A Prayer for Partners in the Gospel

Cameron Bellm

It's never easy, merging households.
We all have our own ways and habits.
The practices we hold dear are pillars
Holding up not just our building
But our very sense of self.

But we're being invited now, to open our doors—
To draw others in to our family,
To venture out and accept their welcome, too.
To build something new,
We'll all have to leave something behind.

May we all remember, though, what makes a house a home.
As we bring our dishes to the shared meal—
Here a crockpot, here a covered dish—
May there be a symphony of scraping chairs,
Always making room for one more.

As we sit at the table,
Maybe nervous, maybe afraid,
May we reach out to touch the hand of another,
Close our eyes, bow our heads.
May we realize we are singing the same song.

Amen.

First Reading

Isaiah 35:4-7a

Thus says the LORD:

Say to those whose hearts are frightened:

Be strong, fear not!

Here is your God,

he comes with vindication;

with divine recompense

he comes to save you.

Then will the eyes of the blind be opened,

the ears of the deaf be cleared;

then will the lame leap like a stag,

then the tongue of the mute will sing.

Streams will burst forth in the desert,

and rivers in the steppe.

The burning sands will become pools,

and the thirsty ground, springs of water.

Psalm

Psalm 146

Joncas

Put no trust in the powerful, mere mortals in whom there is no help.

Take their breath, they return to clay, and their plans that day come to nothing.

They are happy who are helped by Jacob's God, whose hope is in the Lord their God, who alone made heaven and earth, the seas and all they contain. Ref.

It is the Lord who keeps faith forever, who is just to the oppressed.

It is God who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free.

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down, the Lord who protects the stranger, and upholds the widow and orphan. Ref.

It is the Lord who loves the just but thwarts the path of the wicked.

The Lord will reign forever, Zion's God from age to age. Ref.

Second Reading

James 2:1-5

My brothers and sisters, show no partiality as you adhere to the faith in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ. For if a man with gold rings and fine clothes comes into your assembly, and a poor person in shabby clothes also comes in, and you pay attention to the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "Sit here, please," while you say to the poor one, "Stand there," or "Sit at my feet," have you not made distinctions among yourselves and become judges with evil designs?

Listen, my beloved brothers and sisters. Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?

Gospel Acclamation

O'Carroll

Jesus proclaimed the Gospel of the kingdom and cured every disease among the people.

Gospel

Mark 7:31-37

Again Jesus left the district of Tyre and went by way of Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, into the district of the Decapolis. And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"—that is, "Be opened!"—And immediately the man's ears were opened, his speech impediment was removed, and he spoke plainly. He ordered them not to tell anyone. But the more he ordered them not to, the more they proclaimed it. They were exceedingly astonished and they said, "He has done all things well. He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

Homily

Phil Boroughs, S.J.

Profession of Faith

the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

Mass for Suicide Healing & Remembrance

Saturday, September 14, 2024 5:30pm Mass
Archbishop Paul D. Etienne, presider

September is Suicide Prevention Awareness Month. At this special Mass, we pray for all who have been lost to suicide, for survivors of suicide, and for all who have lost a family member, friend, or colleague. We also pray that, as Church and as individuals, we can help prevent suicide by raising awareness and knowing how to help those in need. All those who have been impacted by suicide – who have lost a friend or loved one, or been touched by suicide or a suicide attempt in any way – will be invited to participate in a special entrance procession and light a candle of remembrance.

*God, lover of souls,
you hold dear what you have made and spare all things, for they are yours.*
