St. Joseph Parish Signs Statement from Catholic Bishops Supporting LGBT Youth

With support from the Pastoral and Mission Council, the St. Joe's LGBTQ Ministry, Pastoral Coordinator Steve Wodzanowski, and parish staff, we, as a parish, have joined dozens of other parishes and Catholic organizations (including Jesuits USA) in signing "God Is on Your Side: A Statement from Catholic Bishops on Protecting LGBT Youth," a statement facilitated by the Tyler Clementi Foundation. See the full statement and link to co-signers below:

God Is on Your Side: A Statement from Catholic Bishops on Protecting LGBT Youth

As Catholic Bishops in the United States, we join with the Tyler Clementi Foundation in standing up for at-risk LGBT youth in our country.

As we see in the Gospels, Jesus Christ taught love, mercy and welcome for all people, especially for those who felt persecuted or marginalized in any way; and the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches that LGBT people are to be treated with "respect, compassion and sensitivity."

All people of goodwill should help, support, and defend LGBT youth; who attempt suicide at much higher rates than their straight counterparts; who are often homeless because of families who reject them; who are rejected, bullied and harassed; and who are the target of violent acts at alarming rates.

The Catholic Church values the God-given dignity of all human life and we take this opportunity to say to our LGBT friends, especially young people, that we stand with you and oppose any form of violence, bullying or harassment directed at you.

Most of all, know that God created you, God loves you and God is on your side.

First Reading

Ezekiel 17:22-24

Thus says the Lord GOD:

I, too, will take from the crest of the cedar,
from its topmost branches tear off a tender shoot,
and plant it on a high and lofty mountain;
on the mountain heights of Israel I will plant it.
It shall put forth branches and bear fruit,
and become a majestic cedar.

Birds of every kind shall dwell beneath it,
every winged thing in the shade of its boughs.
And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD,
bring low the high tree,
lift high the lowly tree,
wither up the green tree,
and make the withered tree bloom.
As I, the LORD, have spoken, so will I do.

Psalm

Psalm 92

Guimont

It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to sing praise to your name, Most High, to proclaim your kindness at dawn and your faithfulness throughout the night. Ref.

The just one shall flourish like the palm tree, like a cedar of Lebanon shall he grow.
They that are planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God. Ref.

They shall bear fruit even in old age; vigorous and sturdy shall they be, declaring how just is the Lord, my rock, in whom there is no wrong. Ref.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 5:6-10

Brothers and sisters: We are always courageous, although we know that while we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord, for we walk by faith, not by sight. Yet we are courageous, and we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord. Therefore, we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or evil.

Gospel Acclamation

Alonso

"The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower. All who come to him will live forever."

Gospel

Mark 4:26-34

Jesus said to the crowds: "This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Of its own accord the land yields fruit, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come."

He said, "To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade." With many such parables he spoke the word to them as they were able to understand it. Without parables he did not speak to them, but to his own disciples he explained everything in private.

Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us (men) and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

All bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

All stand upright.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Liturgy Notes for Ordinary Time

By Katy Huston, MAPS

You might not know this about Ordinary Time: it is not called “Ordinary Time” because we are all done with Easter and all feasts associated with Easter — Assumption, Pentecost, Trinity Sunday, and The Body and Blood of Christ. And it’s not because we are just hanging out, waiting for Christ the King, Advent and Christmas, and then Lent and Easter again.

Ordinary Time is actually “Ordinal Time,” relating to numbers. Most of the Sundays in Ordinary Time are numbered, as opposed to named. For the typical year, there are 33 Sundays in Ordinary Time. You will notice in the bulletin that this is the Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time. We had the Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time back on February 14. Then we went into Lent. The count picks up again with the named feasts following Easter: The Assumption (7), Pentecost (8) Trinity Sunday (9) and The Body and Blood of Christ (10).

Now you know something that you might not have known! However, no matter how we name them, Sundays are still important. All Sundays in the Church year are solemn celebrations. They are how we practice the fourth commandment, to keep holy the Lord’s Day. The color of vestments for Ordinary Time is green. And green is the color of hope. We live in hope, flowers and candles helping us to keep focused on taking this one day to rest and praise our Creator God.

