The San José Student Residence: A Note of Thanks from Padre Miguel

A Note from Padre Miguel, who is moving on to a new assignment after many years at our Sister Parish, San Bartolomé, in Arcatao, El Salvador.

"Sisters and brothers of St. Joseph: through this note I would like to inform you that on Thursday, May 20th, we have signed the final purchase of the house for students in the Desarollo Humano Popular program. Thanks to your support and solidarity we will continue to provide better support to young students.

We have decided to name the house "San José Student Residence." God bless you and multiply in you all that solidarity and generosity that you have had for years and continue to have with us, in our present and future here.

Long live Saint Joseph. Long live San Bartolomé. Long live San Óscar Arnulfo Romero."

Entrance Song

All Who Hunger

Moore/Dunstan

1. All who hunger, gather gladly; Holy manna is our bread.
Come from wilderness and wand'ring. Here, in truth, we will be fed.
You that yearn for days of fullness, All around us is our food.

Refrain: Taste and see the grace eternal. Taste and see that God is good.

2. All who hunger, never strangers, seeker, be a welcome guest.
Come from restlessness and roaming. here, in joy, we keep the feast.
We that once were lost and scattered in communion's love have stood.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will.

1. We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

3. For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

2. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

First Reading

Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40

Moses said to the people: "Ask now of the days of old, before your time, ever since God created man upon the earth; ask from one end of the sky to the other: Did anything so great ever happen before? Was it ever heard of? Did a people ever hear the voice of God speaking from the midst of fire, as you did, and live? Or did any god venture to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by testings, by signs and wonders, by war, with strong hand and outstretched arm, and by great terrors, all of which the LORD, your God, did for you in Egypt before your very eyes? This is why you must now know, and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God in the heavens above and on earth below, and that there is no other. You must keep his statutes and commandments that I enjoin on you today, that you and your children after you may prosper, and that you may have long life on the land which the LORD, your God, is giving you forever."

"Blessed the people, the Lord has chosen to be his own"

The word of the LORD is faithful, and all his works to be trusted.
The LORD loves justice and right, and his merciful love fills the earth.

By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, by the breath of his mouth all their host.
He spoke, and it came to be. He commanded; it stood in place.

Yes, the LORD'S eyes are on those who fear him, who hope in his merciful love, to rescue their souls from death, to keep them alive in famine.

Our soul is waiting for the LORD. He is our help and our shield.
May your merciful love be upon us, as we hope in you, O LORD.

Second Reading

Romans 8:14-17

Brothers and sisters: Those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

Gospel Acclamation

"Alleluia!"

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Gospel

Matthew 28:16-20

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they all saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
All bow.
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Offertory Song

O Dawn Of All Creation

ANDUJAR/Dunstan/Hurd

O Dawn of all creation and mystery unknown, whose ways are not as our ways, whose thoughts are not our own.
In grace you made and blessed us; in mercy you forgave; in tenderness and longing, in faithfulness you save.

O Dawn of all the living, what is and what shall be, O Light and Flame of loving, Transcendent Mystery:
you dwell where none can follow, in worlds beyond our own, yet all who seek may find you in flesh and blood and bone.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Mystery of Faith

Save us savior of the world,
for by your cross and resurrection, you have set us free.

Great Amen

Amen

Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world,
grant us peace.

Communion Antiphon

The Love of God

Psallite

“The love of God is poured into our hearts. The Spirit of Christ is dwelling within”

Communion

We Belong To You

Thomson

We belong to you, O Lord of our longing, We belong to you.
In our daily living, dying and rising we belong to you.

1. In the waters of your mercy, when the old becomes the new,
Souls united in the myst'ry: we belong to you.
2. Filled with gifts and filled with goodness, Spirit breathing life into
All who seek to find their purpose: We belong to you.
3. When we share the bread you've broken With the many and the few,
We are blessed and we are broken; We belong to you.
4. We are called to share your word, Lord, In all we say and all we do.
As our journey moves us onward, We belong to you.

LITURGY & WORSHIP

Re-Opening at St. Joe's

5pm Saturday Mass:

The Saturday 5pm Mass is now open to in-person attendees! The Mass will still be livestreamed on YouTube, but now with people in the pews. If Saturday 5pm was your usual Mass before the pandemic, or if it's simply a better time for you and your family, we invite you to join us!

