September 29 The People of St. Joseph

Dear Friends,

September is about to end and I'm ready for that! We had a very full month getting our two schools, St. Therese Academy and St. Joseph School, launched and operating. Spirited, lovely Masses were celebrated at both schools so to begin the new school year in prayer and worship. St. Joe school's Party On The Hill was fabulous and fun, and the weather was perfect for all the participants. The Parish Picnic enjoyed Seattle weather (you know, slightly damp, grey, coolish!) and a grand crowd of folks.

We began our third month as a parish family and work in the area of administration has been key. Erin Smith, who has been the St. Joseph Parish Pastoral Assistant for Administration has become our over-all Director Of Operations. She supervises our care for the four campuses (add St. Mary & St. Patrick to the two already mentioned). For St. Therese Parish we hired Catherine Pagés as Office Administrator to oversee operations there. We are blessed to have the breadth of experience and pastoral gifts both women bring to our Parish Family.

We recently formed a Parish Family Advisory Council to help guide our process toward bringing our parishes into one thriving, active parish - living and sharing the gospel of Christ. At the same time our two parish Financial and Pastoral Councils have been at work to continue their guidance and care of our individual parishes. If you are reading between the lines, you can see there have been meetings and meetings at work all month long.

October is about to arrive, and Fall is in the air. How the days are growing shorter, and daylight is shrinking into earlier and earlier darkness. Let's go into October with a sense of excitement at the changes around and within us. As is always the case, God is making something new and making us into something new! Like every sinner who became a saint, we can anticipate what God will do with us is going to be holy and completed in love.

Fr. Chris

THE TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Long-ing for wa-ter, man-y still thirst.
Man-y the hearts that yearn to be-long.

Make us your own, your ho-ly peo-ple,
Your word a lone has pow'r to save us.

Make us your liv-ing voice.
Shared un-til all are fed.
mak-ing your King-dom come!

Refrain

Christ, be our light! Shine in our hearts. Shine through the dark-ness.

Christ, be our light! Shine in your Church gath-ered to-day.

Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and on earth peace to peo-ple of good will.

will. A-men, a-men, a-men.

1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,

you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading

Numbers 11:25-29

The LORD came down in the cloud and spoke to Moses. Taking some of the spirit that was on Moses, the LORD bestowed it on the seventy elders; and as the spirit came to rest on them, they prophesied.

Now two men, one named Eldad and the other Medad, were not in the gathering but had been left in the camp. They too had been on the list, but had not gone out to the tent; yet the spirit came to rest on them also, and they prophesied in the camp. So, when a young man quickly told Moses, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp," Joshua, son of Nun, who from his youth had been Moses' aide, said, "Moses, my lord, stop them." But Moses answered him, "Are you jealous for my sake? Would that all the people of the LORD were prophets! Would that the LORD might bestow his spirit on them all!"

Psalm

Psalm 19

Hurd

The law of the Lord is perfect, refreshing the soul.

The decree of the Lord is trustworthy, giving wisdom to the simple. Ref.

The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart;
the command of the Lord is clear, enlight'ning the eye. Ref.

The fear of the Lord is pure, enduring forever;
the statutes of the Lord are true, all of them just. Ref.

They are more precious than gold, than a heap of purest gold;
sweeter also than syrup or honey from the comb. Ref.

Second Reading

James 5:1-6

Come now, you rich, weep and wail over your impending miseries. Your wealth has rotted away, your clothes have become moth-eaten, your gold and silver have corroded, and that corrosion will be a testimony against you; it will devour your flesh like a fire. You have stored up treasure for the last days. Behold, the wages you withheld from the workers who harvested your fields are crying aloud; and the cries of the harvesters have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. You have lived on earth in luxury and pleasure; you have fattened your hearts for the day of slaughter. You have condemned; you have murdered the righteous one; he offers you no resistance.

Gospel Acclamation

O'Carroll

Your word, O Lord, is truth; your word, O Lord, is truth; O consecrate us, Lord, in the truth.

Gospel

Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

At that time, John said to Jesus, "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us." Jesus replied, "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For whoever is not against us is for us. Any one who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward.

"Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him if a great millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea. If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed than with two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire. And if your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life crippled than with two feet to be thrown into Gehenna. And if your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out. Better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye than with two eyes to be thrown into Gehenna, where 'their worm does not die, and the fire is not quenched.'"

Homily

Deacon Steve Wodzanowski

Profession of Faith

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

All bow.

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,

All stand upright.

suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

Chorale: Christ in the Mirror

Ash

Based on the writings of St. Clare of Assisi Proclaimed in movement and ASL
as well at the 11am
Mass by Kathleen Boushey and Logan
Wentland

Christ is the Mirror, Christ is the Light. Gaze on that Mirror and see yourself within.
All things are holy, all things are one. Gaze on creation and see your soul within.
Always be a lover of your soul. Always be a lover of your soul.

