A Note from Fr. Chris

Dear friends,

I am writing to you today humbled and grateful for your generosity. I want share with you the incredible progress we have made in our Annual Catholic Appeal (ACA) campaign. Thanks to the generosity of 318 households in our parish, we have raised an impressive amount of $152,548, bringing us remarkably close to our goal.

With just $4,113 left to reach our target, I'm confident that together we can bridge this gap and achieve our goal. Remember, any funds collected above our assessed amount will be returned to us in the form of a rebate! Your participation in the ACA is a double gift—one that benefits the vital programs and services provided by the Archdiocese, and simultaneously supports the continued growth and development of St. Joseph Parish.

Your contributions to the ACA are an inspiring example of your love for Christ and how you take seriously your discipleship. Be assured that you are making a significant impact on the lives of countless individuals and families in the Archdiocese.

Let me borrow a few words from St. Paul to the Philippians: "I thank my God every time I think of you. In all my prayers for you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident that God who began this good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus." [Philippians 1:3-6]

God has begun a great work in you in us. Together may we continue to carry it forward until the day of Christ and in Christ find that we will rejoice and be in harmony with the great company of saints.

Bless you and thank you for your goodness and steadfast support.

Fr. Chris Cartwright, S.J.

First Reading

Zechariah 9:9-10

Thus says the LORD:
Rejoice heartily, O daughter Zion,
shout for joy, O daughter Jerusalem!
See, your king shall come to you;
a just savior is he,
meek, and riding on an ass,
on a colt, the foal of an ass.

He shall banish the chariot from Ephraim,
and the horse from Jerusalem;
the warrior's bow shall be banished,
and he shall proclaim peace to the nations.
His dominion shall be from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.

Psalm

Psalm 145

Willcocks

I will give you glory, O God my King, I will bless your name forever.
I will bless you day after day and praise your name forever. Ref.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love.
How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all creation. Ref.

All your creatures shall give you thanks, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing.
They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God. Ref.

O Lord, you are faithful in all your words and loving in all your deeds.
You, O Lord, support all who fall and raise up all who are bowed down. Ref.

Second Reading

Romans 8:9, 11-13

Brothers and sisters: You are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit that dwells in you. Consequently, brothers and sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh, you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

Gospel Acclamation

Haugen

Blessed are you, God, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

Gospel

Matthew 11:25-30

At that time Jesus exclaimed: "I give praise to you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for although you have hidden these things from the wise and the learned you have revealed them to little ones. Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will. All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

Homily

Matthew Pyrc, S.J.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The first staff is labeled 'Verses' and contains three verses of lyrics. The second staff continues the lyrics. The third staff continues the lyrics. The fourth staff is labeled 'Refrain' and contains the refrain lyrics. The melody is simple and melodic.

ST. JOSEPH PARISH

THE JESUIT PARISH IN SEATTLE

Faith Justice: Immigration Advocacy and Accompaniment

www.stjosephparish.org/immigration

In 2020, the St. Joe's Faith Justice Committee requested input from the parish in feedback sessions to determine desired focus areas. Immigration continued to be an area of focus for the parish community.

Over the years, one of the main initiatives has been to develop relationships with organizations that work on immigration issues (locally, regionally and nationally) and to try and support their respective efforts through advocacy, fundraising, and direct service.

We have maintained connection with most of the organizations listed below, although naturally some have been stronger than others. Our key relationships have been with Kino Border Initiative and Jesuit Refugee Service. However, our immigration leadership does stay connected with most of those listed and continues to act as a facilitator in sharing information and requests for assistance with the parish community. Our primary focus with many of these organizations has been related to fundraising and advocacy efforts.

Kino Border Initiative \(KBI\)

Jesuit Refugee Services \(JRS\)

Intercommunity Peace & Justice Center \(IPJC\)

St James Cathedral Immigrant Assistance

Seattle Archdiocese Immigrant and Refugee Ministry

Seattle University Campus Ministry

WA Immigration Solidarity Network \(WAISN\)

Northwest Immigrant Rights Project \(NWIRP\)

International Rescue Committee \(IRC\)

Casa Latina

Direct Service is a key component of our work. For example, there has been strong engagement from the parish relating to Kino Immersion trips. Our first trip took place in November 2019 (10 participants), our second trip was in November 2021 (10 participants) and the third was in April 2023 (6 participants). These trips can be life-changing for the participants. The teams will typically debrief on their final day and begin to plan what they can do when they return to Seattle to make a difference in immigration related topics - both individually and collectively within the community. We plan on another trip during the Fall of 2024. Email kino@stjosephparish.org for more information!

Local direct service opportunities were limited during the pandemic, but a group of St. Joe's parishioners did participate in the JRS "40 Miles for Migrants" walk in 2021 to raise funding for JRS. St. Joe's also participated in a march to support an end to Title 42 in January 2022. This activity was organized by the Intercommunity Peace and Justice Center and was supported by local parishes. Members of the St. Joe's team had roles in organizing and leading the event. We also have partnered with JRS to bring in Ukraine front-line workers for an educational event and host an "Immigration Immersion Experience" at Seattle University in 2023.

