Partners in the Gospel: Feedback & FAQs

Thank you to everyone who participated in the two Partners in the Gospel listening sessions last week! We were blessed to come together, listen to one another and the Holy Spirit, and contribute to the feedback that will continue to shape the proposed parish family pairings. Please know that if you were not able to attend one of the sessions, you are encouraged to submit an input form as an individual at: <https://archseattle.org/for-parishes/forparishespartners/partners-public-comment/>

FAQ: Who is leading this process?

Partners in the Gospel Core Team is comprised of co-leads Father Gary Lazzeroni, Vicar General and Caitlin Moulding, Chief Operations Officer, and 10 other lay leaders.

Oversight Committee is a diverse group of priests, lay leaders, a religious sister, a deacon, and superintendent of Catholic Schools.

Presbyteral Council is made up of priests (including Fr. Chris!), including those elected by each of the 10 deaneries, who advise and consult with Archbishop Etienne.

Parish family liaisons, who will be hired and trained by the Archdiocese of Seattle, will support parish families in the process of becoming one parish.

PartnersEdge is a research consulting firm that has helped other dioceses work through similar planning efforts.

You — we are asking for feedback and input from all Catholics in the Archdiocese of Seattle in Fall 2023. We are also asking for everyone's prayers for this effort.

You can find the complete list of Frequently Asked Questions here: <https://archseattle.org/wp-content/uploads/2023/07/Partners-in-the-Gospel-QA-updated-July-2023-English-min.pdf>

First Reading

Isaiah 5:1-7

Let me now sing of my friend,
my friend's song concerning his vineyard.
My friend had a vineyard
on a fertile hillside;
he spaded it, cleared it of stones,
and planted the choicest vines;
within it he built a watchtower,
and hewed out a wine press.
Then he looked for the crop of grapes,
but what it yielded was wild grapes.

Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah,
judge between me and my vineyard:
What more was there to do for my vineyard
that I had not done?

Why, when I looked for the crop of grapes,
did it bring forth wild grapes?
Now, I will let you know
what I mean to do with my vineyard:
take away its hedge, give it to grazing,
break through its wall, let it be trampled!

Yes, I will make it a ruin:
it shall not be pruned or hoed,
but overgrown with thorns and briers;
I will command the clouds
not to send rain upon it.
The vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel,
and the people of Judah are his cherished plant;
he looked for judgment, but see, bloodshed!
for justice, but hark, the outcry!

Psalm

Psalm 80

Guimont

The vine-yard of the Lord is the house of Is - ra - el.

You brought a vine out of Egypt; you drove out the nations and planted it.
It stretched out its branches to the sea; to the River it stretched out its shoots. Ref.

Then why have you broken down its walls? It is plucked by all who pass by the way.
It is ravaged by the boar of the forest, devoured by the beasts of the field. Ref.

God of hosts, turn again, we implore; look down from heaven and see.
Visit this vine and protect it, the vine your right hand has planted, the son of man you have claimed for yourself. Ref.

And we shall never forsake you again; give us life that we may call upon your name.
O LORD God of hosts, bring us back; let your face shine forth, and we shall be saved. Ref.

Second Reading

Philippians 4:6-9

Brothers and sisters: Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me. Then the God of peace will be with you.

Gospel Acclamation

O'Carroll/Walker

I have chosen you from the world, says the Lord, to go and bear fruit that will remain.

Gospel

Matthew 21:33-43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: "Hear another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a tower. Then he leased it to tenants and went on a journey. When vintage time drew near, he sent his servants to the tenants to obtain his produce. But the tenants seized the servants and one they beat, another they killed, and a third they stoned. Again he sent other servants, more numerous than the first ones, but they treated them in the same way. Finally, he sent his son to them, thinking, 'They will respect my son.' But when the tenants saw the son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and acquire his inheritance.' They seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What will the owner of the vineyard do to those tenants when he comes?" They answered him, "He will put those wretched men to a wretched death and lease his vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the proper times." Jesus said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures:

*"The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;
by the Lord has this been done,
and it is wonderful in our eyes?"*

"Therefore, I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit."

Homily

Chris Cartwright, S.J.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Pilgrimage of Peace

A JOURNEY TO JAPAN FOR NUCLEAR DISARMAMENT

PRESENTER: JIM THOMAS,
ST. JOE'S
PARISHIONER

October 26th - 7pm
St. Joseph Parish Center

St. Joe's parishioner Jim Thomas accompanied Archbishops Paul Etienne and John Wester (Santa Fe) on their Pilgrimage of Peace to Hiroshima and Nagasaki, Japan, for August's commemoration of the atomic bombings. On Thursday, October 26, at 7:00 pm, Jim will give a presentation on this grace-filled journey.

