 2. Je-sus, on-ly Son of God, Lamb of God, our sins you bear;
 3. You a-lone, O Ho-ly One, You a-lone are Lord most high;
 Migh-ty God and heav'n-ly King we wor-ship You, we give you thanks.

 Glo-ri-a in ex-cel-sis De-o.
 Glo-ri-a in ex-cel-sis De-o.

First Reading

Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

Thus says the LORD:

Here is my servant whom I uphold,
my chosen one with whom I am pleased,
upon whom I have put my spirit;
he shall bring forth justice to the nations,
not crying out, not shouting,
not making his voice heard in the street.
A bruised reed he shall not break,
and a smoldering wick he shall not quench,
until he establishes justice on the earth;
the coastlands will wait for his teaching.

I, the LORD, have called you for the victory of justice,
I have grasped you by the hand;
I formed you, and set you
as a covenant of the people,
a light for the nations,
to open the eyes of the blind,
to bring out prisoners from confinement,
and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness.

Psalm

Psalm 104

Warner

Bless the Lord, O my soul, Lord God, how great you are, wrapped in a garment of glory and might, clothed in light as in a robe. Ref.

Lord, my God, great are your works! In wisdom you made them all.
Rich is the earth and filled with your life. Bless the Lord, O bless my soul. Ref.

All of your creatures look to you, to give them their food in time.
You give with abundance, they gather it up, by your hands they have their fill. Ref.

Second Reading

Titus 2:11-14; 3:4-7

Beloved: The grace of God has appeared, saving all and training us to reject godless ways and worldly desires and to live temperately, justly, and devoutly in this age, as we await the blessed hope, the appearance of the glory of our great God and savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to deliver us from all lawlessness and to cleanse for himself a people as his own, eager to do what is good.

When the kindness and generous love of God our savior appeared, not because of any righteous deeds we had done but because of his mercy, he saved us through the bath of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit, whom he richly poured out on us through Jesus Christ our savior, so that we might be justified by his grace and become heirs in hope of eternal life.

Gospel Acclamation

Christmastime Alleluia

Chepponis

John saw Jesus approaching him, and said: Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

Gospel

Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

The people were filled with expectation, and all were asking in their hearts whether John might be the Christ. John answered them all, saying, "I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

Volunteer Corner- Check out this spot in the bulletin each week to learn how you can get involved in the ministries here at St. Joe's.

Funeral Hospitality - Dealing with all the details of planning the funeral of a loved one can be difficult. The Funeral Hospitality ministry team exists to help lighten that burden. We are always in need of helpful and friendly assistance and we very much welcome new volunteers to work with us in this fulfilling ministry. School parents can satisfy some of their required "service hours" by helping us. Contact Mary Ott 206-324-7459 if you think you'd be interested: funeralhospitality@stjosephparish.org

PARISH HAPPENINGS

An Invitation from the CJC Carbon Tracking Group

Worried about climate change? Want to help, but don't know how?

Our committee is sponsoring a group that believes the answer to "How?" is Yes!

We invite you to join us!

This group has discovered that 40% of U.S. greenhouse gas emissions come from just five everyday household activities:

 Electricity;  Home Heating;  Waste;  Transportation;  Food.

We have an online tool that helps you identify easy and affordable actions to reduce your carbon footprint. In fact, many households using this tool have saved between $1,000 and $3,000 a year while also significantly reducing their environmental impact.

This group is open to all parishioner households!

Come, learn how you can track your own carbon footprint and measure your savings.

For more information and to sign up for a short, online training session in January, please contact John Hale: john@callofcompassion.org; C: 425-765-7923

Winter Coat Drive

Do you have winter coats you can share? Or maybe you'll have an extra after the Christmas holiday? St. Joseph will be collecting coats (for the benefit of St Francis House (SFH)). SFH clients know the cold and wet all too well. They desperately need warm and/or waterproof outerwear. Some rely on the clothes on their backs to make it through each winter night. Bring to the Vestibule kitchen. Help our neighbors stay warm and dry!

Prayer Shawl Group

Calling knitters and crocheters--even beginners!

Our ministry was founded Fall 2013 by a group of St Joseph parishioners wishing to come together in community to knit or crochet prayer shawls for those in need of comfort and healing. Our monthly gatherings are a time to share, pray, reflect, rejoice, and learn from one another. We are knitters and crocheters of all levels and abilities and we welcome all to join. There are talented teachers in our group who can help beginners, and supplies of yarn are available. We meet on the first Tuesday of the month at 7:00pm, in the Mother Teresa room in Parish Center.

Shawl request: If you or someone you know is in need of the comfort and prayers that a shawl can provide, please email us at prayershawlgroup@stjosephparish.org to request a shawl.