Social Distancing – Closer Contact Section:

We now have a non-socially-distanced section of the church during Mass. As more and more people become fully vaccinated, many feel comfortable sitting closer to other households during Mass. The front right (south) quarter of the church is now a section that does not have social distancing guidelines. Masks are still required for everyone!

Church Open Hours:

Church open hours are returning to their normal times – Monday thru Friday, 7am – 4pm, Saturday 11am – 5pm, and Sunday 9am – 7pm (excluding regularly scheduled Masses, wedding, and funerals). There will no longer be a church attendant present, though the parish center will be staffed during normal business hours.

We Need You!

As more and more of us return to Mass, we have a real need for volunteer ushers, especially for the 5:30pm Sunday service. This simple act of service makes people feel welcome in our church, and ensures for the safety and comfort of all. Please contact Bob McCaffery-Lent rmclent@stjosephparish.org if you are able to help in this way.

JESUIT CONNECTIONS

The Ignatian Year

IgnatianSpirituality.com (a part of Loyola Press) is joining the Society of Jesus and all who follow the ways of Ignatian spirituality in celebrating the Ignatian Year. May 20, 2021, the starting date for the year, is the 500th anniversary of St. Ignatius Loyola's injury during the Battle of Pamplona, which ultimately led to his conversion from soldier to saint.

During the year, we'll mark the 400th anniversary of the canonization of St. Ignatius and St. Francis Xavier on March 12, 2022. The year concludes on the Feast of St. Ignatius, July 31, 2022. Visit <https://www.ignatianspirituality.com/the-ignatian-year-2021-2022/> for events, resources, and readings!

CHILDREN'S FAITH FORMATION

High School Youth Ministry Listening Sessions

All high schoolers and their parents are invited to attend the following listening session:

- Sunday June 6, 11am St. Joseph Parish

Sign up at: <https://forms.gle/Y8CotexSLeujc2pL8> or contact Claire (claireh@stjosephparish.org) for the link.

Registration Open: Confirmation & First Communion

As a parish, we operate our sacramental programs in two tracks: at the church and at the school. All participants (school and church) must register for the programs through the parish website. Please contact Claire with any questions.

Registration is now open on for 7th and 8th graders to prepare for Confirmation on the St. Joseph Parish website. We will begin this program in the fall, and we hope to meet in person every other week (with a parent-led activity in the by weeks). We will host a required parent meeting via Zoom in September and then our first class for candidates is tentatively scheduled for Sunday, October 10th after the Sunday morning Mass.

Registration is now open for 1st and 2nd graders to prepare First Reconciliation and First Communion on the St. Joseph Parish website. Preparation for these sacraments is a 2 year process, beginning in 1st grade. We will begin this program in the fall, and we hope to meet in person every other week (with a parent-led activity in the by weeks). We will host a required parent meeting via Zoom in September and then our first class for candidates is tentatively scheduled for Sunday, October 3rd after the Sunday morning Mass.

Blessing of Graduates - June 12th & 13th

All students who are graduating middle school, high school, finishing up their GED, college (and any other graduation achievement) are invited to attend one of our weekend Masses on June 12th or 13th and receive a special blessing from the congregation. Let us celebrate you and pray for graces on your journey.

THE MAGIS FAMILY FORMATION PROJECT

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT, APPRECIATION, and ACTION JUNE 2021

The month of June reminds us of clearing skies and more warmth from the sun. In addition to the beautiful weather, the month of June is named after Juno, the Roman goddess of marriage, home, and family. But there is so much more occurring in this month. We honor our dads on Father's Day, celebrate the achievements of our graduates, and recognize the LGBTQ community with the Pride festivities.

During St. Joseph's transition, we thank Father Glen for his leadership and wish him well on his new journey. We pray for Deacon Steve in his new leadership role. May God bless him with fortitude, wisdom, grace, and compassion.

"You do not need to know precisely what is happening, or exactly where it is all going. What you need is to recognize the possibilities and challenges offered by the present moment, and to embrace them with courage, faith and hope." — Thomas Merton

Let us appreciate our Dads

EXAMEN...