About Jim Thomas: Jim has more than forty years experience on nuclear weapons issues including a walking pilgrimage to Bethlehem (1982-1983) and uncovering the secrets of the Hanford plutonium factory. While at Gonzaga University, his master's thesis examined the morality of nuclear deterrence. He is the author of the forthcoming memoir Atomic Pilgrim: How a 6700-mile Walk Helped Me Find Peace and Uncover Long-Held Secrets about Nuclear Weapons Production.

5:00pm Doors & Appetizers / 6:00pm Dinner & Program

The Foundation for Philippine Progress, Inc. is excited to welcome our community to a special evening aimed at striking a sense of Filipino pride and love for the Philippines. An authentic kundiman guitar ensemble of renowned local guitarists will greet arriving guests with the familiar renditions of nostalgic kundiman songs. Guests will enjoy a sumptuous line of traditional and contemporary Filipino cuisine prepared by Portland's coterie of culinary artists - from appetizers to the main dishes to desserts.

As the evening crowd enjoys their dinner while being serenaded by kundiman masterpieces, prepare to be a witness to FPP's stories about our mission and impact for the past five years. Join us as we share what lies ahead in fulfilling FPP's pillars in education, health, and human rights. Silent and live auction, Filipino dessert showcase, signature drinks, and more surprises await you.

Learn more and reserve your seats at tinyurl.com/FPPgala

To sponsor this event or for more information, please contact Rossella DeLeon at ask@philippineprogress.org

An invitation from parishioner Rogelio Rigor:

To my dear co-parishioners, the Foundation for Philippine Progress is a non-profit organization based in Portland, Oregon that extends vital and critical aid to the Philippines during times of calamities and weather-related devastations. Working along with other homegrown and national relief organizations, we have been doing this for the past five years and foresee more as climate change continues to wreak havoc especially among remote villages of farmers and fishermen.

This October 22nd marks our 5th year with a Gala fundraising evening in Portland. I am extending an invitation for folks to our gala, but I am aware that it's a long haul to Portland. However, in true Ignatian spirit, I look forward to your support, perhaps as a recurring or a one-time, gala evening donor. As the Chair of the Board and on behalf of the Foundation, thank you in advance for your prayers and generous gesture of love and compassion. Simply visit philippineprogress.org for more about us.

CHILDREN'S FAITH FORMATION

Primary School Faith Formation Classes

Sunday School CFF classes for grades 1-6 have open registration now through late September! Classes begin mid-October and run through May, for three Sundays each month. Sign up today!

CFF 1 The first year of the Sacramental Preparation for First Reconciliation and First Communion. Children are usually in 1st grade or at a minimum, age 6. CFF 1 introduces students to scripture, prayer, Reconciliation, and Eucharist. Successful completion of CFF 1 is a requirement for CFF 2.

CFF 2 The second year of the Sacramental Preparation for First Reconciliation and First Communion. This year continues to build upon the foundation set in CFF 1. In addition to classes meeting three Sundays a month, children and parents will work through at home materials and attend workshops to prepare for Reconciliation and First Communion.

CFF 3 / 4 This class combines grades 3 and 4. Students will discuss God as Trinity, Community, Church, Sacraments, Morality, Liturgical Year, and continue to develop a relationship with God through Jesus.

CFF 5 / 6 This class combines grades 5 and 6. Students will continue to develop themselves as Catholics and reflect on how Scripture pertains to each of us today. Discussion will focus on themes from Breakthrough! The Bible for Young Catholics. Students will dedicate one year to the Old Testament and one year to the New Testament.

Volunteer for Children's Faith Formation

The Faith Formation Program needs a strong team of teachers! This vibrant and critical ministry is only successful with help from volunteers. The curriculum and students are ready, and no prior teaching experience is needed.

The more volunteers we can count on, the stronger our programs serving the children and families of our parish. Contact Meredith Wright (meredithw@stjosephparish.org) or Theresa Shepherd Lukasik (theresal@stjosephparish.org) today to find out how you can put your Catholic faith and practical skills to use in Children's ministry. Volunteer hours in CFF Programs apply to the required SJS volunteer hours.

Confirmation Prep - Enrolling Now!

It's that time of year again! Sign up for Confirmation preparation classes! All rising 7th graders or youth ages 13-15 who have previously received the sacraments of Baptism and First Eucharist (First Holy Communion) are welcome to sign up. Registration is open now. Classes will begin in fall 2023 and will run through spring 2024. To register, visit our website: www.stjosephparish.org/middle-school
