A Note from Fr. Chris

Dear Friends,

Last Sunday I suggested that you be a good student of Jesus. Study him, learn from him.

I also suggested some homework! Read a gospel. Mark's is a good start as it is the shortest and is the one we are using in our liturgies most of the liturgical year. (Except that during Lent we are using other gospels each week.)

There are other resources that you might also enjoy as helpful websites that can assist your spiritual life. They are related to Jesuit ministries, and these are just a few of what is available.

Study! Enjoy learning and leaning into your place at Christ's side.

Blessings,

Fr. Chris

First Reading

Exodus 17:3-7

In those days, in their thirst for water, the people grumbled against Moses, saying, "Why did you ever make us leave Egypt? Was it just to have us die here of thirst with our children and our livestock?" So Moses cried out to the LORD, "What shall I do with this people? A little more and they will stone me!" The LORD answered Moses, "Go over there in front of the people, along with some of the elders of Israel, holding in your hand, as you go, the staff with which you struck the river. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock in Horeb. Strike the rock, and the water will flow from it for the people to drink." This Moses did, in the presence of the elders of Israel. The place was called Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled there and tested the LORD, saying, "Is the LORD in our midst or not?"

Psalm

Psalm 63

Harbour

O God, you are my God whom I seek; for you my flesh pines and my soul thirsts like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water. Ref.

Thus have I gazed toward you in the sanctuary to see your power and your glory, for your kindness is a greater good than life; my lips shall glorify you. Ref.

Thus will I bless you while I live; lifting up my hands, I will call upon your name. As with the riches of a banquet shall my soul be satisfied, and with exultant lips my mouth shall praise you. Ref.

You are my help, and in the shadow of your wings I shout for joy. My soul clings fast to you; your right hand upholds me. Ref.

Second Reading

Romans 5:1-2, 5-8

Brothers and sisters: Since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God.

And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. For Christ, while we were still helpless, died at the appointed time for the ungodly. Indeed, only with difficulty does one die for a just person, though perhaps for a good person one might even find courage to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.

Gospel Acclamation

Walker

*Lord, you are truly the Savior of the world.
Give me living water, give me living water that I may never thirst again.*

Gospel Reading (11am): Woman at the Well - proclaimed by Vallimar Jansen

Gospel

John 4:5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42

Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there. Jesus, tired from his journey, sat down there at the well. It was about noon.

A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. The Samaritan woman said to him, "How can you, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" —For Jews use nothing in common with Samaritans.— Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God and who is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him and he would have given you living water." The woman said to him, "Sir, you do not even have a bucket and the cistern is deep; where then can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us this cistern and drank from it himself with his children and his flocks?" Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again; but whoever drinks the water I shall give will never thirst; the water I shall give will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life." The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water.

"I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain; but you people say that the place to worship is in Jerusalem." Jesus said to her, "Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You people worship what you do not understand; we worship what we understand, because salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when true worshipers will worship the Father in Spirit and truth; and indeed the Father seeks such people to worship him. God is Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in Spirit and truth." The woman said to him, "I know that the Messiah is coming, the one called the Christ; when he comes, he will tell us everything." Jesus said to her, "I am he, the one who is speaking with you."

Many of the Samaritans of that town began to believe in him. When the Samaritans came to him, they invited him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days. Many more began to believe in him because of his word, and they said to the woman, "We no longer believe because of your word; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the savior of the world."

March 3rd – Family Lenten Workshop

After the 9am Mass, meet up in the social hall for donuts, coffee, Lenten Conversation, and a fun family craft.
All are welcome!

Please bring a baby item for donations to WestSide Baby – diapers, wipes, formula, clothing, pacifiers, bibs, socks!
New items only please.

Tree of Hope for Our Sister Parish

This Lent, join in the Arbol de Esperanza – Tree of Hope – to help raise funds for the senior citizen food program in Nueva Trinidad and college scholarships in Arcatao, both part of our Sister Parish in El Salvador, San Bartolome.

Deepen your Lenten experience and offer hope and joy to our siblings in San Bartolome (which includes the churches of Nueva Trinidad and Arcatao) by taking a tag from our “Tree of Hope” in the vestibule during Lent. We are hoping to raise $13,000 for DHP – Desarollo Humano Popular, or Popular Human Development, the fund started by St. Joe’s parishioners along with the San Bartolome community to help send students from the area to college in San Salvador. We’re also raising $10,000 for the senior citizen food security program in Nueva Trinidad.

It’s easy to help! You can take a tag from the tree and use the QR code to donate directly with your phone! Pay attention to the tag – there are tags for the DHP scholarships and tags for the Nueva Trinidad Senior Food program, each of which goes to a different fund.

To donate to the DHP Scholarship fund, you can simply visit the giving website - <https://pushpay.com/g/stjosephparishseattle> - and select the “Sister Parish” fund.

To donate to the Senior Food Program, visit www.keystoneseattle.org, scroll to the bottom of the page, click “Donate” and choose “Nueva Trinidad” from the options.

Email sisterparish@stjosephparish.org if you have any questions!

Rice Bowls are here! Pick up your very own Rice Bowl for Catholic Relief Services at Mass. Collections go towards relief services in over 100 countries, including current operations in Gaza. Part of the collection returns to local communities, as well! _ www.crsricebowl.org

Updates from the Asylum Accompaniment Team: Alvaro's Family is Coming to Seattle!

Did you know? The Asylum Accompaniment Team at St. Joe's, an innovative and nimble taskforce designed to assist our migrant neighbors in need, has been working with three families from Central and South America over the past year. The Team, a group of parishioners and migrant friends, has helped the families with housing, legal assistance, healthcare, and education. We couldn't do it without your support.

Our main focus over the past few months has been to reunify Alvaro Vargas, our friend from Nicaragua, with his family. Last week, we received word from US Citizenship and Immigration Service that his two daughters and their mother have been approved for Humanitarian Parole and travel to the United States!

Now, we need volunteers to help with the move (scheduled for a month or so from now) and additional funds to help with transitional costs. Can you help with either? Let us know! Email asylumteam@stjosephparish.org Thank you for your support!

Upcoming Parish Synodal Listening Sessions - March 17th & 18th

Make your voice heard! Join other parishioners from St. Joe's for one of two listening sessions as we continue the Synodal Process. These sessions are designed as "interim" sessions to continue the conversations we began last year in preparation for the global synod, which continues on.

We will synthesize these conversations, then send a report to the Archdiocese, which will create their own report and send it to the Vatican.

There are two options: March 17th, 12:30pm at the Parish Center, or March 18th, 7pm on Zoom. Email Deacon Steve - stevew@stjosephparish.org - for the Zoom link for March 18th.
