Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,

Amen.

First Reading

Deuteronomy 6:2-6

Moses spoke to the people, saying: "Fear the LORD, your God, and keep, throughout the days of your lives, all his statutes and commandments which I enjoin on you, and thus have long life. Hear then, Israel, and be careful to observe them, that you may grow and prosper the more, in keeping with the promise of the LORD, the God of your fathers, to give you a land flowing with milk and honey.

"Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone! Therefore, you shall love the LORD, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength. Take to heart these words which I enjoin on you today."

Psalm

(9&11) Psalm 18

Lynch

I love you, I love you, Lord, my strength.
I love you, Lord. I love you. I love you, Lord, my strength
I love you Lord

(5:30) Psalm 18

Guimont

I love you, Lord, my strength, my strength.

Second Reading

Hebrews 7:23-28

Brothers and sisters: The levitical priests were many because they were prevented by death from remaining in office, but Jesus, because he remains forever, has a priesthood that does not pass away. Therefore, he is always able to save those who approach God through him, since he lives forever to make intercession for them.

It was fitting that we should have such a high priest: holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners, higher than the heavens. He has no need, as did the high priests, to offer sacrifice day after day, first for his own sins and then for those of the people; he did that once for all when he offered himself. For the law appoints men subject to weakness to be high priests, but the word of the oath, which was taken after the law, appoints a son, who has been made perfect forever.

Gospel Acclamation

O'Carroll

Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love them and we will come to them.

Gospel

Mark 12:28b-34

One of the scribes came to Jesus and asked him, "Which is the first of all the commandments?" Jesus replied, "The first is this: Hear, O Israel! The Lord our God is Lord alone! You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength. The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these." The scribe said to him, "Well said, teacher. You are right in saying, 'He is One and there is no other than he.' And 'to love him with all your heart, with all your understanding, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself' is worth more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices." And when Jesus saw that he answered with understanding, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Remembering Our Beloved Dead during the month of November

You are invited to bring photos of your loved ones to help create our "Saints Corner" display to be located in the Baptistry. This will be maintained as a sacred space for contemplation and prayer throughout the month.

You can bring your framed or unframed photo to church during open hours and place it on the table inside the gates, or drop it off at the parish center and we place it there for you. Please write contact information on the back of the photo so it can be returned to you after November.

Parish Book of Life This November

We will once again set out our traditional Parish Book of Life, containing names of loved ones who have died during the last twelve months. It will be located near the baptistery within the church for the month of November. We invite you to write the names of those recently passed friends and family for whom you wish pray in the Book of Life. During Mass, the book will be placed upon the altar.

THE HOLY SPIRIT UNIFIES ALL GOD'S CHILDREN AS FAMILY

The conference aims to build a vision of unity that recognizes all individuals as God's children, emphasizing the inclusion of people of color within Catholic church and school communities. It will focus on the concept of unity as a spiritual tapestry woven from diverse threads of faith, culture, and shared purpose. Speakers will address how their faith and the Holy Spirit have guided their vocational journeys, discuss expectations for living out this vision within both the domestic and universal church, and propose strategies for achieving perfect unity. Attendees will learn from the experiences of people of color and gain practical strategies to embody the belief that "we are all God's children."

Parish Family #18
St. Therese and St. Joseph

Synodal Conversations - There was a great representation of our parish family in Rome the first week of October (see photo) in the pilgrimage group sponsored by Discerning Deacons. When we tell people we were "in Rome during the synod", they think we joined the 300+ delegates in the Paul VI synod hall with Pope Francis, but instead we were in Rome as accompaniers, witnesses, supporters and, most importantly, synodal listeners.

One way we will come to know each other in the parish family is through parish family-wide synodal conversations, one of the early tasks of the PFAC. In a recent conversation with college young adults across the country, many of whom attend Jesuit universities, Cardinal Jean-Claude Hollerich, relator general of the synod in Rome, spoke about how we will become a synodal church. "Synodality is a way of gathering and listening to each other, even when the other's opinions are different from mine. The person with a different opinion is not an enemy. We are together part of humanity. We live in the same world and we have to find common solutions to the [challenges of the] world...this type of listening exposes us to others' lived experiences that are wider than our own which is a wonderful gift."

Many of us have long, highly treasured histories with St. Joseph, St. Therese, St. Patrick and St. Mary parishes, what Cardinal Hollerich would call "lived experience". The synodal conversations will be an opportunity for us to share these lived experiences and for us to practice deep listening so the person behind the words emerges and becomes less of a stranger.

The very concept of a parish family challenges us to enlarge the space of our tent and to widen our views of the church that we share with our sisters and brothers all over the world. The Holy Spirit is omnipresent in every synodal conversation, so after listening to others in the 1st round, and sharing what each of us heard in the 2nd round, the 3rd round question in all synodal conversations is to discern what the Holy Spirit wants for the church and for our parish family. The PFAC looks forward to scheduling and participating in a number of these conversations in the near future.

