Trick Or Treat For Jesuits

Each year thousands, yes thousands of witches, wizards and some saints visit the Jesuit house on Halloween night. Help us feed these hungry souls by bringing a bag or two of candy to the Parish Center or to Mass. Thank you!

The State of the Parish & Cultivating the Seeds of the Future

God, who calls us to generous commitment and to give him our all, offers us the light and the strength needed to continue on our way. In the heart of the world, the Lord of life, who loves us so much, is always present.

-Pope Francis-

Dear Sisters and Brothers of St. Joseph, Peace of Christ!

The summer before I entered college, I was working for my father, when he called me into his office and asked me to take a seat. "John," he said, "your mother and I have always tried to give you the best education we could afford, and to support every opportunity for you to have a good life. Before you leave for college, I want you to know that we don't ever expect you to pay us back for this—it isn't a debt you owe us. But, we do expect that you will do the same for your children. That's how you pay us back: by making sure your children have all the opportunities you can give them." Long before "paying it forward" became part of popular culture, my parents already knew that the good we've received in life—the blessings of love and community, of resources and talent—carry with them not a debt to the past, but a responsibility to the future. We have reaped what others have sown, and now we are called to feed those who are hungry, and sow the seeds of future feasts.

At St. Joseph, we feast on the harvest our ancestors planted: the towering church, where we gather to wed and worship, to bury our dead and baptize our children; the wonderful school, where our children grow in grace and knowledge; the faith formation programs, which nurture the young in the Sacraments, and feed the minds and hearts of our adults; the faith that does justice, which unites us to Chief Seattle Club and St. Francis House, to St. Martin de Porres and St. Vincent de Paul, to the women of Jubilee and the children of Westside Baby, and which sits us at the table of the world through our Sister Parish in El Salvador and our colleagues in Shirts Across America.

As I begin my seventh year at St. Joseph, I continue to marvel at the generosity of those who began these programs and built these relationships, who gave their hearts and hands, their prayer and treasure to sow the seeds of life in our community. In the last few years, many of these sisters and brothers have gone home to God; yet their gifts remain and flourish. I am moved, as well, by those who carry on their work: making programs better, adapting them to new populations and new technologies, ensuring that the graces planted at St. Joseph will bear fruit, so that a new generation might be fed.

Yet even as I marvel at the past and am moved by the present, I feel the responsibility to preserve this legacy of grace and pass it on, enriched by my own small gifts. And though I thought—as a person without children—I had outfoxed my father's call to pay back by paying forward, I see now that my responsibility for the future cannot be avoided merely by celibacy. For, through the gift of His body and blood, Jesus has given us all an inheritance we cannot ignore, and has sent us "ignited by the Eucharist to love and serve," i.e., to preserve and build, to harvest and plant for those who have yet to be born.

Today St. Joseph Parish and School is strong and growing stronger, as we meet our responsibility to the future by coordinating and integrating our various ministries, by developing flexible and responsive communication, and by doing what is needed to maintain and improve our physical plant for the service of our mission.

In the fourth year of our Strategic Plan, we have created Councils and Commissions that open the doors of leadership, calling all parishioners to help build our future. We have improved our welcome of new parishioners and grown in our support of those already here. Adult Faith Formation, so often episodic at St. Joseph, is being cultivated and pruned to make it more accessible and more broadly appealing, even as Children's Faith Formation continues to flourish. Meanwhile, through our developing use of social media and the web—most noticeably in the Parish e-blast—we are spreading a living gospel and evangelizing in a way suited to busy parishioners and those beyond our Parish boundaries. Yet even as we reach far afield, greater coordination of common needs in our Parish and School helps us use our resources more effectively, while maintaining the necessary independence of these two parts of our historic mission.

Through many hands, and in many directions, the seeds of the future are being sown and cultivated, trusting that the Lord of the Harvest will bring us the workers we need—i.e., trusting that Christ will bring all parishioners into the mission and ministry of St. Joseph.

St. Joseph needs you, along with your friends and neighbors, to reap the harvest of Christ, and to sow the seeds of the future. We need you to become a full and active member of this community, and to commit yourself to these three steps (some of which you may already have accomplished):

1. ACTIVATE: If you have not yet done so, please register officially as a member of St. Joseph, either online or by dropping a written form into the collection basket or by the office. This need only be done once;

2. AFFIRM: Each year, please send in a pledge card, telling us that you choose to be a part of this community, giving whatever you can—prayer, especially, and financial support, if you are able;

3. PARTICIPATE: Everything at St. Joseph depends on those who share its life, in whatever way you can: come to Mass, serve in a ministry, sustain the poor, learn the faith—proclaim the Gospel in companionship with all.

