Dear Friends,

Whew! Last week was a very lively time for the Church! I'm not writing about the Synod happening in Rome, which is an important moment for us all. Rather right here in St. Joe's we were quite active with holy purpose.

Wednesday, feast of St. Francis of Assisi, we blessed the animals (live and stuffed-toy!) of our school children. At 8:30 in the morning the children filled the church with a very large number of dogs, some cats, I saw one rabbit, a guinea pig and more. Then in the evening we blessed a good number of dogs and cats and other critters on the plaza outside the church. There were many happy faces and good feelings as we thanked God for our four-footed companions.

Friday we celebrated a Mass of Anointing with about 70 senior parishioners and provided a hearty lunch for them in the Parish Center. This was our first luncheon after the summer hiatus and everyone was glad for the return of good food and fellowship.

Saturday saw the celebration of a wedding in the afternoon; always a joyous event. The day concluded with our usual 3:30pm confessions and 5:00pm Mass.

Sunday was a blow-out of activity. 9:00am Mass included the baptism of 3 new Catholics welcomed into the Body of Christ. Children's Faith Formation followed Mass, along with Confirmation class. 11:00am Mass also included baptism for 3 happy infants and their families. We held our "Know Before You Go" workshop at 12:30pm. Our LGBTQ+ organizers held an afternoon meeting and the day finished with 5:30 Mass.

Yes, our parish is a thriving, busy place!!! Thank you one and all for your presence and enthusiasm for this great work of the earthly Kingdom of God!

Fr. Chris

First Reading

Isaiah 25:6-10a

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will provide for all peoples
a feast of rich food and choice wines, juicy, rich food and pure, choice wines.
On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples,
the web that is woven over all nations;
he will destroy death forever.

The Lord GOD will wipe away
the tears from every face;
the reproach of his people he will remove from the whole earth; for the LORD has spoken.
On that day it will be said:
"Behold our God, to whom we looked to save us!
This is the LORD for whom we looked;
let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!"
For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain.

Psalm

(5,9,11) Psalm 23

Pyles

You are my shepherd God, you are all I need.
You give me rest in green and pleasant fields. Ref.

You spread a table in the sight of my foes.
Anointing my head, my cup runs over. Ref.

You revive my life by finding fresh water.
You guide my ways with a Shepherd's care. Ref.

You tend me always with your loving care.
I dwell with you, God, as long as I shall live. Ref.

Though I should walk in death's dark valley,
I will fear no evil with you by your side, your staff to comfort me. Ref.

(5:30) Psalm 23

Haugen

God is my shepherd, so nothing shall I want; I rest in the meadows of faithfulness and love; I walk by the quiet waters of peace. Ref.

You have set me a banquet of love in the face of hatred, crowning me with love beyond my power to hold. Ref.

Gently you raise me and heal my weary soul; you lead me by pathways of righteousness and truth; my spirit shall sing the music of your name. Ref.

Surely your kindness and mercy follow me all the days of my life; I will dwell in the house of my God forever-more. Ref.

Though I should wander the valley of death, I fear no evil, for you are at my side; your rod and your staff, my comfort and my hope. Ref.

Second Reading

Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

Brothers and sisters: I know how to live in humble circumstances; I know also how to live with abundance. In every circumstance and in all things I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry, of living in abundance and of being in need. I can do all things in him who strengthens me. Still, it was kind of you to share in my distress. My God will fully supply whatever you need, in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus. To our God and Father, glory forever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

O'Carroll/Walker

May the Father of our Lord enlighten the eyes of our hearts, so that we may know the hope that is our call.

Gospel

Matthew 22:1-14

Jesus again in reply spoke to the chief priests and elders of the people in parables, saying, "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who gave a wedding feast for his son. He dispatched his servants to summon the invited guests to the feast, but they refused to come. A second time he sent other servants, saying, 'Tell those invited: "Behold, I have prepared my banquet, my calves and fattened cattle are killed, and everything is ready; come to the feast."' Some ignored the invitation and went away, one to his farm, another to his business. The rest laid hold of his servants, mistreated them, and killed them. The king was enraged and sent his troops, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city. Then he said to his servants, 'The feast is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy to come. Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.' The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike, and the hall was filled with guests. But when the king came in to meet the guests, he saw a man there not dressed in a wedding garment. The king said to him, 'My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?' But he was reduced to silence. Then the king said to his attendants, 'Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.' Many are invited, but few are chosen."

Homily

Matthew Pyrc, S.J.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Songs (5,11) Bread of Life from Heaven

Bread of life from hea-ven, your blood and bo - dy giv-en, we eat this bread and drink this cup un - til you come a - gain.

Break now the bread of Christ's sacrifice; giving thanks, hungry ones, gather round. Eat, all of you, and be satisfied; in Christ's presence the loaves will abound. Ref.

Seek not the food that will pass away; set your hearts on the food that endures. Come, learn the true and the living Way, that the fullness of life may be yours. Ref.

Love as the One who, in love for you, gave himself for the life of the world. Come to the One who is food for you, that your hunger and thirst be no more. Ref.

Take in the light that will never dim, taste the life that is stronger than death. Live in the One who will come and then raise you up at the last with the blest. Ref.

Dwell in the One who now dwells in you; make your home in the life-giving Word. Know only Christ, Holy One of God, and believe in the truth you have heard. Ref.

Drink of this cup and declare his death; eat this bread and believe Easter morn; Trust his return and, with ev'ry breath, praise the One in whom you are reborn. Ref.

Wednesdays, October 18, 25, November 1, 8, 7pm-8:30pm
St. James Cathedral Pastoral Outreach Center, 907 Columbia Street

In this four-week series, DR. JUDITH MAYOTTE guides participants into a deeper exploration of the themes that spring forth from Laudato Si', Pope Francis' encyclical on right relationship with all that God has created.

- Week 1 In the Great Commandment and the story of the Good Samaritan, we reflect on the nature of Neighbor-Love – and caring for creation.
- Week 2 Many must “pick up their life and take it with them” in a vast migration as human lifestyles tilt Earth beyond its capacity to sustain life for all.
- Week 3 “Hear the cry of the Earth and the cry of the Poor.” As architects of our lifestyles and the economic systems that support our lifestyles, how can we enable an economy based on Earth’s ecological capacity?
- Week 4 Radical change is needed in the way we live on our Earth home. We can write a new story of our relation with nature so the Earth, humans and other-than-humans can flourish together sustainably and peacefully.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER DR. JUDITH MAYOTTE is a humanitarian, author and spokesperson for refugees worldwide, particularly those displaced by climate change. She is the recipient of a MacArthur Foundation Grant, served in the Clinton Administration, and chaired the Women’s Refugee Commission.

Mass for the Deceased Homeless

You are invited to gather at St. James Cathedral on Thursday, November 9, 2023, at 5:30 pm for Mass in memory of the homeless men, women, and children who died in shelters, hospitals, on the streets or by violence in our community this past year.

Please join us to honor their memory, to celebrate their lives, and to pray for them. Father Ryan will preside at the Mass.
All are welcome to bring an offering of winter hats, gloves, and scarves to be distributed to those in need.

St. James Cathedral is located at 9th and Marion on First Hill in Downtown Seattle.
