Prelude

Jam Christe Sol Justitiae

O Jesus, shining like the sun, your light is hope to everyone.
Help us to turn our hearts your way. Jam Christe sol justitiae.
Jam Christe sol justitiae, You change our darkest night to day.
Transfigure us with your true light, O sun of justice, Jesus Christ.

First Reading

The Lord God took Abram outside and said, “Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can.
Just so,” he added, “shall your descendants be.”
Abram put his faith in the LORD,
who credited it to him as an act of righteousness.

He then said to him,
“I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans
to give you this land as a possession.”
“O Lord GOD,” he asked,
“how am I to know that I shall possess it?”
He answered him,
“Bring me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old she-goat,
a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon.”

Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18

Abram brought him all these, split them in two,
and placed each half opposite the other;
but the birds he did not cut up.
Birds of prey swooped down on the carcasses,
but Abram stayed with them.
As the sun was about to set, a trance fell upon Abram,
and a deep, terrifying darkness enveloped him.
When the sun had set and it was dark,
there appeared a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch,
which passed between those pieces.
It was on that occasion that the LORD made a covenant
with Abram,
saying: “To your descendants I give this land,
from the Wadi of Egypt to the Great River, the Euphrates.”

Second Reading

Philippians 3:17—4:1

Join with others in being imitators of me, brothers and sisters, and observe those who thus conduct themselves according to the model you have in us. For many, as I have often told you and now tell you even in tears, conduct themselves as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction. Their God is their stomach; their glory is in their "shame." Their minds are occupied with earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we also await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. He will change our lowly body to conform with his glorified body by the power that enables him also to bring all things into subjection to himself.

Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, in this way stand firm in the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

McWalter-Huff

Praise to you Lord Je-sus Christ King of end-less glo - ry

From the shining cloud the Father's voice calls: "This is my Son; listen to Him."

Gospel

Luke 9:28b-36

Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem. Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. As they were about to part from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here; let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." But he did not know what he was saying. While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. They fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone what they had seen.

Homily

Phil Boroughs, SJ

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

All bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became human.

All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

A MESSAGE FROM DEACON STEVE

Dear Friends,

As we take the next steps Partners in the Gospel together, I want to outline the next important part of our process.

The next step in the Partners in the Gospel plan is the creation of a Parish Family Advisory Council (PFAC) which will in time become the Pastoral Council for our single parish.

The PFAC will be the key consultative body for implementing and guiding Partners in the Gospel. They will be concerned with changes, events, and collaborations that impact the ENTIRE parish family. This diverse group of 9-12 people representing our four communities, two schools, with a range of ages both male and female will meet with me to discern the eventual mission and structure of our single parish.

I am looking for thoughtful and prayerful Catholic individuals who are regular participants at Mass, practice stewardship, and are open to discerning how the Holy Spirit is calling us to form a unified parish community. Some key qualities I am looking for are people who listen well to others, are open minded about various ways of being church, and creative in exploring a new model of parish life.

This will be an open process.

If you know someone you think would be a good candidate for the PFAC, please send their names to nominations@stjosephparish.org or nominations@st-therese.cc

Feel free to nominate yourselves.

Please look at all the information regarding the PFAC and the nomination process on the following pages. I am excited about the possibilities for our future church, and look forward to walking into the future as one parish family. Please pray for me and the success of bringing this group together and the leadership it will offer.

Deacon Steve Wodzanowski,
 Pastoral Coordinator

PARISH FAMILY ADVISORY COUNCIL

Four Communities - One Family

WHY A PARISH FAMILY ADVISORY COUNCIL?

Partners in the Gospel focuses on re-envisioning and restructuring parish life for mission. This vision takes shape through the One Parish Plan, a strategic pastoral plan guiding parish families toward becoming one canonical parish—unified under a single Pastoral Coordinator. The Parish Family Advisory Council (PFAC), a group of 9-12 parishioners from across the parish family, plays a vital role by advising Deacon Steve in developing this plan.

ROLE OF THE PARISH FAMILY ADVISORY COUNCIL

The PFAC serves as the Pastoral Coordinator's primary advisory group for Partners in the Gospel, focusing on the overall health of the parish family rather than individual communities. They guide the creation of the One Parish Plan, setting pastoral priorities and goals while ensuring broad consultation and discernment. However, implementation is the responsibility of the leadership team, staff, and volunteers.

CRITERIA OF PARISH FAMILY ADVISORY COUNCIL MEMBERS

- Baptized Roman Catholic, and in good standing with the church
- Active participant in the life of the parish for at least 1 year
- Ability to make a 3-year commitment with ability to renew as needed
- Reflect the age, ethnic, cultural and economic makeup of the parish family
- Able to represent and work on behalf of the whole parish family - and not be limited to representing their own community, particular interests or specific ministries.
- Supportive of the Partners in the Gospel initiative
- And More! See application for full details

PARISH FAMILY ADVISORY COUNCIL

Four Communities - One Family

SELECTION OF PARISH FAMILY ADVISORY COUNCIL MEMBERS

PFAC members will be identified through direct invitation from the Pastoral Coordinator and an open call to the parish family. Interested candidates will review the role, criteria, and tasks before applying. The Parish Family Leadership Team will assess applications, host an information session for final discernment, and make the final selection.

TASKS OF THE PARISH FAMILY COUNCIL

Throughout the One Parish Plan process, the PFAC will support various efforts, including hosting listening sessions, conducting surveys, meeting with staff and groups, synthesizing input, and drafting reports. Their role will evolve across the following different phases, with key activities:

- Organizing and Kickoff
- Who Are We?
- What Do We Want to Become?
- How Do We Get There?
- What Will We Be Called?
- Assembling the One Parish Plan
- Review Process

"THE PARISH IS NOT AN OUTDATED INSTITUTION; PRECISELY BECAUSE IT POSSESSES GREAT FLEXIBILITY."
