A Note from Fr. Chris

Dear Friends,

Last weekend the new parish families of Partners In the Gospel were announced. (You can go to the Archdiocese of Seattle website, "Partners" section to see all the new families.) The announcement told us that we shall be joined with St. Therese parish, as we anticipated.

As we look forward, we need to see ourselves on a journey with God leading us. Making a parish family with the people of St. Therese is not just our work, it is God's plan of action.

We will need to have a spirit of discernment among ourselves and with them. Listening carefully to one another will be a critical component. Caring for one another and drawing one another towards the service of the Gospel, together, has been and will remain our most important task and goal.

I am looking forward to joining our new partners, St. Therese parishioners, much as we did with the folks from St. Patrick's. I love the strengthening bonds of friendship we are growing day by day. Echoing the thoughts of St. Paul, Archbishop Etienne wrote to us: "We need every member of the Church to share their God-given gifts to build up the Body of Christ."

Archbishop Etienne also wrote these words to us: "I pray the Holy Spirit continues to grace us with openness, strength, and courage to live into our future together. Please be assured of my continued prayers for you, and please pray for me and for our Catholic Church in Western Washington."

I look forward to working together with all of you as we do our best to fulfill God's desire that we be one.

Fr Chris

Partners in the Gospel

The final parish families have been announced by Archbishop Etienne. As expected, and unchanged from previous public drafts, St. Joe's is paired with St. Therese Parish.

First Reading

Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "If someone has on his skin a scab or pustule or blotch which appears to be the sore of leprosy, he shall be brought to Aaron, the priest, or to one of the priests among his descendants. If the man is leprous and unclean, the priest shall declare him unclean by reason of the sore on his head.

"The one who bears the sore of leprosy shall keep his garments rent and his head bare, and shall muffle his beard; he shall cry out, 'Unclean, unclean!' As long as the sore is on him he shall declare himself unclean, since he is in fact unclean. He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp."

Psalms

Psalm 32

Cooney

Happy is he whose sin is forgiven, whose fault is taken away.

Happy is she whom God shall find of an innocent heart, in whose soul there is no guile. Ref.

I kept my sin held deep in my soul, and my frame was wasted away.

Night and day was your hand a weight upon my heart: I was weak, wracked with fever and alone. Ref.

Then I acknowledged the pain of my sin, and my guilt I covered not.

I said I confess my fault unto you, and you took away the guilt of my sin. Ref.

Oh, be glad in our God; exult, you just; rejoice, all you upright of heart. Ref.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1

Brothers and sisters, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God. Avoid giving offense, whether to the Jews or Greeks or the church of God, just as I try to please everyone in every way, not seeking my own benefit but that of the many, that they may be saved. Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

Gospel Acclamation

Haugen

A great prophet has risen in our midst, and God has visited the people.

Gospel

Mark 1:40-45

A leper came to Jesus and kneeling down begged him and said, "If you wish, you can make me clean." Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. Then, warning him sternly, he dismissed him at once.

He said to him, "See that you tell no one anything, but go, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses prescribed; that will be proof for them."

The man went away and began to publicize the whole matter. He spread the report abroad so that it was impossible for Jesus to enter a town openly. He remained outside in deserted places, and people kept coming to him from everywhere.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true
God,

begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

All bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead

and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.
