THE EASTER VIGIL IN THE NIGHT

"Why do you seek the living one among the dead?
He is not here, but he has been raised." - Lk 24:5b-6a

THE EASTER VIGIL IN THE NIGHT

Service of Light: The Fire & the Candle:

On this night—when Jesus passed from death to new life, through the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit—Christians across the world gather to recall the story of our salvation, and to welcome the Elect into the death and resurrection of Christ.

Here we begin around the fire, like our ancestors in faith, and push back the darkness by the warmth of our communion. And rising from the fire, the ember is taken to light the great Paschal Candle—the symbol of the Risen Christ, whose light overcomes the darkness of death. The Candle is marked with the Alpha and Omega—symbols of the first and the last—with the calendar year—symbol of Christ’s present being—and with the five pins that mark the wounds that Christ bears even in resurrection. The sign of his glorified humanity.

*After the candle is lit from the blessed fire all the candles of the assembly are lit.
Circling with the candle, the Deacon sings and the People respond:*

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Genesis 1:1-2:2

Day One: In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was barren, with no form of life; it was under a roaring ocean covered with darkness. But the Spirit of God was moving over the water. God said, "I command light to shine!" and light started shining. God looked at the light and saw that it was good. God separated light from darkness and named the light "Day," and the darkness "Night." Cantor: And God saw that it was good and there was evening and morning. All: And God saw that it was good and there was evening and morning. Cantor: The first day.

Day Two: God said, "I command a dome to separate the water above it from the water below it." And that's what happened. God made the dome and named it "Sky." Sung refrain: And God saw that it was good and there was evening and morning. Cantor: The second day.

Day Three: God said, "I command the water under the sky to come together in one place, so there will be dry ground." And that's what happened. God named the dry ground "Land," and God named the water "Ocean." And God looked and saw that it was good. God said, "I command the earth to produce all kinds of plants, including fruit trees and grain." And that's what happened. The earth produced all kinds of vegetation. And God looked at what God had done ... Sung refrain: And God saw that it was good and there was evening and morning. Cantor: The third day.

Day Four: God said, "I command lights to appear in the sky, and to separate day from night and to show the time for seasons, special days, and years. I command them to shine on the earth." And that's what happened. God made the two powerful lights, the brighter one to rule the day, and the other to rule the night. God also made the stars. Then God put these lights in the sky, to shine on the earth, to rule day and night, and to separate light from darkness. And God looked at what God had done ... Sung refrain: And God saw that it was good and there was evening and morning. Cantor: The fourth day.

Day Five: God said, "I command the ocean to be full of living creatures, and I command birds to fly above the earth." So, God made the giant sea monsters and all the living creatures that swim in the ocean. God also made every kind of bird. God looked and saw that it was good. Then God gave the living creatures a blessing - God told the ocean creatures to live everywhere in the ocean and the birds to live everywhere on earth. Sung refrain: And God saw that it was good and there was evening and morning. Cantor: The fifth day.

Day Six: God said, "I command the earth to give life to all kinds of tame animals, wild animals, and reptiles." And that's what happened. God made every one of them. And God looked at what God had done, and it was good. God said, "Now we will make humans, and they will be like us. Let them care for the fish, the birds, and all other living creatures." So, God made men and women. God blessed them saying, "Have a lot of children! Fill the earth and care for it. Watch over the fish in the ocean, the birds in the sky, and every animal on the earth. I have provided all kinds of fruit and grain for you to eat. And I have given the green plants as food for everything else that breathes. These will be food for animals, both wild and tame, and for birds." ... Sung refrain: And God saw that it was good and there was evening and morning. Cantor: The sixth day.

Day Seven: So, the heavens and the earth and everything else were created. By the seventh day God had finished God's work and rested. God blessed the seventh day and made it special because on that day God rested from all the work of creation. That's how God created the heavens and the earth... Sung refrain: And God saw that it was good and there was evening and morning. Cantor: And this day. And this day!

Cantor: We praise you, O Lord, for all your works are wonderful. We praise you, O Lord, forever is your love.

Cantor: Your wisdom made the heavens and the earth, O Lord; you formed the land and set the lights. And, like your love, the sun will rule the day, and stars will grace the night.

