First Reading

When the captain and the court officers had brought the apostles in and made them stand before the Sanhedrin, the high priest questioned them, "We gave you strict orders, did we not, to stop teaching in that name? Yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and want to bring this man's blood upon us." But Peter and the apostles said in reply, "We must obey God rather than men. The God of our ancestors raised Jesus, though you had him killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as leader and savior to grant Israel repentance and forgiveness of sins. We are witnesses of these things, as is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

The Sanhedrin ordered the apostles to stop speaking in the name of Jesus, and dismissed them. So they left the presence of the Sanhedrin, rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name. Thanks be to God.

Psalm

Psalm 130

Ash

I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. My enemies cannot rejoice.
You have raised my soul up from the dead; you have restored me to life. Ref.

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love the Lord. Give thanks to the Lord's holy name.
God's anger is brief, God's favor long. At night there are tears, at dawn there's joy. Ref.

The Lord listened to me and had pity; the Lord came to my help.
You have changed my mourning into a dance; O God, I will thank you evermore. Ref.

Second Reading

Revelation 5:11-14

I, John, looked and heard the voices of many angels who surrounded the throne and the living creatures and the elders. They were countless in number, and they cried out in a loud voice: "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing." Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, everything in the universe, cry out: "To the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor, glory and might, forever and ever." The four living creatures answered, "Amen, " and the elders fell down and worshiped. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Ash

"Lord, make your word plain to us; make our hearts burn with love when you speak."

Gospel

John 21:1-19

At that time, Jesus revealed himself again to his disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself in this way. Together were Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, Zebedee's sons, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We also will come with you." So they went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. When it was already dawn, Jesus was standing on the shore; but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, have you caught anything to eat?" They answered him, "No." So he said to them, "Cast the net over the right side of the boat and you will find something." So they cast it, and were not able to pull it in because of the number of fish. So the disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord." When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he tucked in his garment, for he was lightly clad, and jumped into the sea. The other disciples came in the boat, for they were not far from shore, only about a hundred yards, dragging the net with the fish. When they climbed out on shore, they saw a charcoal fire with fish on it and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish you just caught." So Simon Peter went over and dragged the net ashore full of one hundred fifty-three large fish. Even though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come, have breakfast." And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. This was now the third time Jesus was revealed to his disciples after being raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." He then said to Simon Peter a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Simon Peter answered him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." Jesus said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was distressed that Jesus had said to him a third time, "Do you love me?" and he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Amen, amen, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to dress yourself and go where you wanted; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." He said this signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. And when he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me." Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Mike Bayard, S.J.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

All bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became human.

All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Today is our monthly collection for our St. Vincent de Paul Conference.

The generous donations of St. Joseph parishioners, collected after Masses on the first Sunday of each month, provide the means by which we can help people in need with food, clothing, rent, bus fare and utility bills. We have no overhead expenses, so 100 percent of donations go to help the people we visit. Please give on your way out of Mass. Thank you!

ARCHDIOCESE OF SEATTLE

Annual Catholic Appeal

We invite you to take part in the 2025 Annual Catholic Appeal. This annual campaign raises funds for our archdiocesan ministries and services, all of which play a critical role in helping St. Joseph & St. Therese serve you and bring the good news to others.

The Annual Catholic Appeal helps meet the spiritual and practical needs of our faith community here in Western Washington. Your contributions support seminarian and lay formation as well as regional youth and young adult events. Your support also provides for ministries that empower all our parishes and schools to be places of welcoming and belonging, including multicultural ministry, disability inclusion ministry and immigrant and refugee ministry.

Your Annual Catholic Appeal donation also funds archdiocesan shared services that directly support our parish.

Our parish utilizes centralized services – including human resources, liturgy guidance, communications, technology, and more – so that we can continue to focus on our pastoral work here at the parish. Our parish goal is $218,482.00. We can only meet this goal together!

Please consider your support. You can donate at our website, www.stjosephparish.org.

CLIMATE JUSTICE AT ST. JOSEPH

FOREST FACTS: The forest floor of a legacy forest is moist and spongey. It soaks up carbon from the atmosphere, charges the air with oxygen, and gives protection from wildfire due to all the moisture it holds. The forest floor of a young plantation forest is compacted and dry, adds carbon to the atmosphere, and is very prone to wildfires. Old forests—not young tree plantations—are “the lungs of the earth.”

Visit the CJC Creation Shrine in the foyer of the church today! Sign the letter to Public Lands Commissioner Dave Upthegrove to spare legacy forest parcel Doc Holliday from being clearcut and turned into a plantation forest. Mr. Upthegrove told us he needs to hear from the citizens to help this happen. NUMBERS MATTER. Please sign today!