THE MAGIS FAMILY FORMATION PROJECT

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT, APPRECIATION, and ACTION JUNE 2021

The month of June reminds us of clearing skies and more warmth from the sun. In addition to the beautiful weather, the month of June is named after Juno, the Roman goddess of marriage, home, and family. But there is so much more occurring in this month. We honor our dads on Father's Day, celebrate the achievements of our graduates, and recognize the LGBTQ community with the Pride festivities.

During St. Joseph's transition, we thank Father Glen for his leadership and wish him well on his new journey. We pray for Deacon Steve in his new leadership role. May God bless him with fortitude, wisdom, grace, and compassion.

"You do not need to know precisely what is happening, or exactly where it is all going. What you need is to recognize the possibilities and challenges offered by the present moment, and to embrace them with courage, faith and hope." — Thomas Merton

Let us appreciate our Dads

EXAMEN...

Bless those fathers who have taken upon themselves the responsibility of parenting. Bless those who have lost a spouse to death, separation, or divorce, and who are parenting their children alone. Strengthen all Dads by Your love that they may become the loving, caring persons they are meant to be.

ACTION ...

Honor the father figures in your life - living or passed - with a hug, phone call, email, text, or a shared memory or tribute.

5 Saints who were great dads: <https://aleteia.org/2018/06/17/5-saints-who-were-great-dads/>

Let us acknowledge our Grads

EXAMEN ...

Surround those who are graduating with Your grace. Bless them with hope so they move into the future with eager and open hearts. Inspire them to believe in the goodness of life even when faced with challenges and difficulties. As they commence with their lives, may they become ever more grateful and wise.

ACTION ...

Congratulate a special graduate. Acknowledge their great achievement, especially with the challenges of the pandemic.

Let us act with our LGBTQ comrades

EXAMEN...

Help us become a community that shares each other's burdens and joyfully carries the weight of glory You gave us when You created us in Your image. Help us to continue our journey to equality with all our heart, all our soul, and with all our strength.

ACTION ...

Comfort an LGBTQ family member or friend; let them know you acknowledge their journey.

Let us hear the words of Jesus

June 6: The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Mark:14 12-16, 22-26

"I shall not drink again of the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God."

Do we have the patience and perseverance to allow God into our lives?

June 13: Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mark 4:26-34

"Using many parables, he spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it."

Jesus used stories to explain that the early church is growing and so is our Faith.

June 20: Happy Father's Day!

Mark 4:35-41

"He got up, rebuked the wind and said to the waves, 'Quiet! Be still!' Then the wind died down and it was completely calm."

Jesus is a calming presence when life feels frightening or overwhelming.

June 27: Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mark 5: 21-43

Jesus said, "Do not be afraid; just have faith."

Jesus shows us that with Faith, all things are possible.

Collage

You can collect some favorite pictures of your dad, or another father figure and the kids, make a collage and get it printed. Another fun way is to take a paper and give your child prints of some pics and let them paint or color the base and then stick the pictures in their own way. It will be a great way to keep them busy and create a beautiful gift for their dads.

PARISH LIFE & FAITH JUSTICE

LGBTQ: It's All About Love

Welcome to the first LGBTQ (lesbian gay bisexual transgender queer) column in the St Joe's bulletin. Its purpose is to affirm and support our LGBTQ parishioners and their families and provide resources for our parish community.

June 2021: Pride Month

June is LGBTQ Pride month. It honors the Stonewall riots, a series of spontaneous demonstrations that began in response to a police raid in the early morning hours of June 28, 1969 in Greenwich Village.

In keeping with our motto, "It's all about love", each column will open with a reading from Scripture to ground us in the love and light of Jesus.

Scripture: Acts 11, 44-49: "While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the Word. The circumcised believers who had accompanied Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit should have been poured out on the Gentiles also, for they could hear them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter responded, 'Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people, who have received the Holy Spirit even as we have?' He ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ."

Educating Ourselves: It Gets Better Project The It Gets Better Project's mission is to uplift, empower, and connect lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer (LGBTQ+) youth around the globe. Their YouTube channel has videos for LGBTQ teens from celebrities, political leaders, and everyday people sharing their stories about being bullied, threatened, shamed, abused, shunned.

