Glory to God

Haugen

1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;

you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading

About Zion I will not be silent, about Jerusalem I will not grow weary,
until her integrity shines out like the dawn
and her salvation flames like a torch.

The nations then will see your integrity,
all the kings your glory,
and you will be called by a new name,
one which the mouth of the Lord will confer.
You are to be a crown of splendour in the hand of the Lord,
a princely diadem in the hand of your God;

Isaiah 62:1-5

no longer are you to be named 'Forsaken', nor your land 'Abandoned',
but you shall be called 'My Delight'
and your land 'The Wedded';
for the Lord takes delight in you and your land will have its wedding.

Like a young man marrying a virgin,
so will the one who built you wed you,
and as the bridegroom rejoices in his bride,
so will your God rejoice in you.

Psalm

Psalm 96

Haugen

Sing to the Lord a new song. Sing to the Lord all you lands!
Sing to the Lord with all your heart, and bless God's name! Ref.

Announce salvation day by day, God's glory throughout the earth!
Among all the people in every land, God's wondrous deeds! Ref.

Give to the Lord, you nations, praise to the Lord of all!
Sing glory and praise and sing to the name, above all names! Ref.

Worship the Lord, and tremble, proclaim the one who reigns!
Say to the nations: "The Lord is King;" who rules with justice! Ref.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12:4-11

There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always to the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose. One may have the gift of preaching with wisdom given him by the Spirit; another may have the gift of preaching instruction given him by the same Spirit; and another the gift of faith given by the same Spirit; another again the gift of healing, through this one Spirit; one, the power of miracles; another, prophecy; another the gift of recognising spirits; another the gift of tongues and another the ability to interpret them. All these are the work of one and the same Spirit, who distributes different gifts to different people just as he chooses.

Gospel Acclamation

Taize

God has called us through the Gospel to possess the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel

John 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee. The mother of Jesus was there, and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited. When they ran out of wine, since the wine provided for the wedding was all finished, the mother of Jesus said to him, 'They have no wine.' Jesus said 'Woman, why turn to me? My hour has not come yet.' His mother said to the servants, 'Do whatever he tells you.' There were six stone water jars standing there, meant for the ablutions that are customary among the Jews: each could hold twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to the servants, 'Fill the jars with water', and they filled them to the brim. 'Draw some out now' he told them 'and take it to the steward.' They did this; the steward tasted the water, and it had turned into wine. Having no idea where it came from – only the servants who had drawn the water knew – the steward called the bridegroom and said, 'People generally serve the best wine first, and keep the cheaper sort till the guests have had plenty to drink; but you have kept the best wine till now.'

This was the first of the signs given by Jesus: it was given at Cana in Galilee. He let his glory be seen, and his disciples believed in him.

Homily

Rev. Phil Boroughs, S.J.

Profession of Faith

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

All bow.

suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;

he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,

Offertory Song (9am and 11am) Christ Has No Body Now But Yours Warner

No hands but yours to heal the wounded world, no hands but yours to soothe all its suff'ring, no touch but yours to bind the broken hope of the people of God. Ref.

No eyes but yours to see what Christ would see, to find the lost, to gaze with compassion;
no eyes but yours to glimpse the holy joy of the city of God. Ref.

No feet but yours to journey with the poor, to walk this world with mercy and justice.
Yours are the steps to build a lasting peace for the children of God. Ref.

Through every gift, give back to those in need: As Christ has blessed, so now be his blessing, with every gift a benediction be to the people of God. Ref.

(5:30pm) St. Theresa's Prayer

Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours.
Yours are the eyes through which he looks, compassion on this world
Yours are the feet with which He walks to do good.
Yours are the hands with which he blesses all the world

Yours are the hands, yours are the feet. Yours are the eyes, you are his body.

Christ has no Body now but yours, no hands, no feet on earth but yours.
Yours are the eyes through which he looks, compassion on this world.
Christ has no body now on earth but yours.

Seattle Prep Students Doing Justice: A Presentation on IFTJ 2024

Tuesday, February 4th | 7pm
St. Joe's Parish Center

In October, over 1,800 High School and College Students from Jesuit Preps and Universities, including students from Seattle Prep, attended the Ignatian Family Teach-In for Justice in Washington, D.C.

Over the weekend, they networked with students from all over the US, participated in workshops and plenary sessions on Justice Issues, learned about advocacy and community organizing, stood in solidarity as advocates in front of the US Capitol, and met with their legislators to share their concerns (Prep students met with staffers from Congresswoman Pramila Jayapal, Congressman Adam Smith and Senator Patty Murray.)

Now that they are back home, the students who attended from Seattle Prep would like to share their experiences with the Jesuit Works in Seattle, their school community, their parents, and parishioners at St. Joe's. Join us for this special event!