Question of the month: I would like to see a page in the bulletin every Sunday with brief descriptions of upcoming events and volunteer opportunities at St. Therese. And likewise if St. Therese has a bulletin, it should include upcoming events and volunteer opportunities at St. Joe's. I think the more cross-pollination the parishes can encourage, the better.

Now is the perfect time for this question, as both parishes are currently focused on Stewardship. Stewardship is so much more than just money; we are strongly encouraging parishioners to try a new ministry or volunteer in some capacity. How to do that? In each bulletin there is a volunteer corner expressing current needs of each parish. Also both websites (www.stjosephparish.org and www.st-therese.ca) have links on them to sign up for electronic bulletins/newsletters each week so you can keep up to date with what is happening in our Parish Family. By far the easiest way to find out what is going on at our partner parish is simply to attend Mass there from time to time. Reach out and join in!

Please send your questions to the PFAC at pfac@stjosephparish.org.

Volunteer Corner

Check out this spot in the bulletin each week to learn how you can get involved in the ministries here at St. Joe's.

Eucharistic Ministers - A reflection from Peggy O'Brien-Murphy, EM at the 11am Mass. Here at St. Joe's and all over the world, Eucharistic Ministers have a unique opportunity to experience a beloved and precious encounter with other parishioners through the Eucharist. The Body and Blood of Christ - a sacred sacrifice of total love, given from one hand and placed in the hand of another - gift offered, gift received.

It's an astonishingly profound experience to look into the eyes of another person, for even the briefest of moments – and know that a mystery beyond our comprehension is happening. It's a holy moment of rare intimacy, quietly yet powerfully experienced between one person and another. This ministry, whether offered to one who is sick or to many communicants at Mass, is a sacrament that bears witness to a deeply personal intimacy between us and our God. It's exquisite.

For more information and to become part of this important ministry please contact team captain Mary Sepulveda at eucharisticministers@stjosephparish.org

Respect, Reciprocity, and Responsibility - The Three Rs of Transformational Listening

TO REGISTER, CLICK HERE or email stevev@stjosephparish.org to get registration link

Listening can be much more than Active Listening; it can be mutually transformative and, in this way, help us grow into and experience the love and openness we all desire. Unfortunately, out of love and care, our listening can often become counteractive. Our brain creates distractions, and our emotions can take over, limiting our desire and capacity to be present.

In this fun mini-retreat, we'll go beyond Active Listening and explore Transformational Listening. You will have an opportunity to practice the three Rs of Transformational Listening:

Facilitators Patti & Brian DesRoches have been married 37 years and still experience delight in the mystery of coming together as a couple. They have been St. Joe's parishioners since the late 1980s.

"...this [nonviolent resistance] method is that the attack is directed against forces of evil rather than against persons who happen to be doing the evil."- Martin Luther King Jr.

Join us at the 9am for Children's Liturgy of the Word, fabulous youth led Music, and Liturgical Ministers followed by sandwich making for people in need!

Kids 6-12 will be dismissed during the Liturgy of the Word to pray with and reflect on the scripture readings at an age-appropriate level. Parents are welcome to attend if needed or desired. We also hope to include older youth as helpers as the program unfolds. Kids will rejoin their families at the offertory.

Stewardship Report

FAQs Answered by Mary Wiseman, Pastoral Assistant for Stewardship

When to pledge? We run our stewardship pledge campaign in October/November of each year. At this time, we ask everyone to prayerfully consider your next year's giving. Please return your pledge card by 12/10/24.

Why pledges are necessary? Our pledge is our promise to each other of financial stewardship. The staff, along with the Finance Committee, set a budget each year, and they need a clear picture of our expected income. Additionally, pledging is a tangible way for us to be part of something greater than ourselves – a community united in faith, love, generosity, and trust. We ask everyone to pledge, regardless of the amount; all gifts are precious and valued.

How much should I pledge? Your pledge is a personal decision. It is informed by your financial means, your connection to the mission and the needs of our parish. St. Joe's needs to increase the number of households who give in order to continue to sustain and grow our ministries and programs so we can embark on a path toward a more stable and flourishing future.

How do I pledge? While our annual giving campaign is held in the fall, pledges may be made at any time by completing the enclosed pledge card.

If you believe in the mission of St. Joseph—a mission to serve the Church through unity and diversity, through prayer and service, through thoughtful debate and reverent worship, through education and the formation of souls—then you must sustain that mission through your Stewardship, through your financial support.

Scan the QR code to set up recurring donations to the parish. (Please fill out your pledge card, too!) Visit our website for more information or call us at (206) 324-2522 with any questions!