All: We praise you, O Lord, for all your works are wonderful. We praise you, O Lord, forever is your love. Forever is your love.

Second Reading

God put Abraham to the test and called to him, “Abraham!”

“Here I am,” Abraham replied.

Then God said: “Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you.”

When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. Then he reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son.

But the LORD’s messenger called to him from heaven, “Abraham, Abraham!”

“Here I am,” he answered.

Genesis 22

“Do not lay your hand on the boy,” said the messenger. “Do not do the least thing to him. I know now how devoted you are to God since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son.”

As Abraham looked about, he spied a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. So he went and took the ram and offered it up as a holocaust in place of his son.

Again the LORD’s messenger called to Abraham from heaven and said: “I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing—all this because you obeyed my command.”

Third Reading

Exodus 14:15-15:1

The LORD said to Moses, "Why are you crying out to me? Tell the Israelites to go forward. And you, lift up your staff and, with hand outstretched over the sea, split the sea in two, that the Israelites may pass through it on dry land. But I will make the Egyptians so obstinate that they will go in after them. Then I will receive glory through Pharaoh and all his army, his chariots and charioteers. The Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I receive glory through Pharaoh and his chariots and charioteers."

The angel of God, who had been leading Israel's camp, now moved and went around behind them. The column of cloud also, leaving the front, took up its place behind them, so that it came between the camp of the Egyptians and that of Israel. But the cloud now became dark, and thus the night passed without the rival camps coming any closer together all night long. Refrain

Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the LORD swept the sea with a strong east wind throughout the night and so turned it into dry land. When the water was thus divided, the Israelites marched into the midst of the sea on dry land, with the water like a wall to their right and to their left. Refrain

The Egyptians followed in pursuit; all Pharaoh's horses and chariots and charioteers went after them right into the midst of the sea. In the night watch just before dawn the LORD cast through the column of the fiery cloud upon the Egyptian force a glance that threw it into a panic; and he so clogged their chariot wheels that they could hardly drive. With that the Egyptians sounded the retreat before Israel, because the LORD was fighting for them against the Egyptians. Refrain

Then the LORD told Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the water may flow back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and their charioteers." So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at dawn the sea flowed back to its normal depth. The Egyptians were fleeing head on toward the sea, when the LORD hurled them into its midst. Refrain

As the water flowed back, it covered the chariots and the charioteers of Pharaoh's whole army which had followed the Israelites into the sea. Not a single one of them escaped. But the Israelites had marched on dry land through the midst of the sea, with the water like a wall to their right and to their left. Thus the LORD saved Israel on that day from the power of the Egyptians. Refrain

When Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the seashore and beheld the great power that the LORD had shown against the Egyptians, they feared the LORD and believed in him and in his servant Moses.

Fourth Reading

Hear, O Israel, the commandments of life:
listen, and learn wisdom!
How is it, Israel,
that you are in the land of your foes,
grown old in a foreign land,
defiled with the dead,
accounted with those destined for the netherworld?
You have forsaken the fountain of wisdom!
Had you walked in the way of God,
you would have dwelt
in an enduring peace.

Learn where there is wisdom,
where there is strength, where there is understanding;
that you may also know
where are length of days, and life,
where light of the eyes, and peace.
Who has found the place of wisdom?
Who has entered into her treasures?

The One who knows all things knows her;
he has probed her by his knowledge --

Baruch 3:9-15, 23-4:4

the One who established the earth for all time,
and filled it with four-footed beasts;
who dismisses the light, and it departs,
calls it, and it obeys trembling;
before whom the stars at their posts shine and rejoice;
when called, they answer, "Here we are!"
shining with joy for their Maker.

Such is our God;
no other is to be compared to Our God:
who has traced out the whole way of understanding,
and has given her to Jacob, his servant,
to Israel, his beloved son.

Since then she has appeared on earth,
and moved among the people.
She is the book of the precepts of God,
the law that endures forever;
all who cling to her will live,
but those will die, who forsake her.

Turn, O Jacob, and receive her:
walk by her light toward splendor.
Give not your glory to another,
your privileges to an alien race.
Blessed are we, for what pleases God,
is known to us!