Most recently an Asylum Accompaniment Team was formed as a follow up from the November 2021 Kino trip team. While progress began in 2022, a request for help supporting an asylum-seeker from Nicaragua jump-started these efforts in December 2022. This team has grown organically as word spread in our community and at least 30 people have been engaged or have expressed interest. We help provide legal, housing, healthcare, education, and employment support along with other identified needs. While current efforts are focused on this individual, our hope is that this structure will support others needing help in the future. Email us at asylumteam@stjosephparish.org to join the effort! There are opportunities for translators, healthcare professionals, people with connections to education and housing, etc.

In order to remain knowledgeable on immigration related work, the Faith Justice Immigration lay leadership team continues to participate in local collaborative meetings led by St. James Cathedral immigration group and the Seattle Archdiocese Immigration group. Quarterly meetings are held to provide updates and share information.

In addition, there is an annual Immigration Summit typically held in August that St. Joe's immigration leadership participates in. There are many ways to engage if you have interest. Please check our weekly E-Newsletter and Church Bulletin for opportunities to engage.

We are looking for more ushers, eucharistic ministers, and collection counters! Can you help?

Ushers help with weekend Masses on a rotating basis and are essential to making sure things go smoothly and that people feel welcome. Don't worry – we will train you! Email Deacon Steve steve@stjosephparish.org if you can help.

We also need a few more parishioners to help with collection counting. Volunteers rotate coming in to the parish center on Monday mornings at 10am to count the weekend's collection with other volunteers and staff. Can you help with this important job? Email Erin at esmith@stjosephparish.org

Fr. Chris has asked that we offer everyone the opportunity to receive Holy Communion under both species (Bread and Wine) at all Sunday Masses. In order to do so, we need another 6-10 Eucharistic Ministers.

We serve every three weeks as part of a team. We will train you before or after Mass and get you started. In particular we need folks to serve at the Sunday 11am Mass. If interested, please contact Deacon Steve at 206-965-1646 or steve@stjosephparish.org.

Christian Life Communities at St. Joe's

Christian Life Communities \(CLCs\) are a global Jesuit ministry that offer the opportunity to learn about and grow in Ignatian prayer and spirituality alongside a small group of peers. Bi-weekly gatherings include introduction and discussion of different types of prayer as taught by St. Ignatius of Loyola, as well as faith sharing about prayer experiences since the previous meeting.

There are additional opportunities as well as the flexibility for groups to choose and direct their own paths for spiritual growth and community. It's possible to meet either online or in-person.

St. Joseph parishioner Philip Palios has experience participating in and starting CLC groups from his time living in the United Kingdom and would like to explore the possibility of starting a new CLC group in Seattle. He is working with Theresa - contact her at theresa@stjosephparish.org for more information and to register!

FAITH JUSTICE & PARISH LIFE

Help Keep the Community Fridge Stocked!

Thank you for bringing snack packs to the community fridge! They are so appreciated by our neighbors.

We're always grateful for easy-to-eat snacks like cheese, fruit, and crackers for the fridge. It's open 24/7 - take what you need, leave what you can!

During the summer months, it's important that we keep the fridge stocked with bottled water for our friends to stay cool. Bring a package to the corner of 19th & Aloha, put half in the fridge and half in the freezer!

Facing Homelessness Summer Food Donations

Our outreach partners at Facing Homelessness are beyond grateful for the support that you, our parish, has supplied over the last three years. This summer, let's keep it up! If you haven't donated food to Facing Homelessness's Window of Kindness, it's easy! You can sign up to donate snacks/drinks/sandwiches by going to this link (or by scanning the QR code) or by emailing karina@facinghomelessness.org

Here's a list of current needs:

PB&J sandwiches

Ham/turkey/cheese/salami sandwiches

Cases of water/gatorade/other drinks

Chips (individual packs)

Canned food (chili, Chef Boyardee, canned tuna)

Granola bars

Cup of noodles

Other various snacks (nuts/crackers, microwavable mac & cheese, etc.)

Hard boiled eggs, yogurt, and fruit are also welcomed!

You can also purchase snacks for us directly from our Amazon Wish List and it will be delivered directly to us!

Please Note: Donations should be dropped off by Tuesday 1:00pm. Facing Homelessness is not a food bank, so donations of things like pasta/canned tomatoes/beans/etc. are encouraged to donate to St. Francis House. There are additional instructions in the signup link. Thank you!

St. Joe's Prayer Shawl Updates

Our regular Zoom meetings that would normally meet at 7:00 pm on Tuesday, July 11 and Tuesday, August 8 have been cancelled for the summer. Our next meeting will be in person on Tuesday, September 12 in the parish center.

New members are always welcome. Please contact Anna Morzinski at prayershawlgroup@stjosephparish.org if you have questions or to attend.

NOTE: We also have Blessed Shawls available upon request for yourself or a friend or relative in need of the comfort and prayers that a shawl can provide. Please contact Anna Morzinski at the above email address.

Women of the Old Testament

Matriarchs, Prophets, and Rabble Rousers

A FOUR WEEK SCRIPTURE STUDY BEGINNING JULY 11

The Old Testament is often seen as a history of Israel's beginnings, traced through the lives of the Patriarchs. But the Patriarchs could not have accomplished their work without partnerships with the Matriarchs, women who also heard God's voice, received God's promises, and played essential roles in the salvation story. In this four-week series, we will explore the lives of some of the Matriarchs who helped to shape the People of God.