Bless those fathers who have taken upon themselves the responsibility of parenting. Bless those who have lost a spouse to death, separation, or divorce, and who are parenting their children alone. Strengthen all Dads by Your love that they may become the loving, caring persons they are meant to be.

ACTION ...

Honor the father figures in your life - living or passed - with a hug, phone call, email, text, or a shared memory or tribute.

5 Saints who were great dads: <https://aleteia.org/2018/06/17/5-saints-who-were-great-dads/>

Let us acknowledge our Grads

EXAMEN ...

Surround those who are graduating with Your grace. Bless them with hope so they move into the future with eager and open hearts. Inspire them to believe in the goodness of life even when faced with challenges and difficulties. As they commence with their lives, may they become ever more grateful and wise.

ACTION ...

Congratulate a special graduate. Acknowledge their great achievement, especially with the challenges of the pandemic.

Let us act with our LGBTQ comrades

EXAMEN...

Help us become a community that shares each other's burdens and joyfully carries the weight of glory You gave us when You created us in Your image. Help us to continue our journey to equality with all our heart, all our soul, and with all our strength.

ACTION ...

Comfort an LGBTQ family member or friend; let them know you acknowledge their journey.

Let us hear the words of Jesus

June 6: The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Mark:14 12-16, 22-26

"I shall not drink again of the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God."

Do we have the patience and perseverance to allow God into our lives?

June 13: Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mark 4:26-34

"Using many parables, he spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it."

Jesus used stories to explain that the early church is growing and so is our Faith.

June 20: Happy Father's Day!

Mark 4:35-41

"He got up, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, 'Quiet! Be still!' Then the wind died down and it was completely calm."

Jesus is a calming presence when life feels frightening or overwhelming.

June 27: Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mark 5: 21-43

Jesus said, "Do not be afraid; just have faith."

Jesus shows us that with Faith, all things are possible.

Let us know St. Joseph

St. Joseph, Jesus' earthly father, is more than a man who stood next to Mary at the Nativity. After being promised to Mary he is visited by an angel and is told his betrothed is pregnant by the Holy Spirit and will give birth. Then he must look after a very pregnant Mary while travelling to Bethlehem which was about 90 miles away! It took them 4-5 days over many hills and cold weather. They'd have had to pack their own food and worry about wild animals: boars, bears, and even lions! There were also bandits and outlaws to look out for. There were many more trials for Joseph. After the shepherds and Magi bring notice to Herod that the promised Messiah has been born, Joseph must flee with his family to Egypt to keep them safe. He also had to provide as the breadwinner. That must have been a worry as they now lived in a foreign country. The questions fathers today ask themselves are the same Joseph worried about. Could he keep his family safe? Would he be able to make enough to provide for them? St. Joseph models for all fathers to work for the greater glory of God and his family.

From Pope Francis's "Patris Corde" ...

Hail Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son,
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.
Blessed Joseph, to us, too, show yourself as a father and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage,
And defend us from every evil.

Amen

Let us commemorate through an activity

Collage

You can collect some favorite pictures of your dad, or another father figure and the kids, make a collage and get it printed. Another fun way is to take a paper and give your child prints of some pics and let them paint or color the base and then stick the pictures in their own way. It will be a great way to keep them busy and create a beautiful gift for their dads.

Dad's Breakfast Pizza

Make (or take-out!) his favorite pizza.
Stash it in the fridge until breakfast time.
Preheat the oven to 450 degrees.
Crack an egg on every other slice.
Bake until the eggs are cooked!

Cardboard Castle Fort

If you've got extra cardboard boxes (and a fair amount of patience), you can make one for your house too. <https://brandontran.com/a-kids-dream-cardboard-castle-boxes>

FAITH JUSTICE

Prayer, Healing, and Action for Racial Solidarity

At the service for Prayer, Healing, and Action for Racial Solidarity on the First Anniversary of George Floyd's Murder, at St. James Cathedral on May 25th, Deacon Steve read this public statement of action on behalf of the St. Joe's community:

"St. Joseph Parish is committed to pursuing Anti-Racist policy, advocacy, and action. In the next year, the parish will implement Anti-Racist/Bias staff and volunteer training, and commit significant material resources to initiatives that create a more inclusive space for Black, Latino/a/x, AAPI, and Indigenous communities, and all People of Color."

