Mass Changes

The weekend in-person Masses will now be capped at 75 people instead of the previous 50 people. Additionally, there will no longer be a Monday 7 am livestream Mass, we will continue to livestream Tuesday - Friday daily Mass on our YouTube channel.

Important Reminder

Remember: make sure you social distance when you are inside the church. At least six feet apart!

Prayer Tree

The St. Joseph community extends its prayers and hopes for the following intentions:

Let us walk closer to the Lord and trust in His wisdom and grace in every situation. May we take time to pray for peace in our world, in our families and in our hearts.

For those whom we have been asked to pray: Jim, Joel, John, Julia, Larry, Margaret, Mike, and Steve.

Say Their Names: Victims of Seattle Police, 2010-2020

At the invitation of Immaculate Conception Parish, in solidarity with Seattle's Black community, we remember the people who have died at the hands of the Seattle Police Department over the last ten years. Each one was a son or daughter, and many were fathers and mothers. Each was a child of God, beloved by the Creator.

Use this opportunity to meditate on ways that you can contribute to a more just and peaceful society. Talk to your family about racism in America, and pray for the families of the victims. Not only must we remember them, but also realize that Seattle is no different than other American cities where Black folks, Indigenous folks, and People of Color, often unarmed, are killed by police. Say their names.

Invitation to Join in Solidarity with Victims of Police Violence

St. Joe's is planning a public display of solidarity for victims of police violence. On the first weekend in November, commemorating the Feast of All Souls, we will be placing thirty signs on the northeast lawn, each containing the name of a person killed by the Seattle Police Department.

Before the installation, we invite families to take a sign home with them and decorate the border of the signs with tasteful art and phrases of hope, healing, and solidarity. You can pick up the signs in the Vestibule during the times listed below, and drop them off in the Hospitality Room any time the church is open before Oct 26th. For more information or to arrange for a different pick-up or drop-off time, contact Deacon Steve at steve@stjosephparish.org or Mark Petterson at markp@stjosephparish.org

Pick-up times: Tuesday, Oct. 13, 12-1pm, Thursday, Oct 15, 12-1pm, Sunday, Oct. 18, 12-1pm, & Tuesday, Oct. 20, 12-1pm.

Entrance Song

A Place Called Home

FINLANDIA/Joncas

1. A place called home with com - fort for the wea - ry:
2. A place called home, a pro - mise for to - mor - row:

A place called home of nou - rish - ment and rest:
A place called home, a vi - sion hand - ed down:

A place called home that wel - comes in the stran - ger,
A place called home for all God's sons and daugh - ters,

Where one un - known be - comes a wel - come guest.
Where love pre - vails and peace is ev - er found,

Where love can find a hu - man ha - bi - ta - tion:
Where hope can find a hu - man ha - bi - ta - tion:

God grant us all this grace: a place called home.
God grant us all this grace: a place called home.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will.

1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.
2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

First Reading

Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

Thus says the LORD to his anointed, Cyrus, whose right hand I grasp,
subduing nations before him,
and making kings run in his service,
opening doors before him
and leaving the gates unbarred:
For the sake of Jacob, my servant,
of Israel, my chosen one,
I have called you by your name,
giving you a title, though you knew me not.
I am the LORD and there is no other,
there is no God besides me.
It is I who arm you, though you know me not,
so that toward the rising and the setting of the sun people may know that there is none besides me.
I am the LORD, there is no other.

Psalm

Psalm 96: Give the Lord Glory and Honor

Guimont

O sing a new song to the LORD; sing to the LORD, all the earth.
Tell among the nations his glory, and his wonders among all the peoples.

For the LORD is great and highly to be praised, to be feared above all gods.
For the gods of the nations are naught. It was the LORD who made the heavens.

Give the LORD, you families of peoples, give the LORD glory and power;
give the LORD the glory of his name. Bring an offering and enter his courts.

Worship the LORD in holy splendor. O tremble before him, all the earth.
Say to the nations, "The LORD is king." He will judge the peoples in fairness.

Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: grace to you and peace. We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father, knowing, brothers and sisters loved by God, how you were chosen. For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction.

Gospel Acclamation

"Shine like lights in the world as you hold on to the word of life. "

Gospel

Matthew 22:15-21

The Pharisees went off and plotted how they might entrap Jesus in speech. They sent their disciples to him, with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are a truthful man and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. And you are not concerned with anyone's opinion, for you do not regard a person's status. Tell us, then, what is your opinion: Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? Show me the coin that pays the census tax." Then they handed him the Roman coin. He said to them, "Whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." At that he said to them, "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Young Adult Community Listening Session

You're invited to a Young Adult listening session, on Zoom, on October 21 from 7:30-8pm.

This might be the hardest time ever to get connected with other Young Adults as a new member of the community. We'd like to change that. The goal of this session is simple - we want to find out what's working at St. Joe's, what's not, and how we can help.

