First Reading

Acts 12:1-11

In those days, King Herod laid hands upon some members of the Church to harm them. He had James, the brother of John, killed by the sword, and when he saw that this was pleasing to the Jews he proceeded to arrest Peter also. –It was the feast of Unleavened Bread.– He had him taken into custody and put in prison under the guard of four squads of four soldiers each. He intended to bring him before the people after Passover. Peter thus was being kept in prison, but prayer by the Church was fervently being made to God on his behalf.

On the very night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter, secured by double chains, was sleeping between two soldiers, while outside the door guards kept watch on the prison. Suddenly the angel of the Lord stood by him and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Peter on the side and awakened him, saying, “Get up quickly.” The chains fell from his wrists. The angel said to him, “Put on your belt and your sandals.” He did so. Then he said to him, “Put on your cloak and follow me.” So he followed him out, not realizing that what was happening through the angel was real; he thought he was seeing a vision. They passed the first guard, then the second, and came to the iron gate leading out to the city, which opened for them by itself. They emerged and made their way down an alley, and suddenly the angel left him. Then Peter recovered his senses and said,

“Now I know for certain that the Lord sent his angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people had been expecting.”

Psalm

Psalm 34

Foley

The Lord hears the cry of the poor. Bless-ed be the Lord.
I will bless the Lord at all times, with praise ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the Lord, who will hear the cry of the poor. Ref.

Let the lowly hear and be glad: the Lord listens to their pleas;
And to hearts broken, God is near, who will hear the cry of the poor. Ref.

Every spirit crushed, God will save; will be ransom for their lives;
Will be safe shelter for their fears, and will hear the cry of the poor. Ref.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 4:6-8, 17-18

I, Paul, am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance.

The Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the proclamation might be completed and all the Gentiles might hear it. And I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly Kingdom. To him be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

Haugen

You are Peter and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it.

Gospel

Matthew 16:13-19

When Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus said to him in reply, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

Reflection

Theresa Shepherd-Lukasik

Profession of Faith

I believe in God,
the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,

(All bow)

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,

(All stand upright)

suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried;

he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

Parish Family Advisory Council Update

Several weeks ago, I promised that the appointment of the Parish Family Advisory Council (PFAC) would be an open process. I asked our four faith communities to prayerfully consider serving on this consultative body. I was blown away by the response! Over 30 candidates were willing to take a leap of faith and put their name in or accept nomination to the PFAC. During our communal discernment the overwhelming sentiment echoed by all was a general feeling that regardless of who was chosen, our parish family will be in good hands with the PFAC.

After prayerful discernment, in consultation with our Parish Leadership Team I have invited the following people to serve on the Parish Family Advisory Council.

St. Therese: Brenda Fackler, Sara Cotto, Sharon Spence-Wilcox, and David Okada

St. Patrick: Karla Bocek and Polly Young

St. Joseph: Jim Dean, Wendy Kristek, Peter Heymann, and Carmen Bendixen

St. Mary: David Coffey

There will be frequent opportunities for EVERYONE... and I mean everyone in our parish family to participate and contribute their gifts and talents towards the goal of becoming One Canonical Parish. We will not be successful if we think that the Parish Family Advisory Council or the staff or the Parish Leadership Team will be the only ones involved. The Partners in the Gospel Process needs EVERYONE!

Going forward, you will hear regular updates on the work of the PFAC. For now, I ask everyone's prayers for those who serve on this important council! Please feel free to reach out to me with any questions you have.

So, let us move forward, without fear, together, hand in hand with God and with one another other! We are followers of Christ. Christ goes before us...Humanity needs him as the bridge that can lead us to God and his love. Help us, one and all, to build bridges through dialogue and encounter, joining together as one people.