You can view the webcast on St. James' Vimeo and Facebook: www.facebook.com/stjamesseattle/

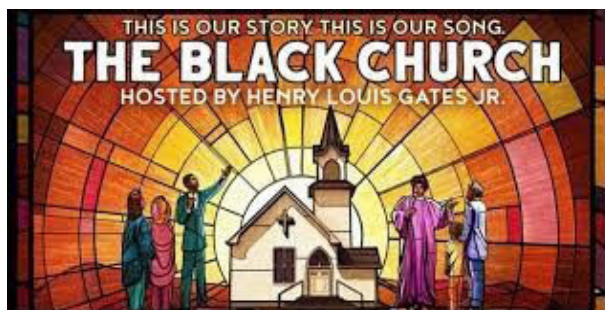

Racial Justice Book Group

June 9th, 7pm on Zoom

Please join us for a discussion of the two-part PBS video series, The Black Church: This is Our Story, This is Our Song on June 9th at 7pm on Zoom. Please contact racialjusticebookgroup@stjosephparish.org to receive the Zoom link.

The Black Church: This is Our Story, This is Our Song is a two-part, four-hour documentary series from Henry Louis Gates, Jr., tracing the 400-year-old story of the Black church in America. The series examines the church as a living institution, and the changing nature of worship spaces. The churches Gates visits are both a world within a world, where Black Americans could be themselves, and the epicenter of the freedom struggle.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

We are now in our fourth week of the ACA and we have raised a total of $52,984 so far toward our goal of $160,673. (110 families, or 7% of the parish, has already pledged.) It is important to note that St Joseph is required to pay this amount regardless of how much we collect. If we collect over our goal it will come back to us in the form of a rebate. Please be sure to turn in your pledge today.

