A Message from Fr. Chris

Dear Friends,

Last Sunday I announced to you the Partners in the Gospel proposal for us to consider: joining with St. Therese parish to make one parish family. You might have some questions. Let me see if I can offer some information that will be of help.

First, let me assure you that Fr. Matthew and I will continue here at St. Joseph's. We will not change our tradition or mission as a Jesuit parish. Deacon Steve will also remain (for which I say: Amen!).

Once the final decision about parish family groupings is made, and the Archbishop has approved and announced them in early January, we will be in conversation and discernment with our fellow parishioners of St. Therese Parish.

Things that we will need to discuss with our partners at St. Therese as we begin to form one parish family:

- time and location of Masses and their music ministries
- location of parish offices
- how to blend staff, Parish Councils, Finance Councils, and Lay Leadership
- the best manner for our St Joseph School and St. Therese Academy to work together
- disposition of the various buildings and facilities

This is just the beginning, and you can see we have much to discuss as we gently move forward. One important thing that you can do in the meantime is to read the Partners in the Gospel Frequently Asked Questions. (Scan the QR code below for the FAQ.) These make the timeline clear (the process is a matter of years, not months) and clarify what a parish family is and is not (i.e. this is not the same as one parish simply closing).

Again, it is important for us to be clear that all this is a proposal. Something for thought and consideration and discernment. To that end we will have synodal-type listening/input sessions on Zoom at 7pm on September 28th and at the parish on Sunday, October 1st at 2pm. (steve@stjosephparish.org for Zoom info.)

In this process we are in the act of living out our discipleship in practical and meaningful ways. All the church in Western Washington must consider the best and most effective ways to live and teach the gospel. I am personally excited for us and for the Archdiocese. I look forward to working with you and the folks of St. Therese in the months ahead.

Blessings,

Fr. Chris

First Reading

Jeremiah 20:7-9

You duped me, O LORD, and I let myself be duped;
you were too strong for me, and you triumphed.
All the day I am an object of laughter;
everyone mocks me.

Whenever I speak, I must cry out,
violence and outrage is my message;

the word of the LORD has brought me
derision and reproach all the day.

I say to myself, I will not mention him,
I will speak in his name no more.
But then it becomes like fire burning in my heart,
imprisoned in my bones;
I grow weary holding it in, I cannot endure it.

As a deer longs for running streams, so my soul yearns for you, my God, the living God. When shall I see your face? Ref.

Deep within the heart of my soul God's love will be with me.
I will sing to you, sing praise to you; you, the God of my life. Ref.

Thus these things I remember at night as I pour out my soul.
In the shadow of your wings I sing, "Trust, hope in God." Ref.

For your love is much better than life; my lips will speak your praise.
So I will bless your name always; to you I lift my hands. Ref.

Second Reading

Romans 12:1-2

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship. Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect.

Gospel

Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer greatly from the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised. Then Peter took Jesus aside and began to rebuke him, "God forbid, Lord! No such thing shall ever happen to you." He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are an obstacle to me. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life? For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct."

Homily Theresa Shepherd-Lukasik, Director of Faith Formation

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

All bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Song Looking Through the Eyes of God

Ash

Our offertory song today was inspired by the life and work of Deacon Katharine Maurer of the Methodist church, who ministered to immigrants and those detained for years on Angel Island in the San Francisco Harbor during the first half of the 20th century. Many of those detained there were from Japan, China and the Pacific Islands. The refrain is also sung in Japanese.

The musical notation is written on three staves. The first staff has a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 4/4 time signature. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes. Below the staff, the lyrics are written in English and Japanese. The second staff continues the melody and lyrics. The third staff shows a single note followed by a long horizontal line, indicating a sustained sound or a specific musical instruction.

Be a sanctuary for the lost, those who seek, those in sorrow;
listen to their stories and their pain, you will know the face of God. Ref.

In the midst of sorry be a light in the dark, in the suffering;
welcome all who seek a better home, you will make a home for God. Ref.

And with all your heart be joyful; you will show the love of God. Ref.
