Thank you to all those who have made a gift to the 2024 Annual Catholic Appeal. If you have not yet made your gift, please consider the message sent from our pastor in support of the Annual Catholic Appeal. For your convenience, use the envelope in the pew, scan the QR code, or go online to make a gift to the appeal. Consider pledging over multiple months to be able to give your best gift and help us reach our goal!

This year, our parish's goal is $174,000, compared to last year's goal of $157,000. Please prayerfully consider how you can participate in helping our parish be a light to others. Use the envelope in the pew, scan the QR code, or visit our website www.stjosephparish.org to give today. Let us encourage each other to help make our ministries a success!

First Reading

Acts 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48

When Peter entered, Cornelius met him and, falling at his feet, paid him homage. Peter, however, raised him up, saying, "Get up. I myself am also a human being."

Then Peter proceeded to speak and said, "In truth, I see that God shows no partiality. Rather, in every nation whoever fears him and acts uprightly is acceptable to him."

While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the word. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter responded, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have?" He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

Psalm

Psalm 98

McWalter-Huff

Sing praise to the Lord with harp and song, with trumpet and the sound of the horn.
Sing joyfully, sing joyfully before the King the Lord. Ref.

Let the sea and earth resound and all who dwell on earth;
let the rivers clap their hands, the mountains shout for joy. Ref.

Before the Lord shout for joy, for he comes to rule the earth;
he will rule the world with justice and all with equity. Ref.

Second Reading

1 John 4:7-10

Beloved, let us love one another, because love is of God; everyone who loves is begotten by God and knows God. Whoever is without love does not know God, for God is love. In this way the love of God was revealed to us: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him. In this is love: not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as expiation for our sins.

Gospel Acclamation

Ash

If you love me, hold to my words; God will love you, and we'll come to you.

Gospel

John 15:9-17

Jesus said to his disciples: "As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love.

"I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and your joy might be complete. This is my commandment: love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father. It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another."

Homily 5pm Matthew Pyrc, S.J. - 9,11,& 5:30 Chris Cartwright, S.J.

Communion Songs

We Come to your Feast

Joncas

Refrain

We come to your feast, we come to your feast: the young and the old, the fright-ened, the bold, the great-est and the least. We come to your feast, we come to your feast with the fruit of our lands and the work of our hands, we come to your feast.

We place upon your table a gleaming cloth of white: the weaving of our stories, the fabric of our lives; the dreams of those before us, the ancient hopeful cries, the promise of our future: our needing and our nurture lie here before our eyes. Ref.

We place upon your table a humble loaf of bread: the gift of field and hillside, the grain by which we're fed; we come to taste the presence of him on whom we feed, to strengthen and connect us, to challenge and correct us, to love in word and deed. Ref.

We place upon your table a simple cup of wine: the fruit of human labor, the gift of sun and vine; we come to taste the presence of him we claim as Lord, his dying and his living, his leading and his giving, his love in cup outpoured. Ref.

We gather 'round your table, we pause within our quest, we stand beside our neighbors, we name the stranger "guest." The feast is spread before us; you bid us come and dine: in blessing we'll uncover, in sharing we'll discover your substance and your sign. Ref.

The final chapter of Denise Levertov's remarkable poetic journey (1923-1997) unfolded in Seattle, where she moved in 1989. That same year she also entered the Catholic Church and several years later she engaged in a six-month process of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola under the direction of a Northwest Province Jesuit, Fr. Lee Kapfer, S.J.

Born in London into a Jewish-Christian family, she is recognized as one of the greatest American poets of the post-WWII generation. Her poetry reveals deep political passions in the causes of peacemaking, racial and social justice, and care for the earth, along with a profound interreligious spirituality from which she wrote some of the finest Christian poetry in the English language since Gerard Manley Hopkins.

Kevin F. Burke, S.J., grew up in Wyoming and after entering the Society of Jesus, taught at Weston Jesuit School of Theology in Cambridge, Massachusetts, before becoming Dean of the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, California. He currently serves as Professor of Theology and Vice President of University Mission at Regis University in Denver, Colorado. The author or editor of seven books, including the first book-length examination of the liberation theology of the Salvadoran Jesuit martyr, Ignacio Ellacuría, S.J., he is currently completing a book tentatively entitled Opening the Doors of the World: Theology in the Poetry of Denise Levertov.

Communion for the Homebound and Senior Living

One of the essential ministries that we provide for parishioners is the ability to receive the Eucharist at home or in senior living facilities, when there is an inability to attend Mass. In this ministry we often bring the presence of Christ not just in the Eucharist, but in company, prayer and fellowship.

If you are interested in helping with this ministry, we will provide training, a pyx, and a guide. Safe Environment Training and background checks are required for this ministry.

Rice Bowls for CRS - Thank You!

A huge thank you to everyone who supported our collection for Catholic Relief Services Rice Bowl. With a special shout out to Mr. Kramer and his students - your support was fantastic! Without your help, we could never have raised so much.

We raised $5,583.93 towards ending food insecurity worldwide and in our community. 25% of all donations to Rice Bowl in our Archdiocese will stay in our community. Programs right here at St. Joe's have benefitted from these grants, like our Community Fridge, Asylum Assistance Fund, and other Outreach programs.

Each Lent, Catholic families across the country unite to put their faith into action through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Through CRS Rice Bowl, families learn about how our sisters and brothers across the globe overcome hardships like hunger and climate change, and how through Lenten alms, we have the power to make the world a better place for all.

Donation Drive for Migrants - Thank You!

Thank you to everyone who donated supplies for our migrant neighbors living in the camp at Riverton United Methodist Church in Tukwila. We filled a van with hundreds of pounds of supplies and delivered boxes of food, clothes, diapers, and other essentials last week!

Thank you for showing that this community cares about our neighbors in need!
