First Reading

Sirach 27:4-7

When a sieve is shaken, the husks appear;
so do one's faults when one speaks.
As the test of what the potter molds is in the furnace,
so in tribulation is the test of the just.

The fruit of a tree shows the care it has had;
so too does one's speech disclose the bent of one's mind.
Praise no one before he speaks,
for it is then that people are tested.

Psalm

(9) Psalm 19

Carroll

Refrain: Oh God, your words are spirit and life; O God, your words are spirit and life.

God's words are true, they refresh my soul; sweeter than honey, and purer than finest gold. Ref.

God's word is perfect, a message for the world. Following the word of God gives us great reward. Ref.

Wash away my faults and keep me from sin; may my words be true as you cleanse my heart again. Ref.

(11) Psalm 92

McWalter-Huff

Lord, it is good to give thanks to you, to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to you, Lord, to sing praise upon your name.

To proclaim your kindness and your faithfulness always. Ref.

The just one shall thrive like a tree, like a cedar he shall grow.

Those planted in God's house shall flourish in God's courts. Ref.

The just shall bear fruit in old age, strong and sturdy they shall be.

O Lord, my rock, in whom there is no wrong. Ref.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 15:54-58

Brothers and sisters: When this which is corruptible clothes itself with incorruptibility and this which is mortal clothes itself with immortality, then the word that is written shall come about:

Death is swallowed up in victory.

Where, O death, is your victory?

Where, O death, is your sting?

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be firm, steadfast, always fully devoted to the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

Gospel Acclamation

Celtic Alleluia

Walker/O'Carroll

Shine like lights in the world; shine like lights in the world, as you hold on to the word of life.

Gospel

Luke 6:39-45

Jesus told his disciples a parable, "Can a blind person guide a blind person? Will not both fall into a pit? No disciple is superior to the teacher; but when fully trained, every disciple will be like his teacher. Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own? How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me remove that splinter in your eye,' when you do not even notice the wooden beam in your own eye? You hypocrite! Remove the wooden beam from your eye first; then you will see clearly to remove the splinter in your brother's eye.

"A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. For every tree is known by its own fruit. For people do not pick figs from thornbushes, nor do they gather grapes from brambles. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil; for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks."

Homily

Deacon Steve Wodzanowski

Profession of Faith

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

All bow.

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,

All stand upright.

suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;

he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

UPDATE

Frequently Asked Questions!

Q: How do all the parish families know what to do?

A: The Partners in the Gospel planning team provided guidance on key areas of parish life like Mission and Evangelization, Liturgy, Administration, Community and more in a Handbook for parishes. The Handbook is broken into several phases that align with activities earmarked for action over the next 3 years as parishes begin to join. We are currently in the first phases (0-1), which are specifically focused on welcoming and getting to know each other, assessing the current parishes and starting to develop an understanding of each parish's gifts, needs and hopes for the future.

Q: What should parishioners be doing right now?

A: Parishioners are invited to engage in the process in several ways:

- Pray! Pray for your priests, your parish leadership, your parish family and your community.
- Get to know the other parishes in your parish family by attending Mass at each parish.
- Join in parish-family events and offerings.
- Think about ways you may be able to share your gifts with the parish family.

Feel free to direct ANY questions to parishfamily@stjosephparish.org

Volunteer Corner- Check out this spot in the bulletin each week to learn how you can get involved in the ministries here at St. Joe's.

It's about creating a welcoming environment where relationships can grow. Shifts are short and flexible.