We want to help you stay connected as we grow in our faith together and do our part to stop the spread of COVID. For example, we are looking into how we can safely and responsibly gather in small groups at the church.

We know many of you spend endless hours in front of a screen because of your work. But this Zoom call will have a direct, immediate impact on St. Joe's plans for the Young Adult group. We really hope you will join us for this.

For the Zoom link, or to contribute thoughts and questions for a post-session survey, email Deacon Steve at stevev@stjosephparish.org or youngadultcommunity@stjosephparish.org

Young Adult Bible Study

Thursdays, starting October 29th, 6:30pm-8:00pm - Virtual via Zoom (email us for the link!)

Join us every Thursday from October 29th through November 19th as we read through The Great Divorce by C.S. Lewis! This is a great opportunity to dive deeper into your faith through thought-provoking and encouraging discussions. Contact youngadultcommunity@stjosephparish.org for more information.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Bulletin-by-Mail

Would you like a paper bulletin mailed to your home? Let us know! Email Renee Leet at rleet@stjosephparish.org or Caprice Sauter at caprices@stjosephparish.org with your name and address, and we will add you to the bulletin mailing list!

1st Friday Online Healing Prayer Service

November 6th - 11:30am – 12:30pm

In keeping with our tradition of gathering every 1st Friday for our Healing Mass, we invite you to join us for an online Healing Prayer service led by Sr. Mary Annette Dworshak, Deacon Steve Wodzanowski, and Bob McCaffery-Lent.

This is open to anyone who wants to join with others to pray for healing, individually and collectively. If you want to participate, contact Deacon Steve and he will send you the Zoom link or instructions to call in: ste-view@stjosephparish.org or 206-965-1646.

Coming Home

To get involved and find ministries at St. Joe's that need your help now, please visit <https://www.stjosephparish.org/cominghome>

This is also an opportunity for you to re-engage with parish life. Whether you want to join a small group bible study on Zoom, help bring groceries to the homebound, or be available at the church during open hours, consider this your invitation. There's something for everyone!

Liturgy Planning Committee – Join Us!

St. Joe's is beginning a Liturgy Planning Committee to help prepare parish liturgy throughout the various liturgical seasons. We're looking for people from all backgrounds and experiences to help make our liturgies artful, inclusive, and meaningful.

Do you have a background in campus ministry? Are you someone who might share a unique perspective on the art of the liturgy? Join us! Contact Bob McCaffery-Lent at rmclent@stjosephparish.org for more information.

Art & Environment Committee

The Beauty of the Liturgy Reflected in the Beauty of the Church

St. Joe's is forming an "Art and Environment Team" that will have the opportunity to enhance and vivify our experience of the liturgy through seasonal planning and decorating of the church. Participation of team members revolves around the liturgical calendar, gathering in an ongoing way as each new liturgical season approaches and may include one-time projects reflecting your personal talents.

For more information and to offer your gifts as a member of this team please contact Director of Music and Liturgy Bob McCaffery-Lent at 206.965-1649 or Rmclent@stjosephparish.org or Matthew Pyrc S.J. at mpyrc@stjosephparish.org

Con Corazón Virtual Concert from Arcatao, El Salvador

Con Corazón is hosting a free virtual concert with Tomas Enrique (a local celebrity in Arcatao) on October 24th! To register for this concert, visit: <https://concorazon.org/en/events/>

Con Corazón is a charitable project, begun by members of the Sister Parish Committee, (though not formally connected to the parish) to support locally-led efforts in Arcatao and Nueva Trinidad, El Salvador.

Safe Environment Training October 26th

Safe Environment training is being offered October 26th, 6:30pm-9pm, via zoom. This is a required training for those working with the youth at the school and parish. This training includes instructions on how to report abuse, and also how to help prevent abuse of minors. To register, create an account at virtusonline.org. If you need more information, please contact Theresa: Theresal@stjosephparish.org

Fall is here! Check out our lovely school decorations!

Children's Faith Formation

Sacramental Preparation for Older Children -- Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, Adapted for Children

For youth who are between 4th grade and high school, RCIA/C (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, Adapted for Children!) is the process "catching up" on missed Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist). Starting in January, St. Joseph will hold sessions once a week. This process may take place either in person or on Zoom, depending on the health guidance at the time. Youth will receive their sacraments during the Easter Season. To enroll your child in this program, please contact Claire Hansen at claireh@stjosephparish.org

First Communion Preparation (1st and 2nd grade Sacramental Preparation)

Preparation for First Communion is a 2-year process, beginning in 1st grade. For this fall's classes, the church classes will be offered every other week via Zoom and a parent or older sibling will be asked to attend. Our first class will be Oct. 18th on Zoom. Learn more and register at www.stjosephparish.org Please contact Claire with any questions.

