maryknoll is a nickname for the Catholic Foreign Mission Society of America, established by the American Bishops in 1911. Its original Seminary and Headquarters, built on a Knoll overlooking the Hudson River in NY, was dedicated to Mary. Thus the name: Maryknoll.

Father Bob's first mission assignment was to the chain of Hawaiian Islands, which Maryknoll began to serve before it became a state.

After 29 years as pastor in various rural Hawaiian parishes, Fr. Bob, at 68 years of age requested, and received, a transfer to Cambodia. For the next 12 years he worked in a resettlement village, among impoverished people, who had been burned out of their shanties that were located near the palace in the capital of Phnom Penh. On October 1, 2018, Fr. Bob at 80 and having arranged the continuation of the work he had been doing in Cambodia, was assigned to live at the Maryknoll Mission House in Seattle. Now semi-retired, Fr. Bob helps out from time to time at parishes and convents in Seattle.

Procession

Gather Your People

Hurd

Gath-er your peo-ple, O Lord. Gath-er your peo-ple, O Lord. One bread, one bod-y, one spir-it of love. Gath-er your peo-ple, O Lord.

1. Draw us forth to the ta-ble of life: broth-ers and sis-ters,
2. We are parts of the bod-y of Christ, need-ing each oth-er,
3. Wash us, Lord, in the wa-ters of life; wa-ters of mer-cy,

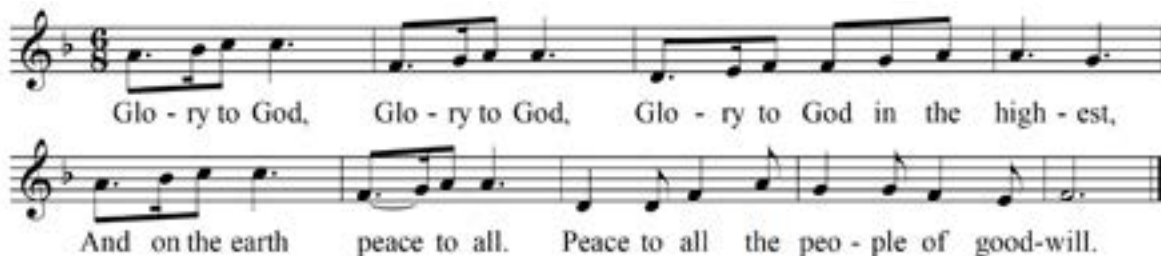

each of us called to walk in your light,
each of the gifts the Spir-it pro-vides,
wa-ters of hope that flow from your side.

2 D.C.

Gloria

Mass of St. Francis

Lynch

Glo-ry to God, Glo-ry to God, Glo-ry to God in the high-est,
And on the earth peace to all. Peace to all the peo-ple of good-will.

1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
- you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading

Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a

Moses said to the people: "Remember how for forty years now the LORD, your God, has directed all your journeying in the desert, so as to test you by affliction and find out whether or not it was your intention to keep his commandments. He therefore let you be afflicted with hunger, and then fed you with manna, a food unknown to you and your fathers, in order to show you that not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the LORD.

"Do not forget the LORD, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery; who guided you through the vast and terrible desert with its saraph serpents and scorpions, its parched and waterless ground; who brought forth water for you from the flinty rock and fed you in the desert with manna, a food unknown to your fathers."

Psalm

Psalm 147

Ash

Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem. Zion, praise your God.

The Lord has strengthened the bars of your gates and blessed your children. Ref.

You established peace on our lands and feed us with finest wheat.

You send out your word to the earth; how swift your commands, O Lord! Ref.

You made your word known to Jacob, to Israel your laws and decrees.

You have not dealt thus with other nations; you have not taught them your decrees. Ref.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 10:16-17

Brothers and sisters: The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

Gospel Acclamation

Haugen

I am the living bread that came down from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever.

Gospel

John 6:51-58

Jesus said to the Jewish crowds: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever."

Homily

Fr. Bob Wynne

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

A Message from Fr. Chris

Dear Friends,

Blessings to you as we head into a beautiful Seattle summer! As I reflect on the accomplishments and growth of our parish community since I arrived last year, I am filled with immense gratitude for your continued support and dedication.

Over the past year, our parish has experienced a remarkable transformation, thanks to the collective efforts and commitment of our community members. We have rebooted many of our programs, providing new opportunities for spiritual growth and community engagement.

Our Child Faith Formation classes for Pre-K through Grade 6 have been revitalized, ensuring that our youngest members receive a strong foundation in their faith. Our Middle and High School Youth Groups have flourished, providing a nurturing environment for our young people to explore their faith and build meaningful connections.

Faith Justice ministries have thrived, answering God's call to serve all in the form of asylum accompaniment, anti-racism initiatives, and direct outreach to our unhoused neighbors. We remain steadfast in our commitment to welcoming and supporting individuals of all sexual orientations and gender identities through our LGBTQ+ Ministry. Our connection with the school has grown stronger, with collaborative events and school Masses fostering a sense of unity between our parish and educational communities. Additionally, our Senior Ministry continues to expand, offering Masses, lunches, prayer groups, and art classes that cater to the spiritual and social needs of our beloved seniors.

As we approach the end of the fiscal year, we find ourselves in need of our parish community's support to meet our stewardship goal of $1,767,000. While we have made significant strides, we still project a shortfall of $100,000.

There are a few factors contributing to this situation. Firstly, like many parishes across the Archdiocese, our Sunday Mass attendance has experienced a decline since the pre-pandemic period of 2019. While we have made great efforts to adapt and accommodate the needs of our community during these challenging times, our average attendance of 787 per weekend falls short of the pre-pandemic average of 936. While we understand that this is the "new normal" and that every challenge is an opportunity, these numbers, as a practical matter, hinder our ability to raise funds for church operations.

Furthermore, our budget for this year was based on stewardship pledges, and unfortunately, some unforeseen circumstances have hindered some folks from fulfilling their pledges. If you find yourself in a position to make an additional pledge, we would be most appreciative. Every contribution, regardless of its size, will have a significant impact on our ability to meet our financial obligations and continue the exceptional programs and ministries that enrich our parish community.

We express our sincere gratitude to those who have already pledged their support. Your generosity and commitment are the lifeblood of our community, and we are truly blessed to have you as active participants in our parish life.

May the love and guidance of our Lord Jesus Christ inspire us all to extend a helping hand to ensure the continued growth and vibrancy of our parish. Together, let us rise to the occasion and overcome this financial challenge with faith and unity.

With heartfelt appreciation,

Fr. Chris Cartwright, SJ
