Dear Friends,

Our two schools, St. Joseph School and St. Therese Academy, begin a new academic year in the coming days (August 28 and September 3 respectively.). Both campuses will be bubbling with excitement, and perhaps a bit of anxiety, as the children meet new teachers and staff, meet old and new classmates, anticipate a year ahead of challenges and triumphs.

The education of our children has long been an esteemed value and ministry of our Catholic tradition and dearly important to the Jesuit Order. Our two campuses are the largest ministry of the parishes, serving the largest portion of parishioners in a year's long labor of love.

At home and in the classroom, the school yard, the lunchroom and the church we share with our children faith and values. Character is shaped, integrity and nobility are taught so that we might give them a chance for a life of meaningfulness, of Christ-centered disposition. We have an opportunity to help them feel and develop into women and men who will give our world Godly grace – because their lives are lived in Godly grace.

Let's remember the many families, teachers, administrators, staff and friends, and the children themselves, in our prayers and hopes this year. Children have been given to us by God. It is no small responsibility of ours to fulfill for the sake of our little ones.

Blessings,

Fr. Chris

First Reading

Joshua 24:1-2a, 15-17, 18b

Joshua gathered together all the tribes of Israel at Shechem, summoning their elders, their leaders, their judges, and their officers. When they stood in ranks before God, Joshua addressed all the people: "If it does not please you to serve the LORD, decide today whom you will serve, the gods your fathers served beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites in whose country you are now dwelling. As for me and my household, we will serve the LORD."

But the people answered, "Far be it from us to forsake the LORD for the service of other gods. For it was the LORD, our God, who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, out of a state of slavery. He performed those great miracles before our very eyes and protected us along our entire journey and among the peoples through whom we passed. Therefore we also will serve the LORD, for he is our God."

Psalm

(9&11) Psalm 34

Lynch

Refrain: Taste and see the goodness of the Lord; know the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, God's praise ever in my mouth.
Glory in the Lord forever, and the lowly will hear and be glad. Ref.

Glory in the Lord with me, let us together extol God's name.
I sought the Lord, who answered me and delivered me from all my fears. Ref.

Look to God that you might be radiant with joy, and your faces free from all shame. The Lord hears the suffering souls, and saves them from all distress. Ref.

(5:30) Psalm 34

Haugen

Taste and see the good-ness of the Lord, the good - ness of the Lord.

Second Reading

Ephesians 5:2a, 25-32

Brothers and sisters: Live in love, as Christ loved us. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ loved the church and handed himself over for her to sanctify her, cleansing her by the bath of water with the word, that he might present to himself the church in splendor, without spot or wrinkle or any such thing, that she might be holy and without blemish. So also husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself. For no one hates his own flesh but rather nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ does the church, because we are members of his body. For this reason a man shall leave his father and his mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. This is a great mystery, but I speak in reference to Christ and the church.

Gospel Acclamation

Haugen

Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life; you have the words of everlasting life.

Gospel

John 6:60-69

Many of Jesus' disciples who were listening said, "This saying is hard; who can accept it?" Since Jesus knew that his disciples were murmuring about this, he said to them, "Does this shock you? What if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the spirit that gives life, while the flesh is of no avail. The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and life. But there are some of you who do not believe." Jesus knew from the beginning the ones who would not believe and the one who would betray him. And he said, "For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by my Father."

As a result of this, many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him. Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?" Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."

Homily Profession of Faith

Mike Bayard, S.J.

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

All bow.

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,

All stand upright.

suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

- ♦ Are you, your spouse, a friend, or an acquaintance a member of another faith tradition but worship regularly here at St. Joseph's?
- ♦ Are you experiencing God's call in your life and seeking Baptism, Full Communion or Confirmation in the Catholic Church?
- ♦ If you are, please consider participating in the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults. OCIA / RCIA is an opportunity to explore your faith questions with others and learn what the Catholic Church teaches. It is a process of discernment and gradual conversion to become a full member of the Catholic Church through the sacraments.
- ♦ We begin with your faith journey, your questions about the faith, and if you discover that you want baptism, communion and confirmation, you will continue on in your journey toward becoming Catholic, but no commitment is required for the first few months of the journey.