Children's Liturgy of the Word – worship.pastoral.center

This is an independent online service created with Catholic families in mind. It's a bit more interactive than watching a Mass. There's an opening and closing song with motions that the kids can sing/dance along to, the gospel reading (a kids version or the NAB translation,) a brief cartoon or video about the gospel aimed for young kids, reflection questions for the family to discuss together, and a time for intercessions, etc. Families that use it can follow all the elements, or pick and choose those parts that work best for their family and the ages of their kids. The services are offered for free and are posted a few days before each Sunday.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Good and gracious God, from the very beginning you have built, blessed, and guided this local Church.

We give you thanks for the thousands of men and women who have given their lives in faithful service to the Church in Western Washington as priests and vowed religious.

They answered your call to serve as Christ served, and by your grace they have helped to grow and strengthen your family of faith.

Give us a spirit of gratitude and generosity
as we answer your call in our day to provide for our priests and sisters.

May we always follow the footsteps of your Son, Jesus, who is ever in our midst as one who serves.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Thank you for your Support of the Called to Serve as Christ Campaign

Thank you to the many donors and volunteers for their generosity and sacrifice toward the Called to Serve as Christ campaign. Each gift, each pledge, each hour of service to this effort has been an inspiration and blessing to our church. If you haven't yet made a gift, you can always do so by returning your pledge card to the archdiocese or going online to www.calledtoserveaschrist.org.

If you have any questions or need help making your gift please contact me at maryw@stjosephparish.org or 206.324.2522 ext 114.

Thanks,
Mary Wiseman, PAS

Financial Update

Monthly Budget: As you can see, beginning in September, we are starting to track under budget for ordinary income. Some of the offering usually collected at Mass is being made up by higher monthly online donations, but we are still short for each week. If you have not yet signed to up give monthly, please consider doing so. We will keep coming up with creative ways to reach out, as we continue to support each other during these challenging times.

ACA & Called to Serve: Thanks to all of you who donated, and thanks to the hard work of our new Assistant for Stewardship, Mary Wiseman, we reached our ACA Goal.

Up next in our bumpy 2020 road is the Called to Serve as Christ campaign. Everyone should have received their packet in the mail. This is an important campaign and we will be able to see some capital improvements on campus as part of our 15% parish kickback. In order to complete the campaign, we need 30% participation. We are asking that even if you are unable to give at this time, please mark your card with a prayer and send it in.

Thanks - Marti McGuaghey, PAA

OCTOBER 2020

In Ignatian spirituality, the Magis speaks to our desire for the “the greater” or “the more.” We seek the Magis in our family life when we embrace growth over success and continually ask how we can be more loving. The Magis Family Formation Project is powered by a group of parishioners. Our goal is to create a monthly family faith sharing guide to support families who are seeking to practice their faith at home during this time of COVID. Magis will offer a “menu” of options and parents and kids can pick a few things together which would work well for their family. Magis will include lectionary-based activities, faith-based quarantine crafts, as well as prayer and service activities. Magis will be written for kindergarten, primary, and middle school youth. We hope these ideas will help you encourage your family to tune in to the greater movement of God in your family in these busy times.

This month’s theme is “Reaching Out,” an apt theme for our inaugural Magis installment. All our activities and prayers are focused on how we can reach out, share, and connect with each other in our church community. Reaching out and connecting seems more precious than ever.

TAKE A WALK

Hidden Rocks – A Geocaching Activity

Inspired by Scribble Stones by Diane Alber

Paint or draw on a rock.

Include a fun message if you like.

Head outside and hide these rocks around St. Joseph Parish and your neighbourhood!

Take a look around and search for ones your brothers and sisters may have left out for you to find! Enjoy the love that has been spread around for all to share. Most of all, have fun connecting remotely with your community!

REFLECT: THIS MONTH’S READINGS

The following verses have become part of our daily spiritual lives and can open conversations with children to help build a foundation for their faith.

[OCTOBER 4]

Do not be anxious about anything, but in prayer and petition, with thanksgiving make your requests known to God.

(Philippians 4:6)

What would you like to ask God for?

What are your anxieties, how can you relieve them?

[OCTOBER 11]

I can do all things in him who strengthens me. (Philippians 4:13)

What do you find difficult to do?

What areas of yourself can you work to strengthen?

[OCTOBER 18]

Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God.

(Matthew 22:21)

Do you have something that you could give to God or to others in your community?

[OCTOBER 25]

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind... You shall love your neighbor as yourself.

(Matthew 22:37, 39)

How do we show God our love?

How do we treat our neighbours?

GO OUT AND GIVE

Here are some opportunities to share a gift of self or a gift of goods – give back to your community by sharing your talents and resources with others.

Donate Food

Drop off canned goods or needed food items at St. Joseph Parish's Hospitality room during church open hours. These goods help make Tent City, Blessed Sacrament Food Pantry, and Facing Homelessness lunches.

Make a Card

Write a nice card for someone in your life. Sometimes all it takes is a letter from someone you know to brighten the day.

Surprise your Family

Do an unexpected chore or make a surprise snack for someone. Think of their love for you as you share your love for them!