Fifth Reading

Isaiah 55:1-11

Thus says the LORD:
All you who are thirsty,
come to the water!
You who have no money,
come, receive grain and eat;
come, without paying and without cost,
drink wine and milk!
Why spend your money for what is not bread,
your wages for what fails to satisfy?
Heed me, and you shall eat well,
you shall delight in rich fare.
Come to me heedfully,
listen, that you may have life.
I will renew with you the everlasting covenant,
the benefits assured to David.
As I made him a witness to the peoples,
a leader and commander of nations,
so shall you summon a nation you knew not,
and nations that knew you not shall run to you,
because of the LORD, your God,
the Holy One of Israel, who has glorified you.

Seek the LORD while he may be found,
call him while he is near.
Let the scoundrels forsake their ways,
and the wicked their thoughts;
let them turn to the LORD for mercy;
to our God, who is generous in forgiving.
For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD.
As high as the heavens are above the earth,
so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts.

For just as from the heavens
the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to the one who sows
and bread to the one who eats, so shall my word be
that goes forth from my mouth;
my word shall not return to me void,
but shall do my will,
achieving the end for which I sent it.

Epistle

Romans 6:3-11

Brothers and sisters: Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.

For if we have grown into union with him through a death like his, we shall also be united with him in the resurrection. We know that our old self was crucified with him, so that our sinful body might be done away with, that we might no longer be in slavery to sin. For a dead person has been absolved from sin. If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him. As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God. Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as being dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.

Gospel

Luke 24:1-12

At daybreak on the first day of the week the women who had come from Galilee with Jesus took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb; but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were puzzling over this, behold, two men in dazzling garments appeared to them. They were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground. They said to them, "Why do you seek the living one among the dead? He is not here, but he has been raised. Remember what he said to you while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners and be crucified, and rise on the third day." And they remembered his words. Then they returned from the tomb and announced all these things to the eleven and to all the others. The women were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James; the others who accompanied them also told this to the apostles, but their story seemed like nonsense and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb, bent down, and saw the burial cloths alone; then he went home amazed at what had happened.

Reception Into Full Communion

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

All bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became human.

All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP AT ST. JOSEPH

Stewardship is the cornerstone of recognizing that all we have is a gift from God. It's about living a life of gratitude, acknowledging the blessings bestowed upon us daily.

Reflecting on our recent 3rd Annual Fish Fry, I am reminded of our parish's abundant blessings. The joyous turnout, heartfelt conversations, and shared meals highlighted the genuine fellowship within our community as we came together. Visitors and newcomers were touched by our hospitality, a testament to the love that defines us.

That love is only one of the constants at St. Joseph. Shown in how the community responds to our Outreach Partners when they need help. Whether it's food and volunteers for St. Francis House, sandwiches and dinners for St. Martin de Porres, stocking the Community Fridge, and of course, the incredible support of St. Vincent de Paul, St. Joseph has shown up in remarkable ways.

This Easter, I invite you to consider supporting St. Joe's with a gift. Your generosity fuels our ministries, outreach, and mission, allowing us to serve beyond our church walls. And that, to me, is true community!

Easter Blessings,

Parish Listening Session

Sunday May 4, 2025 | 1:30 – 3:30 PM

St. Joseph Parish Center, Arrupe Room

Background

As a preliminary step in our partner process, each community in our new parish family – St. Joseph, St. Mary, St. Pat's, and St. Therese – will conduct small group listening sessions. So far one listening session has taken place with St. Pat's. These sessions are unique to each community. Notes from each session will be summarized in a synthesis report and shared with parish leadership, staff, councils and parishioners.

The purpose of these sessions is for members to discuss their unique experiences and hopes as we go forward in the partner process. What we learn from these sessions will inform our partner process.

Small Group Discussion Questions

1. As you experience change at St. Joe's, what do you feel good about? What concerns do you have?
2. What would help you feel more comfortable or understanding about the changes you are experiencing at St. Joe's?
3. What are the key charisms in our parish – special gifts or graces – you think are important to see continued in our new parish family?
