A Note from Fr. Chris

Dear Friends,

I have been thinking lately about the sacred. I'm wondering if we are handing on to our children the idea that something more than our world exists. Are we helping them grow acquainted with what is holy, sacred, more precious because it comes from God? Do we even remind ourselves that we come from God? St. Ignatius put it this way: "I come from God; I belong to God; I am destined for God."

A thought from Rabbi Heschel has been teasing my mind lately. He wrote: "We have bartered holiness for convenience, loyalty for success, wisdom for information, prayers for sermons, tradition for fashion."<sup>1</sup> He may well have captured the temperament of our times. We have been giving up on real treasures for values that are much less sure of providing us with fulfillment. The waves of our narcissistic time might well be drowning us in what is trivial.

Another thought from Heschel: (substitute Christianity for Judaism) "There has perhaps never been more need of Judaism than in our time, a time in which many cherished hopes of humanity lie crushed. We should be pioneers as were our fathers three thousand years ago. The future of all [men] depends upon their realizing that the sense of holiness is as vital as health."<sup>2</sup>

Every day, let there be around us a sense of holiness, an awareness of what is sacred. Our hearts and our longing for joy will persist unfulfilled and waiting, wanting the holy we are meant to have without our thinking, our talking to God. And this is not to be kept away from our children, our spouse, or our friends. We owe it to others to reveal to them the sacred that lives within.

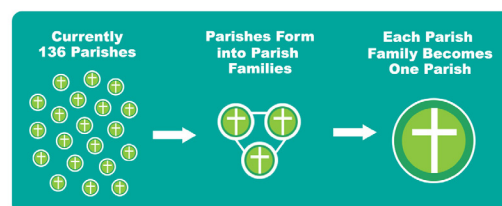

Blessings,

Fr. Chris

First Reading

Isaiah 22:19-23

Thus says the LORD to Shebna, master of the palace:

"I will thrust you from your office and pull you down from your station.

On that day I will summon my servant
Eliakim, son of Hilkiah;

I will clothe him with your robe,
and gird him with your sash,
and give over to him your authority.

He shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem,
and to the house of Judah.

I will place the key of the House of David on Eliakim's shoulder;

when he opens, no one shall shut,
when he shuts, no one shall open.

I will fix him like a peg in a sure spot,
to be a place of honor for his family."

Psalm

Psalm 138

Guimont

Refrain: Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands.

I thank you, Lord, with all my heart; you have heard the the words of my mouth.
In the presence of the angels I praise you. I bow down toward your holy temple. Ref.

I give thanks to your name for your merciful love and your faithfulness.
On the day I called, you answered me; you increased the strength of my soul. Ref.

The Lord is high, yet he looks on the lowly, and the haughty he knows from afar.
O Lord, your merciful love is eternal; discard not the work of your hands. Ref.

Second Reading

Romans 11:33-36

Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How inscrutable are his judgments and how unsearchable his ways!

For who has known the mind of the Lord or who has been his counselor?

Or who has given the Lord anything that he may be repaid?

For from him and through him and for him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

Haugen

You are Peter and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it.

Gospel

Matthew 16:13-20

Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi and he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus said to him in reply, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." Then he strictly ordered his disciples to tell no one that he was the Christ.

Offertory Song

Eye Has Not Seen

Haugen

When pain and sorry weigh us down, be near to us, O Lord;
Forgive the weakness of our faith, and bear us up within your peaceful word. Ref.

Our lives are but a single breath, we flower and we fade, yet all our days are in your hands, so we return in love what love has made. Ref.

To those who see with eyes of faith, the Lord is ever near, reflected in the faces of all the poor and lowly of the world. Ref.

We sing a myst'ry from the past in halls where saints have trod, yet ever new the music rings to Jesus, Living Song of God.

7th Annual Catholic Immigration Summit

Come join fellow Catholics as we listen, learn, and celebrate ways to be a place of refuge for our brothers and sisters fleeing war, persecution, climate change, and violence. On the recent anniversary of his visit to Lampedusa, Pope Francis urged us to reflect on the question “Where is Your Brother?” and to see everyone who knocks on our door as “worthy of love, acceptance, and every care.” Considering the enduring plight of migrants, Pope Francis called for renewed solidarity. This follows National Migration Week and World Day of Migrants and Refugees (September 18-24).
