First Reading

1 Samuel 1:20-22, 24-28

In those days Hannah conceived, and at the end of her term bore a son whom she called Samuel, since she had asked the LORD for him. The next time her husband Elkanah was going up with the rest of his household to offer the customary sacrifice to the LORD and to fulfill his vows, Hannah did not go, explaining to her husband, "Once the child is weaned, I will take him to appear before the LORD and to remain there forever; I will offer him as a perpetual nazirite."

Once Samuel was weaned, Hannah brought him up with her, along with a three-year-old bull, an ephah of flour, and a skin of wine, and presented him at the temple of the LORD in Shiloh. After the boy's father had sacrificed the young bull, Hannah, his mother, approached Eli and said: "Pardon, my lord! As you live, my lord, I am the woman who stood near you here, praying to the LORD. I prayed for this child, and the LORD granted my request. Now I, in turn, give him to the LORD; as long as he lives, he shall be dedicated to the LORD." Hannah left Samuel there.

Psalm

Psalm 128

Haugen

Happy all those who fear the Lord, and walk in God's pathway;
you will find what you long for: the riches of our God. Ref.

Your spouse shall be like a fruitful vine in the midst of your home, your children flourish like olive plants, rejoicing at your table. Ref.

May the blessings of God be yours all the days of your life, may the peace and the love of God live always in your heart. Ref.

Second Reading

Colossians 3:12-17

Brothers and sisters: Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Gospel Acclamation

Christmastime Alleluia

Chepponis

May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts; and the fullness of his message live within you.

Gospel

Luke 2:41-52

Each year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom. After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.

Homily

Rev. Phil Boroughs, S.J.

Profession of Faith

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

All bow.

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,

All stand upright.

suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;

he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

"We have to fight them daily, like fleas, those many small worries about the morrow, for they sap our energies... The Things that have to be done must be done, and for the rest, we must not allow ourselves to become infested with thousands of petty fears and worries, so many motions of no confidence in God. Ultimately, we have just one moral duty: to reclaim large areas of peace in ourselves, more and more peace, and reflect it toward others. And the more peace there is in us, the more peace there will be in our troubled world."

- Ette Hillesum, a Jewish author killed in Aushwitz in 1934

Funeral Hospitality - Dealing with all the details of planning the funeral of a loved one can be difficult. The Funeral Hospitality ministry team exists to help lighten that burden. We are always in need of helpful and friendly assistance and we very much welcome new volunteers to work with us in this fulfilling ministry. School parents can satisfy some of their required "service hours" by helping us. Contact Mary Ott 206-324-7459 if you think you'd be interested: funeralhospitality@stjosephparish.org

KING JR. MASS

Through his birth, Jesus brought Light to the world...

We pray that CJC offerings for 2025 will help us continue His work as we address the climate crisis.

Look for further developments from the CJC groups that grew out of the September 2024 Summit:

- advocacy
- tracking (and shaping) our personal carbon footprints
- investing for the environment

We also hope to be organizing hikes, Eco spirituality events and responding to where our role as citizen stewards of the environment take us in the coming year. Join us for the joy of community and creating care for creation!
...and visit the CJC Creation Shrine (in church narthex) for updates and inspiration.