In the following pages, you will find a snapshot of how we have used the offerings shared with us for the Parish's mission of service and prayer. You will also find an invitation to be part of this mission.

May God, who makes whatever is given enough for the whole Church, bless us all in the work we have yet to fulfill.

Yours in Christ,

John D. Whitney, S.J.

First Reading

Wisdom 7:7-11

I prayed, and prudence was given me;
I pleaded, and the spirit of wisdom came to me.
I preferred her to scepter and throne,
and deemed riches nothing in comparison with her,
nor did I liken any priceless gem to her;
because all gold, in view of her, is a little sand,
and before her, silver is to be accounted mire.
Beyond health and comeliness I loved her,
and I chose to have her rather than the light,
because the splendor of her never yields to sleep.
Yet all good things together came to me in her company,
and countless riches at her hands.

Responsorial Psalm

Fill Us With Your Love

Boldac

Second Reading

Hebrews 4:12-13

Brothers and sisters: Indeed the word of God is living and effective, sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating even between soul and spirit, joints and marrow, and able to discern reflections and thoughts of the heart. No creature is concealed from him, but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of him to whom we must render an account.

Gospel

Mark 10:17-30

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus answered him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; you shall not defraud; honor your father and your mother." He replied and said to him, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. So Jesus again said to them in reply, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." Peter began to say to him, "We have given up everything and followed you." Jesus said, "Amen, I say to you, there is no one who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not receive a hundred times more now in this present age: houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and eternal life in the age to come."

ST. JOSEPH PARISH

THE JESUIT PARISH IN SEATTLE

Your Gifts & Their Use: The Financials of St. Joseph

I am pleased to present our financials for the fiscal year 2014-2015. In this second year of strengthening our infrastructure, with the generous help of so many in our community, we have made significant investments for the future.

In this fiscal year we have:

- Improved our communications with the hiring of Jack Hilovsky as our communications manager
- Designed, built & launched our new website and the new e-blast format
- Replaced all outdated computers in the Parish Center
- Purchased new chairs for the Social Hall
- Replaced the commercial refrigerator in our Arrupe kitchen
- Replaced the sleeping mats for our Winter Shelter guests
- Combined the Parish and School facility teams to better manage our resources
- Combined the Parish and School advancement staffs into a cohesive team for the block
- Re-established our Welcoming Committee to better respond to the many new parishioners who register each year

As you can see, much of our investment has been behind-the-scenes. You will note that we reached into savings for $21,000 during FY 15 because the pace of setting up the technological infrastructure (wonderfully) escalated. The great news is that we have now accomplished what we anticipated would take 3 years!

Let us not forget how we as a community respond to the call for help. We have been able to generously give of our bounty to those in need: El Salvador Sister Parish, Nepal Relief, Noel House, the Nativity School, St. Martin de Porres, St. Mary's Food Bank, CRS – Rice Bowl and the collection for the Holy Land.

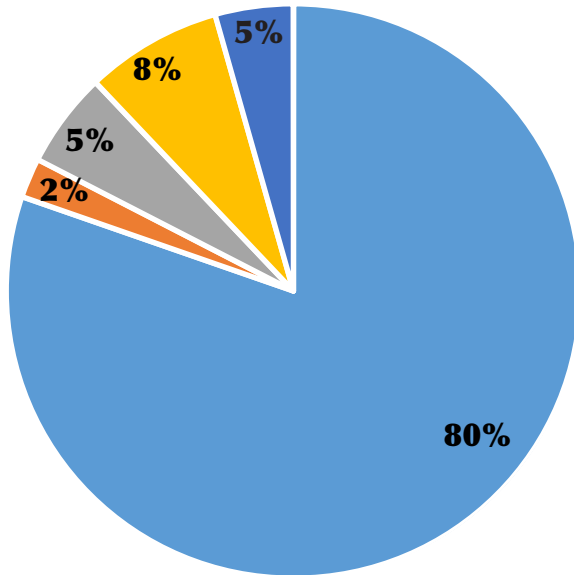

Finally, as you look at our financials you will note that--at the urging of our Finance Council--we have moved depreciation "below the line." This means we continue to put aside money each year to care for our Church, but since there is no tax benefit, we represent it differently in our financials.

I am so grateful to serve the St. Joseph community: our many accomplishments are because of your ongoing support. As we continue to walk together I encourage you to come to me should you have any questions or comments.

With gratitude,

Rebecca Frisino
Pastoral Assistant for Administration

Sponsors Needed For RCIA

We are in need of 7-10 adults who can be a faith companion to someone going through the RCIA process to join the Catholic Faith.

