Reconciliation Tuesdays at St. Joe's

Dear Friends,

We begin a new month and move deeper into our Partnership with one another: St. Therese and St. Joseph parishes. We welcome Fr. Phil Boroughs, SJ to our family. He will begin this week and have an office in the St. Joseph Parish Center. Fr. Phil will be much needed help for our Masses and sacramental ministry. I know we will benefit from his wisdom, experience and deep understanding of Ignatian Spirituality.

Important Note regarding the 5pm Saturday Mass (and Confessions at St. Joseph Church) – we will not resume the Mass for a few more months. We need time to work out how we are able to fulfill the scheduling needs for priests.

Weekly Confession will continue to be available on Tuesdays 4:30-5:30 @ St. Joseph's.

Moving more deeply into our Partnership is going to lead us into a greater relationship with our parishes and members. The 'big question' we will be addressing is 'How can we become one parish?' There are many 'sub' questions that arise concerning when and where we will worship; how we will meet our staffing needs for ministries and programs; how will we unite ourselves in prayer, worship and service; what shall we do with the churches and other buildings on the four campuses of St. Mary, St. Therese, St. Patrick and St. Joseph? You can imagine the many more questions that these few represent!

To form ourselves into one parish family will not come about by decisions from the Archdiocese but by our own choosing and deciding. The bulletin and website each week present opportunities for joining parishioners of our parish family in a variety of activities. I urge you to make time to participate generously in several kinds of gatherings. When you see invitations for synodal gatherings, come. This is our time to listen and speak about our shared life as Catholics. Our future together is ours to create. Our collective voices and prayer will guide us towards shaping and creating us into one family.

More to tell you in the weeks ahead. Welcome to September!

Fr. Chris

First Reading

Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8

Moses said to the people: "Now, Israel, hear the statutes and decrees which I am teaching you to observe, that you may live, and may enter in and take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you. In your observance of the commandments of the LORD, your God, which I enjoin upon you, you shall not add to what I command you nor subtract from it. Observe them carefully, for thus will you give evidence of your wisdom and intelligence to the nations, who will hear of all these statutes and say, 'This great nation is truly a wise and intelligent people.' For what great nation is there that has gods so close to it as the LORD, our God, is to us whenever we call upon him? Or what great nation has statutes and decrees that are as just as this whole law which I am setting before you today?"

Psalm

Psalm 15

Lynch

One who walks blamelessly, one who does justice, one who thinks the truth in her heart and slanders not with her tongue. Ref.

Who harms not his sister or his brother or casts blame against his neighbor by whom the unworthy is despised while he honors those who fear the Lord. Ref.

Who does not take advantage of their neighbor and accepts no bribe against the innocent;
one who does these things shall never be disturbed. Ref.

Second Reading

James 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27

Dearest brothers and sisters: All good giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no alteration or shadow caused by change. He willed to give us birth by the word of truth that we may be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls.

Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves.

Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

Gospel Acclamation

Haugen

The Father willed to give us birth by the word of truth, that we may be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

Gospel

Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

When the Pharisees with some scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus, they observed that some of his disciples ate their meals with unclean, that is, unwashed, hands. —For the Pharisees and, in fact, all Jews, do not eat without carefully washing their hands, keeping the tradition of the elders. And on coming from the marketplace they do not eat without purifying themselves. And there are many other things that they have traditionally observed, the purification of cups and jugs and kettles and beds.— So the Pharisees and scribes questioned him, “Why do your disciples not follow the tradition of the elders but instead eat a meal with unclean hands?” He responded, “Well did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites, as it is written:

*This people honors me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me;
in vain do they worship me,
teaching as doctrines human precepts.*

You disregard God’s commandment but cling to human tradition.” He summoned the crowd again and said to them, “Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile.

“From within people, from their hearts, come evil thoughts, unchastity, theft, murder, adultery, greed, malice, deceit, licentiousness, envy, blasphemy, arrogance, folly. All these evils come from within and they defile.

Homily (9&11) Chris Cartwright, S.J. (5:30) Deacon Greg McNabb

Profession of Faith

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

All bow.

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,

All stand upright.

suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen
