the jar of flour did not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, as the LORD had foretold through Elijah...
The Beach Bash Blessing

When the Jesuits were asked to form a church community on Capitol Hill, first as a mission of Immaculate Conception—the original Jesuit Parish in Seattle—and then as an independent parish, it was not long before they began work on a school. The first St. Joseph School, begun by the Jesuits themselves, occupied the basement rooms of the old clapboard church. But within a year, the Sisters of the Holy Names had arrived to get things really started, and soon construction on a free-standing structure was begun. Today, the “old school”—as long-time parishioners still call it—houses just a part of the educational enterprise which is St. Joseph School, a ministry still essential to the mission and life of St. Joseph Parish.

St. Joseph School, as the largest ministry of the Parish, helps to promote among both parents and students the Jesuit values of collaboration and inclusion, compassion and cooperation, academic excellence and faith that does justice. And it does so with love and humor, with an appreciation for developmental differences, and with a dedication to the goal of providing sufficient financial support so that any qualified student might be able to attend St. Joseph. As a means of achieving this last goal, every year, over two evenings, the School Auction raises thousands of dollars for financial aid and other needs that keep St. Joseph both excellent and accessible. And for most of the last 10 years, I have offered a prayer, tailored to the theme of the auction, to help open the hearts of those present and to invoke the Spirit on this important endeavor...usually, with a bit of humor.

Given a weekend of rain and wind, this year’s theme, Beach Bash, offered a challenge for the prayer’s composition, but here was my best shot. I hope you enjoy it and that it reminds you—whether you were at the auction or not—of the graces God gives us and the joys we are called to share.

Bless This Beach

Wet and cold the Autumn chill,
Steely grey the skies;
Sweaters drawn from cedar chests,
And caps pulled o’er eyes.

Traffic fills these pot-holed streets,
While cranes dwarf all the trees,
Soggy leaves stain kitchen floors,
And sniffles bear disease.

Winter’s coming, as we know,
Rain, grown colder, falls
And as the darkness round us grows,
Hibernation calls.

But in our hearts, O gracious God,
You have set the sun,
And though the outer world seems bare,
Within, the summer’s come.
For we see here no gym disguised,
But parasols, instead,
And in our hearts the tide is high,
And sea-foam wets our head.

We hear the roar of breakers now,
Beneath these azure skies,
And feel the sand between our toes,
While sipping sweet Mai-Tais.

Dear God, you send us all this warmth,
That we might know your joy,
And see the sunshine of our lives
In every girl and boy.

That they may grow up on this beach,
To sail ‘cross seas unknown,
With freedom, joy, and constant love—
Then find their way back home!

So let this Beach Bash now commence,
Your blessings bring to shore,
And for these kids, who are our lights,
Let’s bid a little more.

In Autumn, Winter, Summer, Spring,
Please grace us with your light,
Great Father, Son, and Spirit true,
We pray to you this night.

Amen.

(5:30) Prayer Of Peace

Haas/Navajo
First Reading 1 Kings 17:10-16
In those days, Elijah the prophet went to Zarephath. As he arrived at the entrance of the city, a widow was gathering sticks there; he called out to her, “Please bring me a small cupful of water to drink.” She left to get it, and he called out after her, “Please bring along a bit of bread.” She answered, “As the LORD, your God, lives, I have nothing baked; there is only a handful of flour in my jar and a little oil in my jug. Just now I was collecting a couple of sticks, to go in and prepare something for myself and my son; when we have eaten it, we shall die.” Elijah said to her, “Do not be afraid. Go and do as you propose. But first make me a little cake and bring it to me. Then you can prepare something for yourself and your son. For the LORD, the God of Israel, says, ‘The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, until the day when the LORD sends rain upon the earth.’” She left and did as Elijah had said. She was able to eat for a year, and he and her son as well; the jar of flour did not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, as the LORD had foretold through Elijah.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 146
Put no trust in the powerful, mere mortals in whom there is no help.
Take their breath, they return to clay, and their plans that day come to nothing.
They are happy who are helped by Jacob’s God, whose hope is in the Lord their God, who alone made heaven and earth, the sea’s and all they contain. Ref.

It is the Lord who keeps faith forever, who is just to the oppressed.
It is God who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free.
It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down,
The Lord who protects the stranger, and upholds the widow and orphan. Ref.

It is the Lord who loves the just but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign forever, Zion’s God from age to age. Ref.

Second Reading Hebrews 9:24-28
Christ did not enter into a sanctuary made by hands, a copy of the true one, but heaven itself, that he might now appear before God on our behalf. Not that he might offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters each year into the sanctuary with blood that is not his own; if that were so, he would have had to suffer repeatedly from the foundation of the world. But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice. Just as it is appointed that human beings die once, and after this the judgment, so also Christ, offered once to take away the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to take away sin but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him.

Gospel Acclamation Syrian Hallelujah
Blessed are the poor in spirit; for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.
Gospel

In the course of his teaching Jesus said to the crowds, “Beware of the scribes, who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces, seats of honor in synagogues, and places of honor at banquets. They devour the houses of widows and, as a pretext recite lengthy prayers. They will receive a very severe condemnation.”

He sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, “Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood.”

Offertory

The Cry Of the Poor

Verses

1. I will bless the Lord at all times, with praise ever in my mouth. Let my soul glory in the Lord, who will hear the cry of the poor.

2. Let the lowly hear and be glad; the Lord listens to their pleas; and to hearts broken, God is near, who will hear the cry of the poor.

3. Every spirit crushed, God will save; will be ransom for their lives; will be safe shelter for their fears, and will hear the cry of the poor.

4. We proclaim your greatness, O God, your praise ever in our mouth; every face brightened in your light, for you hear the cry of the poor.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Storrington Mass
The Lord is my shepherd, nothing shall I want. My shepherd makes me lie in fields of green, leads me beside still waters. The Lord is my shepherd who restores my life. Leads me in the paths of righteousness for the sake of the Lord's name.

And even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil. For you are with me, your rod and your staff will comfort me. You prepare a table before me, in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil, my cup overflows. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life. And in the house of my God I will live forever. The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

Connect with St. Joseph
Welcoming Weekend

If you are new to St. Joseph or you are a registered member who has been attending for years and are interested in connecting within the Parish. Please visit our welcome table in the vestibule after Mass this weekend. Members of our welcoming committee are here to answer questions you might have about the many ministries and programs here at St. Joseph.

Recorded Homilies

St. Joseph is now recording the homily each weekend. We are sharing those recordings on our website, www.stjo-sephparish.org and also on our Facebook page, www.facebook.com/stjosephseattle. Please feel free to listen and to share them with others. We hope you enjoy this new feature.

Special Collection

Our partner in ministry, St. Francis House was broken into. Their van, cash box, grocery and gas cards, bus tickets, and many supplies for those in need in Seattle were taken.

To assist them, St. Joseph is hosting a special collection that will be donated to St. Francis House.

You can donate at Mass this weekend, using the blue "Special Collection" envelopes or you can donate online at our website www.stjosephparish.org
STEWARDSHIP

Ways to Donate

We are grateful for your prayerful consideration of a stewardship gift to St. Joseph Parish! For over a century, St. Joseph has been here: serving people in faith, educating the young with hope, and engaging the world with the love of Christ Jesus and the power of the Gospel. Together, we ensure that our century-old commitment will endure.

Below are a few examples of the many ways our parishioners and friends support our parish. For more information or assistance in making your gift, please don’t hesitate to contact Tina O’Brien, Director of Advancement at stewardship@stjosephparish.org or (206) 965.1654.

Make an Immediate Impact

- Cash gifts—the simplest and easiest gift you can make—can be made by credit card, personal check, cashier’s check, or money order made payable to St. Joseph Parish. Make a gift today online at www.stjosephparish.org.

- Gifts of appreciated securities, stocks and bonds provide considerable tax advantages when transferred to St. Joseph Parish before they are sold. Learn more by contacting Tina O’Brien, Director of Advancement at stewardship@stjosephparish.org or (206) 965.1654.

- Recurring gifts can help sustain your impact through regular and consistent contributions to St. Joseph Parish. You can arrange for gifts to come to the parish through electronic fund transfer, set up your credit card to be charged a certain amount at a frequency of your choosing, or use the small envelopes provided by the parish. Arrange for a recurring gift online at www.stjosephparish.org.

- In-kind gifts can provide items that our community partners desperately need such as toiletries, paper products, baby items, clothing, and the like. Contact our outreach partners regarding contributions of goods and services or bring food items to Mass for our special collections.

Many, many thanks to all who have made gifts and pledges to our annual stewardship appeal. To date, we have received 130 pledges which is 7% of our families, totaling $472,064 toward our goal of $1,700,000. We are endlessly grateful for your commitment to St. Joseph Parish! If you haven’t yet affirmed your active membership in our parish, please do so, and prayerfully consider what, if any, gift you are able to give to support our work.

Liturgy and Worship

Liturgy & Worship Survey

This weekend begins the St. Joseph online liturgy evaluation sponsored by the parish Liturgy and Worship Commission. This evaluative tool is designed to assist the pastor and parish staff in understanding the aspects of liturgy that support parishioners in active and meaningful participation in the liturgy. We want to know what elements of how we celebrate Mass together help deepen your experience of worship and/or your engagement in the community. We also want to hear from you about elements of our worship together that take away from your experience, that you have questions about and/or that you find distracting.

The survey is currently “live” on the parish website. Simply go to the parish website at https://www.stjosephparish.org and click on the link right there on the front page. The evaluation will conclude at midnight on Sunday, November 25th. If you do not have access to a computer or would prefer to fill out a paper evaluation, you can pick one up from the receptionist at the Parish Center. Paper surveys must be dropped off by 7 pm on November 25th. Your feedback is important so thank you for taking the time to fill out an evaluation.

Come Pray With Us!

Monday Night Prayer Groups

Join us in prayer on Monday, November 12th at 7 pm. There are two prayer groups meeting. Join our Sacred Silence prayer group in the Church or come pray the Rosary in the Parish Center Chapel.

Praying the Rosary can help us face the often harsh realities of life with hope and grace. People will help guide those who are just learning.