PARISH LIFE & FAITH JUSTICE

Becoming Anti-Racist - June 2021: Juneteenth

As we approach the Juneteenth holiday, the St. Joe's Anti-Racism Committee would like to invite you to reflect, learn, and grow as we walk the path of Jesus with radical love, working to become an equitable and inclusive anti-racist parish, where everybody feels like they belong.

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 12:25-26 "For the body does not consist of one member but of many; that there be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together".

Juneteenth (June 19): Juneteenth is a celebration of the Emancipation Proclamation in the United States. While the Emancipation Proclamation took effect in January, 1863, it wasn't until June 19, 1865, that the announcement was made in Texas that all slaves were free. The observation of this celebration began the following year to celebrate the day in history that slaves in the far South were told they were free. In 1979, Texas was the first state to make Juneteenth an official holiday. Although 47 states (including Washington) currently recognize Juneteenth as a celebration or holiday, many Americans are still not aware of its importance. (Information from "The African Americans, Many Rivers to Cross, What is Juneteenth?" with Henry Louis Gates Jr. on PBS.org., PBS Learning Media, 2013.)

Further Reading on Racism in America: "We should hope not for a colorblind society but instead for a world in which we can see each other fully, learn from each other, and do what we can to respond to each other with love". (From the book The New Jim Crow by Michelle Alexander, 2012, pg. 244.)

Video Learning: Although on Juneteenth the freedom of slaves in America was announced, during the following years there were many Jim Crow laws and obstacles put in place that prevented black Americans from being truly free. For more about the era in America after Emancipation and the Reconstruction era (1865-1877) during which attempts were made to redress the inequities of slavery, watch Reconstruction After the Civil War <https://www.pbs.org/show/reconstruction-america-after-civil-war>

Reflection Question: How does the Gospel call us to celebrate Juneteenth in a way that shows solidarity with our brothers and sisters who still struggle for freedom in America?

Housing Needed! Can You Help?

A parishioner is looking for a small rental house in Seattle (Capitol Hill, Madrona, Greenlake, or other neighborhoods are great!). She's a nurse practitioner at UW, and has two small well-behaved dogs. Do you know of a small house or mother-in-law unit that will be available at the end of June? Let us know! A place with a small yard and storage would be ideal – budget is $2400/month. Contact Mark Petterson markp@stjosephparish.org and he will send information to the renter.

PARISH FINANCIAL UPDATES

Your gift to the Annual Catholic Appeal is still needed! Thank you to all who have responded to the needs of our Church in Western Washington through the 2021 Annual Catholic Appeal. One person or parish could not possibly accomplish all that needs to be done for over 60 ministries and services of the Annual Catholic Appeal.

It is not too late to donate if you haven't already done so! Please fill out a pledge envelope today or donate online. Our follow up email will be going out this week! And if you cannot give this year, please participate by keeping the efforts of the Appeal in your prayers.

All gifts have until April 2021 to be fulfilled. Thank you for your support and participation! Please reach out to Mary Wiseman at maryw@stjosephparish.org or 206-965-1654 with any questions!

Dear Friends,

Many of you may know that our church fiscal year runs from July to June – this means that your stewardship gift between now and June 30th will greatly affect how we finish up our fiscal year. Currently, we are projecting a net loss of $145,0000, and we would all love to see this number shrink!

Recently, at morning Mass, one of our most faithful parishioners found a penny on the altar and jokingly gave it to me to help with the church budget. I couldn't help but think, "I just need to find $40,000 worth of pennies in the next month!" Remember that old song, "Pennies from Heaven"? Though that's not really how things work, I felt like that penny represented a fresh start. All of us at St. Joe's are looking forward to a new start this year, and we would love to start the next fiscal year on a more solid financial footing.

We have almost made it through the pandemic together, and with your help, we can end this year in a better financial position. Please consider making your gift at www.stjosephparish.org or dropping a check in the mail or by the Parish Center.

As always, if you have any questions on the financial position of the Parish, please reach out to me at Marti@stjosephparish.org.

Peace and Blessings,

Marti McGaughey
Pastoral Assistant for Administration
