First Reading

2 Kings 4:42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah bringing to Elisha, the man of God, twenty barley loaves made from the first-fruits, and fresh grain in the ear. Elisha said, "Give it to the people to eat." But his servant objected, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" Elisha insisted, "Give it to the people to eat. For thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and there shall be some left over.'" And when they had eaten, there was some left over, as the LORD had said.

Psalm

Psalm 145

Ash

The hand of the Lord feeds all of us; God answers all our needs. The hand of the Lord feeds all of us; God answers all our needs.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love.

How good is the Lord to all creatures, compassionate to all. Ref.

The eyes of all creatures look to you, and you give to them their food in good time.

You open wide your hand and grant the desires of all who live. Ref.

The Lord is just in every way; the Lord is loving in every deed.

The Lord is close to all who call, who call from within their hearts. Ref.

Second Reading

Ephesians 4:1-6

Brothers and sisters: I, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

Gospel

John 6:1-15

Jesus went across the Sea of Galilee. A large crowd followed him, because they saw the signs he was performing on the sick. Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he sat down with his disciples. The Jewish feast of Passover was near. When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip, "Where can we buy enough food for them to eat?" He said this to test him, because he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Two hundred days' wages worth of food would not be enough for each of them to have a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Jesus said, "Have the people recline." Now there was a great deal of grass in that place. So the men reclined, about five thousand in number. Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. When they had had their fill, he said to his disciples, "Gather the fragments left over, so that nothing will be wasted." So they collected them, and filled twelve wicker baskets with fragments from the five barley loaves that had been more than they could eat. When the people saw the sign he had done, they said, "This is truly the Prophet, the one who is to come into the world." Since Jesus knew that they were going to come and carry him off to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain alone.

79TH Anniversary Of The Bombing Of Hiroshima And Nagasaki

As part of our 9:00 and 11:00 Masses on August 4th, we will be bringing awareness to the 79th Anniversary of the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki memorialized on August 6th and affirming church teaching that calls for peace, nonviolence and nuclear disarmament. Our newly formed Pax Christi group at St. Joe's will be present at the two Masses and will take the Pax Christi vow of nonviolence after communion. They will also be available in the Narthex after Mass to share information about Pax Christi and our plans for the coming year.

Here is the Vow of Nonviolence for your consideration and personal use:

VOW OF NONVIOLENCE

Recognizing the violence in my own heart, yet trusting in the goodness and mercy of God, I vow to practice the nonviolence of Jesus who taught us in the Sermon on the Mount:

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the sons and daughters of God...You have learned how it was said, 'You must love your neighbor and hate your enemy,' but I say to you, 'Love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you. In this way, you will be daughters and sons of your Creator in heaven.'"

- by striving for peace within myself and seeking to be a peacemaker in my daily life;
- by refusing to retaliate in the face of provocation and violence; by persevering in nonviolence of tongue and heart;
- by living conscientiously and simply so that I do not deprive others of the means to live;
- by actively resisting evil and working nonviolently to abolish war and the causes of war from my own heart and from the face of the earth.

God, I trust in Your sustaining love and believe that just as You gave me the grace and desire to offer this, so You will also bestow abundant grace to fulfill it. Amen.

The Vow of Nonviolence has been taken by tens of thousands since it was composed by Eileen Egan and Rev. John Dear for Pax Christi USA in the 1980s

We're always grateful for easy-to-eat snacks like cheese, fruit, and crackers for the fridge. It's open 24/7 - take what you need, leave what you can!

St. Martin de Porres Saturday Night Dinners

For years St. Joseph's has provided dinner every Saturday night to the residents at Martin de Porres. The THIRD Saturday of the month needs a few more volunteers.

*Can you donate a case of bananas for the meal? You would be on a rotation with two others. The bananas can be delivered to the church vestibule any time during the week before the 3rd Saturday.

*The meal is picked up from the church vestibule on the 3rd Saturday around 4:00 by two volunteers. They each make a stop at a specific McDonalds to pick up the prepaid hamburgers. One driver goes to Martin de Porres, the other goes to Junction Point. Depending on traffic it takes about 1 ½ to 2 hours

If you are interested and would like more information please contact me.

Thank you,