Email vherberholt3@comcast.net Or smiller@seaprep.org for more information.

Christmas Thanks

A huge thank you to all those who helped with the church decorations for the 2024 Advent and Christmas season. A special note of appreciation to the Arts and Environment chair for St. Joseph – Anne Santee-Stoner, and to the incredible visionary teacher Chito Santos and his talented students at St. Joseph School for the vestibule and baptistry decorations! Special gratitude to the St. Joseph Church Environment committee, Anne Santee-Stoner, Chito Santos, Maria Van Wollen, Annette Raubvogel, and Julie Olsen.

The churches were absolutely beautiful! Many parishioners and visitors shared their enjoyment with us throughout the season. Again, thanks to everyone for their hard work and support. It goes without saying, that our incredible staff at St. Joe's and St. Therese as usual went above and beyond in enhancing our sacred spaces for Christmas!

We are truly grateful to all our Lectors, Altar Servers, ASL Interpreters, Eucharistic Ministers, Ushers, Greeters, Hospitality Volunteers, Readers, Sacristans, Bread Bakers, Lay Presiders, Choir Members, Musicians, and the Liturgical Movement Ministry who enhanced our sacred celebrations with their many talents!

A big shout-out to LeAna Alvarado-Smith who shepherded a new giving program from Seattle Prep parents that sponsored the poinsettias and greenery for both churches. Thank you to: LeAna Alvarado-Smith & Steve Smith, Julissa Robles & Larry Ward, Jen & Todd Smith, Erika & Jerrod Stafford, Aime Mitchell & Rick Holzli, Lila & Shane O'Mahony, Laura & David Young, Susie & Rick Wells, Mary DePaolo Haddad, Meghan & Greg Squires, Anne Marie Koehler, Kristine & Casey Losh, Katie & Bill Kuder, Andy Wattula & Meaghan Colarossi, Katie & Drew Zwiebel, Andrea & Erick Lines, Emily & Will Bassett, Doug & Dayna Morgan, Lando & Sara Alvarado, and Dorothy & Aaron Ambuske.

First Friday - Please join us Friday, February 7th at 11:30am followed by lunch. We're looking forward to a wonderful celebration lunch after. If you have any questions please call the parish office at 206.324.2522. All are welcome!

Prayer Shawl Group

Calling knitters and crocheters--even beginners! Our ministry was founded Fall 2013 by a group of St Joseph parishioners wishing to come together in community to knit or crochet prayer shawls for those in need of comfort and healing. Our monthly gatherings are a time to share, pray, reflect, rejoice, and learn from one another. We are knitters and crocheters of all levels and abilities and we welcome all to join. There are talented teachers in our group who can help beginners, and supplies of yarn are available. We meet on the first Tuesday of the month at 7:00pm, in the Mother Teresa room in Parish Center. Our next meeting is February 4th! Shawl request: If you or someone you know is in need of the comfort and prayers that a shawl can provide, please email us at prayershawl-group@stjosephparish.org to request a shawl.

Parish Family Updates - January 2025

Rooted In Scripture

I will stand at my watchpost, and station myself on the rampart; I will keep watch to see what He will say to me.

~Habakkuk 2:1

Parish Family #18
St. Therese and St. Joseph

"Yes, we will become increasingly creative and different as this process unfolds, but that is how grace works."

~Phil Boroughs, SJ, Homily 1.05.25

At the start of a new year, many of us make resolutions or promises that carry meaningful intent for us personally. We are also part of a developing Parish Family, a place where, as Fr. Phil pointed out in his homily on Epiphany, like the magis, we too have gifts to offer, and to receive from each other. The most recent examples of the Parish Family "gift exchange" are the Gospel Magnificat performed by a combined Parish Family choir; a Christmas sing-along led by Shades of Praise; the New Year's Day Mass; and the Anointing Mass. Participating in these shared celebrations was the gift of the overall community to each other.

In the Spiritual song "Done Made My Vow to the Lord", a resolution carries far greater import, a promise not just to ourselves, but to our community and to the Lord. As we begin the second half of the first Parish Family year and enter more deeply into an experience of being a more inclusive community, what might be our "vow to the Lord", our New Year's resolution toward becoming one canonical parish? Can we focus on the commitment to serve the Church that Pope Francis describes as "not a seated Church, but a Church on her feet. Not a silent church, but a church that embraces the cry of humanity. Not a blind Church, but a Church, enlightened by Christ, that brings the light of the Gospel to others. Not a static Church, but a missionary Church that walks with her Lord through the streets of the world." (Homily at the closing of the 2024 Synod)

Only a few days after celebrating and remembering the life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. on January 19, the Pastoral Councils of St. Joseph and St. Therese and the Parish Family Leadership Team, made up of staff, clergy and school principals, will meet on January 21, making important time to listen and learn from one another. Please remember us in your prayers that day.
