First Reading

Romans 12:4-13

Carson Holzli

For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness. Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, and serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, and persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 71

Carroll

Refrain: Ever since I was young, the Lord has nourished me.
Now that I am older, I will praise God when I sing.

Gospel Acclamation

Celtic Alleluia

Gospel

Matthew 5:13-16

Deacon Steve Wodzanowski

Jesus said to his disciples: "You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled underfoot. "You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hidden. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under a bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven."

All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

St. Theresa's Prayer

Talbot

Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours.
Yours are the eyes through which He looks, compassion on this world.
Yours are the feet with which He walks to do good.
Yours are the hands with which He blesses all the world.

Yours are the hands, yours are the feet. Yours are the eyes, you are His body.

Christ has no body now but yours, no hands, no feet on earth but yours.
Yours are the eyes through which He looks, compassion on this world.
Christ has no body now on earth but yours.

Thank you so much to our Eighth Grade Teachers
