Glory to God

Storrington Mass

Haugen

Glo-ry to God in the high-est, and on earth peace to peo-ple of good will.
will. A - men, a - men, a - men.

1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;

- you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading

Acts 13:14, 43-52

Paul and Barnabas continued on from Perga and reached Antioch in Pisidia. On the sabbath they entered the synagogue and took their seats. Many Jews and worshipers who were converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, who spoke to them and urged them to remain faithful to the grace of God.

On the following sabbath almost the whole city gathered to hear the word of the Lord. When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and with violent abuse contradicted what Paul said. Both Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, "It was necessary that the word of God be spoken to you first, but since you reject it and condemn yourselves as unworthy of eternal life, we now turn to the Gentiles. For so the Lord has commanded us, I have made you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be an instrument of salvation to the ends of the earth."

The Gentiles were delighted when they heard this and glorified the word of the Lord. All who were destined for eternal life came to believe, and the word of the Lord continued to spread through the whole region. The Jews, however, incited the women of prominence who were worshipers and the leading men of the city, stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their territory. So they shook the dust from their feet in protest against them, and went to Iconium. The disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit. Thanks be to God.

Psalm

Psalm 100

McWalter-Huff

Sing joyfully to the Lord, all you lands, all you lands;
serve the Lord now with gladness, come before God singing for joy. Ref.

Know that the Lord is God; He is God, He is God.
Who made us the sheep of his flock, God's people he shepherds with love. Ref.

Indeed the Lord is good, He is good, He is good.
Faithful from age to age, his mercy endures forever. Ref.

Second Reading

Revelation 7:9, 14b-17

I, John, had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands.

Then one of the elders said to me, "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

"For this reason they stand before God's throne and worship him day and night in his temple. The one who sits on the throne will shelter them. They will not hunger or thirst anymore, nor will the sun or any heat strike them. For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes." Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Ash

"I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep and mine know me."

Gospel

John 10:27-30

Jesus said: "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one." Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

CHORAL: The Thorn Tree

Glen/Crandal

In rock where time had carved a cave, the Savior slept when he was born.
And underfoot lay stone and dust, and overhead a tree of thorn.

At Gabbatha, where Pilate sat, the Savior met with fear and scorn.
And underfoot lay stone and dust, and overhead a bleeding thorn.

In rock where time had carved a cave, the Savior slept, his body torn.
And underfoot lay stone and dust, and overhead a broken thorn.

From rock where time had carved a cave, the Savior rose on Easter morn.
And underfoot, a field of wheat, and overhead, a flow'ring thorn!

Annual Catholic Appeal

This annual campaign raises funds for our archdiocesan ministries and services, all of which play a critical role in helping St. Joseph & St. Therese serve you and bring the good news to others.

Our parish goal is $218,482.00. We can only meet this goal together! Please consider your support! You can use the below QR to donate or at our website, www.stjosephparish.org.

Annual Catholic Appeal 2025

TOGETHER IN FAITH

WE ARE THE CATHOLIC CHURCH
IN WESTERN WASHINGTON

We celebrate Mass and pray together. We care for the sick and visit the homebound. We teach youth our faith and invite new Catholics into the faith. We welcome the stranger and visit the incarcerated. We are the living body of Jesus Christ. Together in Faith, we are the Catholic Church of Western Washington.

The Annual Catholic Appeal is an opportunity for you to support the mission of the Church in Western Washington. Your gift supports faith formation, local outreach, education, administration ministries for parishes – and much more.

Your support of the Annual Catholic Appeal provides ministries that no one parish can manage alone. Together in faith, your support fosters the mission of the Catholic Church and brings more than 60 ministries to life across Western Washington.