Here in this Sanctuary of Life, here is the love and food for your soul.
Enter this dwelling, bring who you are. Gaze on this table and know the source within.
We become the love that we receive. We become the love that we receive.

Christ is the Mirror, Christ is the Light. Gaze on that Mirror and see yourself within.
All here is sacred, all here is one. Gaze on your neighbor and know the love within.
One with one another, one with Christ. One with one another, one with Christ.
One with one another, one with Christ. One with one another, one with Christ.

ALL ARE INVITED TO COME FORWARD

During communion, we invite all to come forward. If you do not ordinarily receive Eucharist, or choose not to, come for a blessing, indicating your desire by putting your hand on your heart.
If you have need of a gluten free host, please come to the presider and make that known.

Our Church Environment Committee Needs You!

Did you know that our Art Deco church building was originally supposed to be in the style of New York's gothic St. Patrick's Cathedral? Due to the Great Depression, architects pivoted to the simpler but still impressive landmark church where we gather today. Join our Environment Ministry to learn more about St. Joseph and help us maintain our beautiful and sacred space.

This new ministry, the Environment Committee, is looking for people who love historic spaces, architecture, design and liturgy to give some of their time and talent toward celebrating the liturgical seasons and spaces within our building. Especially appreciated would be architects, space planners, preservationists, lighting designers and set designers, but anyone is welcome! To help, please contact Deacon Steve at 206-965-1946 or steve@stjosephparish.org

What is PAX CHRISTI?

Pax Christi (Peace of Christ) is a Catholic peace and justice movement that rejects war, preparation for war, and every form of violence and domination. Today in the United States it is a network of individuals and communities spread across the entire country like our group at St Joe's.

Is PAX CHRISTI a Roman Catholic movement?

In 1952 Pope Pius XII recognized PAX CHRISTI as an official Catholic peace movement. The current bishop president of Pax Christi USA is John Stowe, O.F.M. Conv., Bishop of Lexington, KY. The executive director is Charlene Howard. The Board includes lay men and women.

"All violence is the result of people tricking themselves into believing their pain derives from other people, and that consequently, those people deserve to be punished." - Marshall Rosenberg

Volunteer Corner

Check out this spot in the bulletin each week to learn how you can get involved in the ministries here at St. Joe's.

Have you ever wanted to worship at a deeper level? The music ministry at St. Joe's needs you! We welcome singers of every ability! Your skill level isn't as important as your desire to help serve and minister to the people in the pews. We are looking for singers, instrumentalists, and especially would love male voices to deepen our harmonies! We rehearse weekly on Wednesdays from 7pm to 8:30pm and come early to Mass to warm up. You can choose which Mass community you want to participate with, but we all rehearse together.

St Vincent de Paul Donation Matching

As we look around our streets, we see many in our community are struggling. The lingering effects of the pandemic and inflation are felt by us all, but more so by those living on the margin. Like an elderly couple struggling on a fixed income, the single mom with hungry kids, or the unhoused family trying to get back on its feet after finally securing a place to call home. The everyday pressures for many can feel enormous and overwhelming.

This week the Church celebrated the feast of St Vincent de Paul. With that in mind and attempting to keep pace with neighbor requests and the growing community size our parish serves, members of our St Vincent de Paul conference have pledged a $17,000 donation matching fund.

Starting with the SVdP collection next weekend (Oct 6), all donations to the conference will be matched $2 for every dollar donated by you up to a total of match of $17,000.

St. Joseph Parish presents:

SpiritPlay

with

Betsey Beckman

8 Sessions meeting the second Tuesday of each month
from 9:45 - Noon | 2024-2025

Oct. 8, Nov. 12, Dec. 10, Jan. 14, Feb. 11, March 11, April 8, May 13

Have you been curious about how your body might help you to pray? Betsey Beckman has been embodying her prayers since the church bells called her to dance at the age of 5! Over the past 3 decades, Betsey has developed SpiritPlay as a place for folks to explore the improvisational tools of InterPlay to help unlock the wisdom of the body as instrument of prayer.

In this class we will play with embodying lectionary readings, exploring our own sacred stories, dancing on behalf of our loved ones, singing our souls, and touching into what it means to be the Body of Christ in our world today. St. Ignatius taught that the gifts of imagination can lead us deeply into prayer ... here we engage all the senses to help us come alive in our faith.

This class is for beginners as well as return-members alike. Feel free to attend the first class to see if it's a fit for you. After 23 years, Betsey is happy to bring this class to the St. Joe's Campus!

Location: St. Joseph Parish Center / Mother Teresa Room / 732 18th Ave. E.

Cost: $25 per class. $175 for the Series.

To register (for single class or series): Contact Betsey - BBeckdance@aol.com

Betsey Beckman directed the Movement Ministry at St. Pats for 25 years, and works extensively with Abbey of the Arts in creating resources for prayer in movement.
