| 1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father. | 3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen. |
| 2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us. | |

First Reading

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19

Peter said to the people: "The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied in Pilate's presence when he had decided to release him. You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked that a murderer be released to you. The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead; of this we are witnesses. Now I know, brothers, that you acted out of ignorance, just as your leaders did; but God has thus brought to fulfillment what he had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer. Repent, therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be wiped away."

I called, the God of justice gave me answer;
from anguish you released me, have mercy and hear me!

Know that the LORD works wonders for his faithful one;
the LORD will hear me whenever I call him.

"What can bring us happiness?" many say.
Lift up the light of your face on us, O LORD.

In peace I will lie down and fall asleep,
for you alone, O LORD, make me dwell in safety.

Second Reading

1 John 2:1-5a

My children, I am writing this to you so that you may not commit sin. But if anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one. He is expiation for our sins, and not for our sins only but for those of the whole world. The way we may be sure that we know him is to keep his commandments. Those who say, "I know him," but do not keep his commandments are liars, and the truth is not in them. But whoever keeps his word, the love of God is truly perfected in him.

Gospel

Luke 24:35-48

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread.

While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them.

He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

JESUIT CONNECTIONS

Contemplative Leaders in Action (CLA): Applications are now being accepted for the 2021-2023 cohort!

Are you in your 20s or 30s and searching for a community of peers who are striving to be purposeful leaders grounded in faith? Contemplative Leaders in Action (CLA) is a two-year faith formation and leadership development program for young adults rooted in the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola.

While the program nurtures individual growth, it also strives to develop a cohort of leaders who can bring the dynamics of faith and justice to lead their families, co-workers and communities.

Visit www.contemplativeleaders.org/apply-seattle to learn more and apply, or email Regional Coordinator, Amy Sytsma at clasea@ignatianyoungadults.org with your questions.

CHILDREN'S FAITH FORMATION

Team Members Needed for Middle School Confirmation

Are you looking to make a difference in the faith life of a teenager at St. Joseph Parish? Volunteers are needed for the Middle School Confirmation Team, which will meet about 3 times a month from October through February. The program will be open to students from 7-8th grade and will meet on Sundays afternoons. It will also include a retreat (day) and some service experiences (1/2 day).

When you show up in the life of a young person as a mentor in the faith they feel valued and welcomed in the parish but also in the Catholic Church as a whole. Middle schoolers are navigating issues of self-esteem, social and emotional upheaval in their friendship groups and activities, physical changes, rising expectations in school, as well as the challenge to begin forming a mature faith. It is vital that these youth have role models in the faith during these critical times. Please contact Claire (claireh@stjosephparish.org) if you'd like more information or if you'd like to talk about volunteering.

Teachers Needed for Faith Formation Classes on Sunday Mornings

This opportunity is about helping children come to know God and God's love for them and all of creation. Our Sunday morning program offers Sacramental Preparation classes for 1st and 2nd graders every other Sunday (2 Sundays each month). We are looking to begin online in the fall and then continue in person next spring

A person does not need to be an experienced teacher to volunteer. We have a curriculum for these classes and we also encourage our staff to be creative. Please contact Claire (claireh@stjosephparish.org) if you'd like more information or if you'd like to talk about volunteering. Thank you for considering!

St. Joe's Habitat for Humanity Build - April 24th 9am

St. Joe's is scheduled for a Habitat Build at the La Fortuna Project Site in Renton on April 24th. Please join us from 9am-4pm as we volunteer alongside the Habitat team. We can take up to 15 volunteers - spots fill up quickly, so please reach out early to Charlie Stiens at cstiens326@gmail.com to sign up! We look forward to seeing you out there on site and getting out and serving the community!

Join the new Facebook Young Adult Group

Join the new official St. Joe's Young Adult Facebook Group. While St. Joe's Young Adults have had a Facebook Page for years, we wanted the ability to open up a channel of communication between community members and keep people in the loop on events, faith sharing activities, and volunteer opportunities. FAITH JUSTICE

Immigration Committee: Request for Housing!

The St. Joe's Immigration Committee has been approached with a request for temporary housing for an immigrant from Pakistan.

He is in his late 30's, and fled Pakistan because he had witnessed a shooting and his life was threatened. It was a long journey to get here, and he ended up in the Tacoma detention center. He was released from detention in September 2020, has his work permit and is currently living in White Center.

He's been living in a room with a family there; however, his main support network is in the Capitol Hill area. He received his COVID vaccine recently and understands the health protocols necessary right now. He has a full-time job in Kent and speaks English.

He also has other needs, such as dental work. If you know of anyone who could provide that service pro bono or at low cost, that would also be helpful.

If you have a living space available in the area and would consider housing for this individual at no cost or for a nominal monthly rent payment for approximately six months, please contact Julian Gantt at (718) 839-3034 or julian.gantt@gmail.com

Nurturing Roots

There still is time for you to join with the St. Joseph Anti-Racism effort at Nurturing Roots Farm to "Build community through farming and heal community through relationships."

"Grow Love in Lent" is nearing it's culmination point. It's easy to join in. Just grab a small pot, fill it with organic soil, and gently tuck in an organic non-GMO veggie or herb seed. A little water and the warmth of a sunny window will do the rest. Most vegetable seeds germinate in 1-2 wks.

On Saturday, April 17, Nurturing Roots will be open 11am - 3pm for St. Joseph parishioners. On that day, you alone or with family, can donate your veggie start(s) in person to Nurturing Roots Farm, meet Nyema, the Executive Director, and feed some chickens (or drop the start at the parish center for us to deliver it for you). April 17, 11am - 3pm, come down, drop in, and see what St. Joseph's is "growing" in our community.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER

Once again, we find ourselves in the season of Easter, this time isolated and distanced from our extended families and our church. This is not the kind of Easter, or Lent, we are used to experiencing together. We gave up so much more this year than in any other year most of us can remember. We gave up dinners out, strolls through stores, movies, plays, school concerts, sporting events, family visits, and so much more. Like last year, maybe Lent was more meaningful for some, measured by how much we have given up. Some are probably feeling as if have spent twelve months stuck in Good Friday! With the distribution of vaccines, though, we have new hope for an end to this deadly pandemic, and one day soon we will hear one another sing!

The mission and ministry of our church didn't stop twelve months ago, when we got the word that we needed to close our doors to slow the spread of this disease. In some ways, the demands of our mission field became more challenging, and we are needed now more than ever!

Many of us find ourselves in a very different financial situation than we were in when the year began, but if you are able, as much as your able, please continue your financial support to keep being a witness of hope to our congregation and community. This year's Easter Season offering will go a long way for our church to offer ministry to those in need due to this crisis. So, if you have the resources, I would invite you to pray for wisdom and generosity, and then give as God has given to you.

Please don't hesitate to reach out to me at maryw@stjosephparish.org or call me at (206) 324-2522 ext.114 with any questions or concerns.

Easter Blessings,

Mary Wiseman, Pastoral Assistant for Stewardship