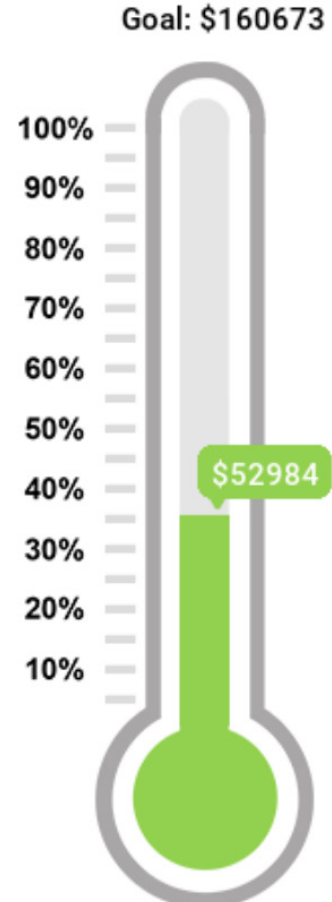

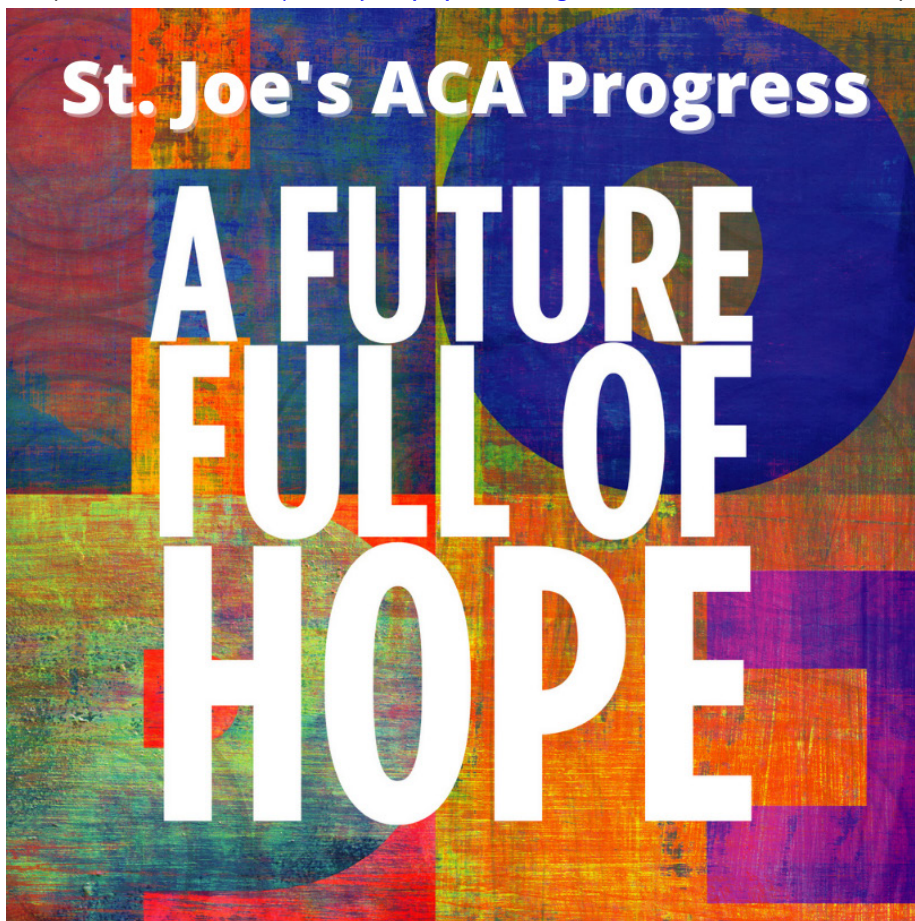

WAYS TO GIVE TO THE ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

- Pledge Only – submit your pledge (through the pledge card, envelope or online) and you will be sent monthly reminders.
- Cash or Check – make checks payable to Annual Catholic Appeal
- Donate Stock – call 1-800-809-4921 for broker instructions
- Donate through your IRA – contact your IRA administrator and have your gift sent directly to the ACA Office, 710 9th Ave, Seattle WA 98104 – include your name, ACA ID# and the parish you want the gift credit to go to.
- Payroll Deduction – some employers offer this option – check with yours
- Make your “in lieu of” gift to St. Joe’s here: <https://www.osvonlinegiving.com/1713>

Can my gift be doubled?

Many companies MATCH gifts to the Annual Catholic Appeal! Check if your employer has a Matching Gift program and help your parish maximize their Annual Catholic Appeal Rebate! Once your payment has been received OR pledge has been paid in full, you can apply for the match per your employer’s instructions. Contact our office for the Tax ID# to be used for this matching gift option,

All gifts have until April 2021 to be fulfilled. Thank you for your support and participation! Please reach out to Mary Wiseman at maryw@stjosephparish.org or 206-965-1654 with any questions!

FINANCIAL UPDATE

Dear St. Joe's Community,

I have some great news to share! St. Joseph has received confirmation that our Payroll Protection Program loan was forgiven. (The PPP was a Small Business Administration program unique to the pandemic.)

I'm so thankful to have received these funds. As you can see in the below numbers, even with cutting our expenses this year by $135,000, it would not be enough to cover the huge loss of income during the pandemic. With the PPP adjustment, we will have a $68,000 adjusted net income. This infusion allowed us to continue to support services like food pantry, opening our kitchen to PLANET WORTH (vegan meals for houseless neighbors), our partnerships with Facing Homelessness and St. Vincent de Paul shelters, and keeping the church open daily for personal prayer. Additionally, we pivoted to online programming for prayer groups, educational events, community forums, faith formation, and confirmation. We also began a parishioner buddy system ministry that is still going strong.

I know it will take time for us to grow our income to pre-pandemic levels. Our parish had a goal of an adjusted net income of $90,000. While we are tracking about $25,000 short of that goal (and my comfort level for a good night's sleep!), the generosity of our community has allowed us to retain a portion of our savings to use for the next fiscal year. For this, I'm extremely grateful. My ultimate goal is to be sure our staff feels secure during this time of change and uncertainty.

We have not done a special ask during the pandemic, as we just did not feel comfortable asking during this uncertain time. We also wanted to wait to be sure we needed the funds before we asked for them. As we continue a broader opening, we are asking that you continue to remember us in gifts and prayers if you are able. We have almost made it through the pandemic together and with your help we can end this year in a better financial position.

Please reach out to me with any questions or concerns. I love to get questions and talk to parishioners interested in the financial health of St. Joseph Parish.

Sincerely,

Marti McGaughey