The St. Joseph Parish community promises prayerful support for, and to walk with, each prospective new member of the Catholic Church. The role of RCIA Sponsor is the fulfillment of that promise. As a Sponsor you are assigned a Candidate (baptized adult) or Catechumen (unbaptized adult) whose continuing faith journey you will share.

Being a Sponsor is like being a trusted friend. You share what you can about your own faith journey. You offer counsel and support as you are able and to the extent that it is needed or desired. You serve as a bridge to the larger St. Joseph community. You listen and you pray. Each relationship between a Sponsor and a Candidate or Catechumen is unique. As a Sponsor, you walk with a Candidate or Catechumen through a formation process that culminates with initiation into the Catholic Church.

Many prospective Sponsors ask themselves whether they are worthy or qualified. The role of Sponsor is not that of catechist. You are not expected to know every aspect of the Church's teaching, but rather simply to be a guide, an example of a Catholic living your faith as best as you can. A Sponsor who can admit his or her limitations and who continually tries to grow is an excellent faith model. Sponsors are supported by the parish's RCIA Team, members of whom can be called upon to help answer a Candidate's or Catechumen's questions.

If interested, please contact Deacon Steve at stevev@stjosephparish.org or 206-965-1646.

LITURGY AND WORSHIP

The Rosary At St. Joseph

St. Joseph parishioners have been praying the Rosary since the church was built. The grace of the prayer to the Holy Mother has lit the journey to Jesus through painful addictions in families, the loss of loved ones and when everything seems darkest. Many Catholics have historically viewed Mary as the person who will defeat evil on earth.

Praying the Rosary can help us face the often harsh realities of life with hope and grace. Many who've prayed the Rosary have experienced a sense of peacefulness during challenging times. Pray the Rosary at St. Joseph for the first time or the thousandth. People will help guide those who are just learning. Bring your own Rosary beads, count on your fingers or use a smartphone app such as iRosary.

Everyone is welcome to pray the Rosary,
Mondays from 7 to 8 pm
in the Parish Center
Loyola Chapel

Sacred Silence

A time for silent prayer and peace

The Sacred Silence prayer group gathers on Monday nights at 7 pm in the Church for an hour of silent prayer. Newcomers always welcome. Open to all types of prayer practice. People are encouraged to use whatever silent prayer practice works best for them whether it is centering prayer, Ignatian imagination or another prayer. Time is spent both sitting and walking in silence.

For information on Sacred Silence and silent prayer contact Jim Hoover at sacredsilence@stjosephparish.org or 206-286-0313.

Liturgical Ministries

"OPEN ENROLLMENT" for new Liturgical Ministers is now through Oct. 15th. If you are interested in serving as a lector, eucharistic minister or usher please visit the liturgy section of the parish website for more information and to sign up or contact one of the ministry captains for consultation. You can always contact Pastoral Assistant for Liturgy Robert McCaffery-Lent as well at rmclent@stjosephparish.org or 206-965-1649.

Liturgy & Worship Commission

St. Joseph's Liturgy and Worship Commission is seeking new members. The Liturgy and Worship Commission promotes and deepens the communal prayer of the St. Joseph community by:

- sustaining the living traditions and practices of the Church;
- developing and supporting other forms of prayer and spiritual enlightenment;
- evaluating and discerning the on-going worship of the People of God

We meet on Wednesday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00 pm in the Parish Center. Meeting dates are: December 16, January 20, March 16 and May 18. If interested please contact Pastoral Assistant for Liturgy and Music Robert McCaffery-Lent at Rmclent@stjosephparish.org or 206-965-1649. We are looking for 2-4 new members who can commit to either a 1, 2 or 3 year term.

New Principal Organist/Pianist

As many of you know our young accompanist of this past year, Will Gerhardt, has taken a teaching position at a Jesuit run school in Cambodia.

I am happy to announce that we have hired Matthew Samelak to be the next Principal Organist/Pianist at Saint Joseph. Following is a brief bio so that you can get to know him a little bit. I know you will reach out to him and give him a warm welcome to St. Joseph.

Matthew, a native of Toledo, Ohio, became organist for his home parish, St. Anthony (boasting Toledo's highest steeple of 267 feet), at the age of 10. He pursued a long career in church music, receiving degrees in Church Music and Organ Performance from Westminster Choir College and the University of Michigan. He also studied the art of Improvisation with the French masters at the Schola Cantorum in Paris, France. Over the past 20 years he has served as a Music Minister at parishes in the Archdiocese of Detroit, Michigan. Matthew moved to Seattle in March 2014 and pursued a Certificate in Culinary Arts from Le Cordon Bleu. He currently resides in West Seattle.
